When Sex Was Religion Larry Falls, 2010 Evidence of the connection between sex and religion can be found in fertility cults in all nations of the past When Sex Was Religion takes a comprehensive look at how sexual practices were originally considered a religion before the introduction of Christianity Dr Larry Falls a registered clinical sexologist specializing in sexual abuse trauma and emotional health spent five years traveling throughout the United States Canada and Europe learning about different religions cultural history and sexual behavior while working on his doctoral thesis In his fascinating exploration into the beginning of human reason and the birth of religious thought includes the importance of reproduction virgins and temple prostitutes the original meaning of the cross Devil worship witches Sabbath and the curse of the evil eye Dr Falls also proves that the Kama Sutra an ancient Hindu religious narrative about pleasure love and sexuality was really a Bible designed for the purpose of teaching others to gain favor from the gods by engaging in sexual intercourse Dr Falls examination into sex worship demonstrates that phallic reverence was not only a religion but also a cause for dominance and sexual exploitation that to this day remains part of our social structure

Imagining Language Jed Rasula, Steve McCaffery, 2001 When works such as Joyce's Finnegans Wake and Stein's Tender Buttons were first introduced they went so far beyond prevailing linguistic standards that they were widely considered unreadable if not scandalous Jed Rasula and Steve McCaffery take these and other examples of twentieth century avant garde writing as the starting point for a collection of writings that demonstrates a continuum of creative conjecture on language from antiquity to the present The anthology which spans three millennia generally bypasses chronology in order to illuminate unexpected congruities between seemingly discordant materials Together the writings celebrate the scope and prodigality of linguistic speculation in the West going back to the pre Socratics

The Teotihuacan Trinity Annabeth Headrick,2007-12-01 Northeast of modern day Mexico City stand the remnants of one of the world s largest preindustrial cities Teotihuacan Monumental in scale Teotihuacan is organized along a three mile long thoroughfare the Avenue of the Dead that leads up to the massive Pyramid of the Moon Lining the avenue are numerous plazas and temples which indicate that the city once housed a large population that engaged in complex rituals and ceremonies Although scholars have studied Teotihuacan for over a century the precise nature of its religious and political life has remained unclear in part because no one has yet deciphered the glyphs that may explain much about the city s organization and belief systems In this groundbreaking book Annabeth Headrick analyzes Teotihuacan s art and architecture in the light of archaeological data and Mesoamerican ethnography to propose a new model for the city s social and political organization Challenging the view that Teotihuacan was a peaceful city in which disparate groups united in an ideology of solidarity Headrick instead identifies three social groups that competed for political power rulers kin based groups led by influential lineage heads and military orders that each had their own animal insignia Her findings provide the most complete evidence to date that

Teotihuacan had powerful rulers who allied with the military to maintain their authority in the face of challenges by the lineage heads Headrick's analysis also underscores the importance of warfare in Teotihuacan society and clarifies significant aspects of its ritual life including shamanism and an annual tree raising ceremony that commemorated the Mesoamerican creation story Rgvedic India Abinas Chandra Das,1927 Symbolic Mythology and Translation of a Lost and Forgotten Language John Martin Woolsey,1917 Journal and Proceedings of the Asiatic Society of Bengal Asiatic Society (Kolkata, India),1929 Includes indexes to Numismatic supplements Journal & Proceedings of the Asiatic Society of Bengal ,1929 Includes section Numismatic supplement no 5 45 previously issued in the society's Journal later in its Journal 3rd ser
