Serpent At Her Breast:

The Complete Story of the Grail Chrétien (de Troyes), 2015 The mysterious and haunting Grail makes its first appearance in literature in Chrétien de Troyes Perceval at the end of the twelfth century But Chrétien never finished his poem leaving an unresolved story and an incomplete picture of the Grail It was however far too attractive an idea to leave Not only did it inspire quite separate works his own unfinished poem was continued and finally completed by no fewer than four other writers The Complete Story of the Grail is the first ever translation of the whole of the rich and compelling body of tales contained in Chrétien's poem and its four Continuations which are finally attracting the scholarly attention they deserve Besides Chrétien's original text there are the anonymous First Continuation translated here in its fullest version the Second Continuation attributed to Wauchier de Denain and the intriguing Third and Fourth Continuations probably written simultaneously with no knowledge of each other's work by Manessier and Gerbert de Montreuil Two other poets were drawn to create preludes explaining the background to Chrétien's story and translated here also are their works The Elucidation Prologue and Bliocadran Only in this The Story of the Grail's complete form can the reader appreciate the narrative skill and invention of the medieval poets and their surprising responses to Chrétien's theme not least their crucial focus on the knight as a crusader Equally Chrétien's original poem was almost always copied in conjunction with one or more of the Continuations so this translation represents how most medieval readers would have encountered it Nigel Bryant's previous translations from Medieval French include Perlesvaus the High Book of the Grail Robert de Boron's trilogy Merlin and the Grail the Medieval Romance of Alexander The True Chronicles of Jean le Bel and Perceforest Serpent Imagery and Symbolism Lura N. Pedrini, Lura Nancy Pedrini, Guilio T. Pedrini, 1966-06 To find more information about Rowman and Littlefield titles please visit www.rowmanlittlefield.com The Female Fantastic Lizzie McCormick, Jennifer Mitchell, Rebecca Soares, 2018-08-06 For women identified writers of both eras the fantastic offered double vision Not only did the genre offer strategic cover for challenging the status quo but also a heuristic mechanism for teasing out the gendered psyche's links to creative personal and erotic agency These dynamic presentations of female and gender queer subjectivity are linked in intriguing and complex matrices to key moments in gendered history This volume contains essays from international scholars covering a wide range of topics including werewolves mummies fairies demons time travel ghosts haunted spaces and objects race gender queerness monstrosity madness incest empire medicine and science By interrogating two non consecutive decades we seek to uncover the inter relationships among fantastic literature feminism and modern identity and culture Indeed while this book considers the relationship between the 1890s and 1920s it is more an examination of women's modernism in light of gendered literary production during the fin de siècle than the reverse Shakespeare's Insults Nathalie Vienne-Guerrin, 2016-01-28 Why are certain words used as insults in Shakespeare's world and what do these words do and say Shakespeare's plays abound with insults which are more often merely cited than thoroughly studied quotation prevailing over exploration The purpose of this richly detailed dictionary is to go beyond the surface of these words and to analyse why and how words become insults in Shakespeare s world It s an invaluable resource and reference guide for anyone grappling with the complexities and rewards of Shakespeare s inventive use of language in the realm of insult and verbal sparring

Victorian Sexual Dissidence Richard Dellamora,2019-04-08 Recent critical and historical work on the late Victorian period has furnished a vocabulary for discussing gender and sexuality These popular terms include categories such as homo hetero patriarchal feminist and masculine effeminate This collection exploits this framework while refining and resisting it in places to show how certain Victorians imagined difference in ways that continue to challenge us today One essay for example traces the remarkable feminist appropriation of male identified fields of study such as Classical philology Others address the validation of male bodies as objects of desire in writing painting and emergent modernist choreography

The writings shed light on the diverse interests served by a range of cultural practitioners and on the complex ways in which the late Victorians invented themselves as modern subjects This volume will be essential reading for students of British literary and cultural history as well as for those interested in feminist gay and lesbian studies Contributors are Oliver Buckton Richard Dellamora Dennis Denisoff Regenia Gagnier Eric Haralson Andrew Hewitt Christopher Lane Thas Morgan Yopie Prins Kathy Alexis Psomiades Julia Saville Robert Sulcer Jr Martha Vicinus
