groundbreaking historical research by one of New Zealand's leading scholars. Sitting alongside her major works including the 2010 Book of the Year Encircled Lands, these essays explore sidepaths and previously unexamined histories. They notably delve into the lives of powerful early Māori figures including the prophets Rua Kenana and Te Kooti, their wives and their descendants, and the leaders of the Urewera. Binney brings figures out of the shadows, explores place and revives memory, ensuring that the histories that matter do indeed become stories without end.
