Guelich, 1982-01-01 Here is a practical relevant discussion as well as an exegetical commentary on perhaps the most widely known summary of Jesus teachings By drawing on many sources Dr Guelich pays close attention to this section s foundation and its setting within the total purpose of Matthew s gospel A

Dispensationalism, Israel and the Church Craig A. Blaising, Darrell L. Bock, 2010-08-10 The relationship between Israel and the church is a crucial reference point in theology especially in distinguishing between dispensational and nondispensational ways of thinking The thesis of this book is that Israel and the church are distinct theological institutions that have arisen in the historical progress of divine revelation But they are also related as successive phases of a redemptive program that is historically progressive and eschatologically converging The approach to these issues here is neither polemical nor apologetic rather it anticipates a convergence among evangelical scholars in the recognition of both continuity and discontinuity in the Israel church relationship This book has three purposes To offer a contemporary dispensational treatment of that relationship through an exegetical examination of key texts with a focus on theological concerns To foster genuine dialogue with nondispensational thinkers regarding major biblical themes tied to the plan of God To identify the changes in dispensational thought that have developed since the publication of Charles Ryrie s book Dispensationalism Today in 1965 The Great Sermon Tradition as a Fiscal Framework in 1 Corinthians Christopher L. Carter, 2010-02-03 What is Paul s theology of material possessions and where did it come from Through demonstrating continuity in the broad fiscal thought of Jesus and Paul Carter suggests that Paul owes his financial thought to the great sermon tradition Carter establishes this by assessing Paul's historical environment and extant writings to display the plausibility that Paul knew the dominical tradition Carter goes on to assess the likelihood that Paul knew the pre-synoptic sermon tradition because of its ubiquity in early church discipleship The study finishes with the conclusion that Jesus and Paul's financial thought displays remarkable symmetry which cannot be explained merely by a common cultural environment Consequently it is deemed highly likely that Paul depends on the dominical tradition for the contours of his financial thought

Blessed Are the Peacemakers Lisa Sowle Cahill, 2019-03-02 This book is a contribution to the Christian ethics of war and peace It advances peacebuilding as a needed challenge to and expansion of the traditional framework of just war theory and pacifism It builds on a critical reading of historical landmarks from the Bible through Augustine Aquinas the Reformers Christian peace movements and key modern figures like Dietrich Bonhoeffer Reinhold Niebuhr and recent popes Similar to just war theory peacebuilding is committed to social change and social justice but includes some theorists and practitioners who accept the use of force in extreme cases of self defense or humanitarian intervention Unlike just war theorists they do not see the justification of war as part of the Christian mission Unlike traditional pacifists they do see social change as necessary and possible and as such requiring Christian participation in public efforts Cahill argues that transformative Christian social participation is demanded by the gospel and the example of Jesus and can produce the avoidance resolution or reduction of conflicts And yet obstacles are significant and expectations must be realistic Decisions to use armed force against injustice even when they meet the criteria of just war will be ambiguous and tragic from a Christian perspective Regarding war and peace the focus of Christian theology ethics and practice should not be on justifying war but on practical and hopeful interreligious peacebuilding

Preaching the Beatitudes for the Glory of God Landis Brown, 2025-01-21 For far too long the Beatitudes have been misunderstood as a daunting checklist of requirements for believers to meet to gain the promises at the end of each statement Preaching the Beatitudes with this interpretation places unnecessary pressure upon believers to meet such high standards Help believers break free from the burden of trying to make their lives match the Beatitudes by showing them that in Christ they already fulfill them This book aims to help preachers preach the Beatitudes as a vibrant profile of believers already in Christ Each Beatitude is not a duty to fulfill but a promise to claim promises that allow the believer to live in a state of flourishing in the present not waiting till they reach heaven In these perilous times believers need reminding of their identity in Christ and the promises that come with it Through an in depth exploration of the Greek word makarios this book illuminates Christ's intent when giving the Beatitudes to his disciples showing how every believer can live in flourishing state due to the present and future promises Christ gives in each statement May readers rediscover the promises and assurance Jesus gives to all believers at the beginning of the greatest sermon ever preached the Sermon on the Mount New

The Gospel of Matthew Donald Senior, 2011-12-01 Biblical texts create worlds of meaning and invite readers to enter them When readers enter such textual worlds which are often strange and complex they are confronted with theological claims With this in mind the purpose of the Interpreting Biblical Texts series is to help dedicated students in their experience of reading and interpreting by providing guides for their journeys into textual worlds The controlling perspective is expressed in the operative word of the title interpreting The primary focus of the series is not so much on the world behind the texts or out of which the texts have arisen as on the worlds created by the texts in their engagement with readers In this volume Donald Senior provides an up to date introduction to the Gospel of Matthew The seven chapters of Part One focus on modern biblical scholarship and the interpretation of Matthew discussing the sources and structure of the Gospel its use of the Old Testament its understanding of Jewish Law its setting as a part of the mission of Christianity to the Gentiles its Christology its understanding of the nature of discipleship and the community from which the Gospel originated The six chapters of Part Two provide a structured guide to reading and interpreting Matthew's Gospel

A Man Attested by God Kirk, 2016 Thought provoking alternative perspective on the full humanity of Jesus Christ In A Man Attested by God J R Daniel Kirk presents a comprehensive defense of the thesis that the Synoptic Gospels present Jesus not as divine but as an idealized human figure Counterbalancing the recent trend toward early high Christology in such scholars as Richard Bauckham Simon Gathercole and Richard Hays Kirk here thoroughly unpacks the humanity of Jesus as understood by Gospel writers whose language is rooted in the religious and literary context of early Judaism Without dismissing divine Christologies out of hand Kirk argues that idealized human Christology is the best way to read the Synoptic Gospels and he explores Jesus as exorcist and miracle worker within the framework of his humanity With wide ranging exegetical and theological insight that sheds startling new light on familiar Gospel texts A Man Attested by God offers up to date provocative scholarship that will have to be reckoned with
