Sentimental Song Celebrating The Forms Of Love:

The Form of Love James Kuzner, 2021-08-03 Can poetry articulate something about love that philosophy cannot The Form of Love argues that it can In close readings of seven metaphysical poems the book shows how poets of the early modern period and beyond use poetic form to turn philosophy to other ends in order not to represent the truth about love but to create a virtual experience of love in all its guises The Form of Love shows how verse creates love that can't exist without poetry's specific affordances and how poems can in their impossibility prompt love's radical reimagining Like the philosophies on which they draw metaphysical poems imagine love as an intense form of non-sovereignty of giving up control They even imagine love as a liberating bondage to a friend a beloved a saint a God or a garden Yet these poems create strange striking versions of such love made in rather than through the devices structures and forces where love appears Tracing how poems think Kuzner argues requires an intimate form of reading close even too close attention to and thinking with the text Showing how poetry thinks of love otherwise than other fields the book reveals how poetry and philosophy can nevertheless enter into a relation that is itself like love

Emotional Tales of Love Muska Dee, 201-01-01 As you immerse yourself in Emotional Tales of Love you will encounter characters who are relatable heartfelt and deeply human Each story invites you to experience the highs and lows the joys and sorrows and the extraordinary moments that make love such a powerful and transformative force These tales are not just about romantic love they also touch on themes of friendship family and self-love offering a holistic view of the many ways love enriches our lives Whether you are in the throes of a new romance cherishing a long-term partnership healing from a past heartbreak or simply dreaming of love these stories will resonate with you They are a celebration of love in all its forms a reminder that no matter where we are in life love is a journey that we all share

The Power of Music Susan Hallam, Evangelos Himonides, 2022-07-11 Building on her earlier work The Power of Music: A Research Synthesis of the Impact of Actively Making Music on the Intellectual, Social, and Personal Development of Children and Young People, this volume by Susan Hallam and Evangelos Himonides is an important new resource in the field of music education practice and psychology. A well-signposted text with helpful subheadings, The Power of Music: An Exploration of the Evidence gathers and synthesises research in neuroscience, psychology, and education to develop our understanding of the effects of listening to and actively making music. Its chapters address music's relationship with literacy and numeracy, transferable skills, its impact on social cohesion and personal wellbeing, as well as the roles that music plays in our everyday lives. Considering evidence from large population samples to individual case studies and across age groups, the authors also pose important methodological questions to the research community. The Power of Music defends qualitative research against a requirement for randomised control trials that can obscure the diverse and often fraught contexts in which people of all ages and backgrounds are exposed to and engage with music. This magnificent and comprehensive volume allows the evidence about the power of music to speak for itself, thus providing an essential directory for those researching music education and its social, personal, and cognitive impact across human ages and experiences. Children's Liturgy of the Word 2009 - 2010: A Weekly Resource - Celebrating the Lectionary, Culture and Emotional Economy of Migration

Badri Narayan, 2018-10-03 This book studies how the act of migration is a motivating constituent in the production of popular culture in both the homeland and the destination. It looks at the formations of cultures in the process of identity-making of approximately 200 million Indians scattered across the world from colonial to contemporary times. The volume is an in-depth exploration of the flow of cultures and their interactions through a study of north Indian migrants who underwent two waves of emigration from the Bhojpuri region to the Dutch colony of Suriname between 1873 and 1916 to work on sugar, coffee, cotton, and cocoa plantations, and their descendants who moved to The Netherlands following the Surinamese independence in 1975. It compares this complex network of cultures among the migrants to the folk culture of the Bhojpuri region from where large-scale migration is still taking place. The work draws on archival records, secondary literature, folk songs, rare photographs, and extensive fieldwork across continents: the Bhojpuri region, Mumbai, Surat, and Ghaziabad in India; and Suriname and The Netherlands. This second edition marks the 150th Anniversary of the Abolition of Indentured Labour. With a new prologue, an updated introduction, and some revisions to the text, it will be useful to scholars and researchers of cultural studies, labour studies, sociology, modern Indian history, migration and diaspora studies It will also interest the Indian diaspora especially in Europe and the Americas
