The Serpent and the Goddess Mary Condren, 1989 The Field Day Anthology of Irish Writing Seamus Deane, Andrew Carpenter, Angela Bourke, Jonathan Williams, 1991 Celtic Women's Spirituality Edain McCoy, 1998 The Celts provide strong accessible images of powerful women This work illustrates how the reader can create a personalized pathway linking two important aspects of self the feminine and the hereditary or adopted Celt and as a result enable her to become a whole powerful woman Melusine the Serpent Goddess in A. S. Byatt's Possession and in Mythology Gillian M. E. Alban, 2003-01-01 Melusine the Serpent Goddess in Myth and Literature examines how women were once worshipped as the life force but later suppressed with the introduction of monotheism and a changing attitude regarding the sexes It connects the literary conception of the Melusine story to myths and legends of the snake or dragon goddess from ancient to contemporary times She Is Everywhere! Volume 3 Mary Beth Moser, Mary Saracino, 2012-02-15 She Is Everywhere Volume 3 presents a bold brave and beautiful compilation of womanist feminist essays poems and artwork showcasing work from an international community of women and men who honor the Sacred Female The fifty contributors in this anthology scholars creative writers and visual artists share their vision for a world that reclaims the inviolability of the Divine Female in all Her many and varied manifestations She Is Everywhere Volume 3 is the latest edition of a leading edge series which like its predecessors offers an invaluable contribution to women's spirituality religion philosophy and women's studies The contemporary voices contained within its pages echo an ancient clarion call to embrace the values of justice with compassion equality for all people and transformation We have a calling in this world namely to prevent the destruction from continuing Claudia von Werlhof I am in the presence of a divine Mother and She is fulfilling a deep longing inside of me Nicole Margiasso Tran She was I am my daughter is because we are all Her Etoyle McKee Just as dark matter mother in space shapes galaxies and holds them together we are shaped and held by the African Dark Mother who has given us Her life force and resides in the very depths of our being where the macrocosm is literally reflected in the microcosm Leslene della Madre Religion and the Politics of Peace and Conflict Linda Hogan, Dylan Lee Lehrke, 2009-01-01 The connections between religion and violence are complex and multifaceted From the conflicts in Middle East and the Balkans to those in Southeast Asia and beyond religion frames and legitimates political violence Moreover in international relations since 9 11 religious language and metaphors have acquired a new significance In this context the emerging consensus appears to be not only that violence is intrinsic to religion but also that religions incite legitimate and intensify political violence However such an unambiguous indictment of religions is incomplete in that it fails both to appreciate significant counter examples and to recognize the diversity that exists within religions on the issue of violence particularly the religious roots of pacifism and the ethics of non violence This collection explores aspects of this ambivalence between religion and violence It focuses on traditions of legitimation and pacifism within the three monotheistic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam and concludes with an examination of this ambivalence as it unfolds in each tradition's engagement with the politics of gender
