Sephardim The Spirit That Has Withstood The Times:

Jewish Intermarriage Around the World Sergio DellaPergola, 2017-07-28 Most research on intermarriage between Jews and non Jews focuses on the United States This volume takes a path breaking approach examining countries with smaller Jewish populations so as to better understand countries with larger Jewish populations It focuses on intermarriage in Great Britain France Scandinavia the Soviet Union Mexico Venezuela Canada South Africa Australia Argentina and Curacao then applies the findings to the United States In earlier centuries such a volume might have yielded much different conclusions Then Jews lived in more countries intermarriage was not as prevalent and social science had little to contribute Before World War II the Jewish population was dispersed much differently and it continues to shift around the world because of both push and pull factors Like demography intermarriage is a dynamic process What is true today was probably not true in the past nor will it be true tomorrow The contributors to this volume locate new forms of Jewish family life single parents gay lesbian parents adults without children and couples with multiple backgrounds These multiple family forms raise a new question what is a Jewish family as well as a variety of related issues Do women and men have different roles in intermarriage Does a family need two people to raise children Should there be patrilineal descent Where do adoption single parenting lesbian and gay identities and more fit into the picture Broadly what role does the family play in transmitting a group's culture from generation to generation This volume presents a portrait of Jewish demography in the twenty first century brilliantly interweaving global processes with significant local variations Sephardim Piet H. Huisman, 1986 Sephardics in i a Brazil Surinam and the Netherlands Antillen 6 p on the cemetery on Curaao Secrecy and Deceit David Martin Gitlitz, 2002 Comprehensive history of crypto Jewish beliefs and social customs An Early Self Susanne Zepp, 2014-11-19 What role has Jewish intellectual culture played in the development of modern Romance literature Susanne Zepp seeks to answer this question through an examination of five influential early modern texts written between 1499 and 1627 Fernando de Rojas's La Celestina Leone Ebreo's Dialoghi d'amore the anonymous tale Lazarillo de Tormes the first picaresque novel Montaigne's Essais and the poetical renditions of the Bible by Joao Pinto Delgado Forced to straddle two cultures and religions these Iberian conversos Jews who converted to Catholicism prefigured the subjectivity which would come to characterize modernity As New Christians in an intolerant world these thinkers worked within the tensions of their historical context to question norms and dogmas In the past scholars have focused on the Jewish origins of such major figures in literature and philosophy Through close readings of these texts Zepp moves the debate away from the narrow question of the authors origins to focus on the innovative ways these authors subverted and transcended traditional genres She interprets the changes that took place in various literary genres and works of the period within the broader historical context of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries demonstrating the extent to which the development of early modern subjective consciousness and its expression in literary works can be explained in part as a universalization of originally
