Classical Bearings Peter Green, 2023-04-28 In this collection of sixteen literary and historical essays, Peter Green informs, entertains, and stimulates. He covers a wide range of subjects from Greek attitudes toward death to the mysteries of the Delphic Oracle from Tutankhamun and the gold of Egypt to sex in ancient literature from the island of Lesbos where he once lived to the challenges of translating Ovid's wit and elegant eroticism into present-day English verse from Victorian pederastic aesthetics to Marxism's losing battle with ancient history. This third volume of Green's essays, several previously unpublished, reveals throughout his serious concern that we are in a very real sense losing the legacy of antiquity through the corrosive methodologies of modern academic criticism. This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program, which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice, reach, and impact. Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893, Voices Revived makes high-quality, peer-reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print-on-demand technology. This title was originally published in 1998.

American Silent Horror, Science Fiction and Fantasy Feature Films, 1913-1929 John T. Soister, Henry Nicolella, Steve Joyce, 2014-01-10 During the Silent Era when most films dealt with dramatic or comedic takes on the boy-meets-girl, boy-loses-girl theme, other motion pictures dared to tackle such topics as rejuvenation, revivification, mesmerism, the supernatural, and the grotesque. A Daughter of the Gods (1916), The Phantom of the Opera (1925), The Magician (1926), and Seven Footprints to Satan (1929) were among the unusual and startling films containing story elements that went far beyond the realm of the highly unlikely. Using surviving documentation and their combined expertise, the authors catalog and discuss these departures from the norm in this encyclopedic guide to American horror, science fiction, and fantasy in the years
