Sermons on Biblical Characters Clovis G. Chappell, 2017-03-16 Thomas was not missing because he had found satisfaction elsewhere Thomas was not satisfied Thomas was not happy I doubt if there was a sadder man in all Jerusalem than Thomas I doubt if there was a more wretched man in the wide world at that time than was Thomas Thomas had not turned aside from Jesus to satisfy his soul on husks He had not left Christ because his needs had been met and his thirst satisfied at some other fountain Why was Thomas missing He was missing because he had lost hope He believed that Christ was dead He believed that the cause for which he had stood was lost and lost forever more He believed that right was forever defeated that wrong was forever enthroned Over his head was a blackened sky
