Separate But Not Equal The Dream And The Struggle:

Separate But Not Equal James Haskins, Jim Haskins, 2002-01 Relates the history of African American education from colonial times to Brown v the Board of Education to the present Teaching Banned Books Pat R. Scales, 2001-06 As a standard bearer for intellectual freedom the school librarian is in an ideal position to collaborate with teachers to not only protect the freedom to read but also ensure that valued books with valuable lessons are not quarantined from the readers for whom they were written Black Authors and Illustrators of Books for Children and Young Adults Barbara Thrash Murphy, Deborah L. Murphy, 2006-12-21 Black Authors and Illustrators of Books for Children and Young Adults is a biographical dictionary that provides comprehensive coverage of all major authors and illustrators past and present As the only reference volume of its kind available this book is a valuable research tool that provides quick access for anyone studying black children s literature whether one is a student a librarian charged with maintaining a children s literature collection or a scholar of children s literature The Fourth Edition of this renowned reference work illuminates African American contributions to children s literature and books for young adults The new edition contains updated and new information for existing author illustrator entries the addition of approximately 50 new profiles and a new section listing online resources of interest to the authors and readers of black children s literature The Harvard Guide to African-American History Evelyn Brooks Higginbotham, 2001 This massive guide sponsored by the W E B Du Bois Institute for Afro American Research at Harvard University and compiled by renowned experts offers a compendium of information and interpretation on over 500 years of black experience in America Cases on Strategic Partnerships for Resilient Communities and Schools Thomas, Ursula, 2020-04-24 As the importance of public education increases both globally and nationally partnerships between schools and their community become key to each other s success Examining the intersection of schools with their communities reveals the most effective strategies for supporting school populations that are traditionally marginalized or underserved in both rural and urban areas Cases on Strategic Partnerships for Resilient Communities and Schools is an essential publication that uncovers the problems and pitfalls of creating strategic partnerships between schools and other members of the community in which the schools are situated that include for profit businesses not for profit entities and private organizations The book reveals that schools that are thriving effectively do not do so in isolation but as vibrant members and centers of the communities in which they serve students and families Moreover it examines the difficulty in advocating for the schools and the leadership of the schools within these communities so that they can be better served Highlighting a wide range of topics including leadership community based outreach and school advocacy this book is ideally designed for teachers school administrators principals school boards and committees non profit administrators educational advocates leadership faculty community engagement directors community outreach personnel entrepreneurs researchers academicians and students Creating Critical Classrooms Mitzi Lewison, Christine Leland, Jerome C. Harste, 2014-08-07 This popular text articulates a powerful theory of critical literacy in all its complexity. Critical literacy practices encourage students to use language to question the everyday world, interrogate the relationship between language and power, analyze popular culture and media, understand how power relationships are socially constructed, and consider actions that can be taken to promote social justice. By providing both a model for critical literacy instruction and many examples of how critical practices can be enacted in daily school life in elementary and middle school classrooms, Creating Critical Classrooms meets a huge need for a practical, theoretically based text on this topic. Pedagogical features in each chapter: Teacher researcher Vignette, Theories that Inform Practice, Critical Literacy Chart, Thought Piece, Invitations for Disruption, Lingering Questions. New in the Second Edition: End of chapter Voices from the Field, More upper elementary grade examples. New text sets drawn from Classroom Resources. Streamlined, restructured, revised, and updated throughout. Expanded Companion Website now includes annotated Classroom Resources, Text Sets, Resources by Chapter, Invitations for Students, Literacy Strategies, Additional Resources.

How to Get Your Child to Love Reading Esmé Raji Codell, 2003-01-01 Offers advice and guidelines on how to expand a child's world through books and reading, introducing three thousand teacher recommended book titles, craft ideas, projects, recipes, and reading club tips.

A Free Black Girl Before the Civil War Charlotte L. Forten, Christy Steele, 2003-07-01 The diary of Charlotte Forten, a sixteen year old free African American who lived in Massachusetts in 1854, who records her schooling, participation in the anti slavery movement, and concern for an arrested fugitive slave. Includes activities and a timeline related to this era.

Brown v. Board of Education: I Want To Go To School! Carole Marsh, 2011-03-01 The 22 book American Milestone series is featured as Retailers Recommended Fabulous Products in the August 2012 edition of Educational Dealer magazine. This book describes fascinating facts and fun activities your students will love. The American Milestone series are a favorite among teachers nationwide. This book includes ideas for lesson plans, hands on activities, biographies, fascinating facts, and stories. Your students will be amazed as they study the Great Depression. The American Milestone series meets national and social studies standards. This 32 page book is reproducible and educational. The book begins in 1950s in Topeka, Kansas, but spread to many cities and towns as discriminatory laws mandated that black children could not attend the same schools as white children. Black children would often have to cross whole cities to reach their schools, passing schools for white children along the way. But in 1951, the Topeka NAACP filed a lawsuit that would forever change schools and the relationship between blacks and whites. Brown was much more than a case about one little girl; it was about a whole nation of people who had grown tired of injustice. Brown v. Board of Education represented more than 200 plaintiffs and 12 different attorneys and community activists. Integration did not take place overnight, but Brown v. Board of Education marked the milestone when the notion of equality moved away from just being an idea and took the first steps toward becoming reality. A partial list of the Table of Contents include: A Timeline of Events, I Want To Go To School, Brown v. Board of Education, Equal Protection under the Law.
