Serpents Tooth An Autobiographical Novel

Brigid Rooney, Fiona Morrison

Serpents Tooth An Autobiographical Novel:

Serpent's Tooth Roger Milliss, 1984 Published with the assistance of the Literature Board of the Australia Council Life and Times of Charles Dickens: Autobiographical Novels, Stories, London Society Sketches, Travel Memoirs, Letters & Biographies (Illustrated) Charles Dickens, 2022-06-12 In Life and Times of Charles Dickens Autobiographical Novels Stories London Society Sketches Travel Memoirs Letters Biographies Illustrated Charles Dickens offers an intricate tapestry of his life through a selection of autobiographical writings that span the breadth of his literary career Richly illustrated the volume combines narrative finesse with social critique showcasing Dickens's masterful ability to blend personal experience with acute observations of London society during the Victorian era This work serves not only as a memoir but also as a contextual lens into the societal dynamics and pressing issues of 19th century England illustrating how his personal hardships such as his troubled childhood profoundly informed his storytelling and character development Dickens born into a modest family in Portsmouth faced the adversities of poverty and child labor in his youth experiences that indelibly shaped his literary voice His career as a writer was marked by an earnest desire to expose social injustices and advocate for reform drawing from his own experiences in the gritty backstreets of London This collection reveals the man behind the pen reflecting his passion for storytelling as a vehicle for social change and empathy This essential volume not only enriches the reader's understanding of Dickens's oeuvre but also provides insight into the man himself making it perfect for scholars fans and newcomers alike It stands as a testament to Dickens's enduring legacy inviting readers to explore the intersections of life and literature in one of the greatest authors of the English language Radical Students Alan Barcan, 2002 This is an insight into undergraduate life and thinking at Australia's oldest university where conflicting political ideas found expression on campus Included are articles and reports of meetings from student magazines and the press as well as anecdotes and lively undergraduate wit

Dreamers and Schemers Frank Bongiorno, 2022-11-01 A landmark book the first full political history of Australia In this compelling and comprehensive work renowned historian Frank Bongiorno presents a social and cultural history of Australia's political life from pre settlement Indigenous systems to the present day Depicting a wonderful parade of dreamers and schemers Bongiorno surveys moments of political renewal and sheds fresh light on our democratic life From local pubs and meeting halls to the parliament and cabinet from pamphleteers and stump orators to party agents and operatives this enthralling account looks at the political insiders in the halls of power as well as the agitators and outsiders who sought to shape the nation from the margins A work of political history like no other Dreamers and Schemers will transform the way you look at Australian politics With acuity and grace Bongiorno divines the soul of the nation All told with a cheeky eye for detail and nose for skullduggery by a historian in full archival narrative and rhetorical flight A landmark work Clare Wright Bongiorno is one of our premier historians and this is his masterwork An original take on our politics and people written with an open mind and warm Australian heart George Megalogenis Penetrating and vividly written this a political history that broadens our understanding of politics one that offers genuinely fresh insights and resists tidy generalisations From First Nations politics to the democracy sausage Dreamers and Schemers never disappoints It will stand as one of the most essential works in Australian history for decades to come Mark McKenna Shortlisted for the Australian History Prize in the NSW Premier s History Awards Australian Patriography Stephen Mansfield,2014-11-01 The Son s Book of the Father as Richard Freadman termed it is a rich field of relational autobiography offering a unique set of tensions and insights into modes of masculinity notions of identity and the ethics of representing another s life in writing one s own This study of modern Australian life writing by sons who focus on fathers places an emerging sub genre within its literary ancestry and its contemporary milieu Providing compelling readings of Raimond Gaita s Romulus My Father Peter Rose s Rose Boys and many others this is the first study of its kind within Australian literature Communism in Australia Beverley Symons,1994 This bibliography covers the 70 years of existence of the Communist Party in Australia The material listed relates not only to the CPA but to its allied and breakaway movements from 1920 to 1991 Contains over 3400 references and includes a name index Australia's China Lachlan Strahan,1996 First published in 1996 Australia s China explores the multifaceted and dynamic Australian encounter with China from the beginning of the Sino Japanese War in 1937 through the Cold War to the Australian recognition of the PRC in 1972 Going beyond conventional policy studies it traces the patterns in Australian reactions to China from the grass roots to official circles highlighting the centrality of images concerning the exotic disease sexuality the frontier and China as a paradise anti paradise In responding to China Australians revealed something of themselves and this book maps the formation of Australian conceptions of identity in the context of a cross cultural encounter which was variously cooperative enriching baffling and antagonistic But there was no single Australian conception of China Rather competing perceptions jostled in a shifting dialogue Seeking Meaning, Seeking Justice in a Post-Cold War World Judith Keene,Elizabeth Rezniewski,2018-03-27 The challenge for historians as for individuals and nations has been to make sense of the Cold War past without recourse to the obsolete frameworks of a dichotomous world The editors of Seeking Meaning Seeking Justice in the Post Cold War World Judith Keene and Elizabeth Rezniewski have brought together contributions that address the diverse modes by which the Cold War is being assessed with a major focus on countries on the periphery of the Cold War confrontation These approaches include developments in historiography as new intellectual and cultural frame are applied to old debates Authors also consider the universal principles and moral discourses including that of human rights on which judgements have been based and judicial processes instigated and the forms of memorialisation that have sought to come to terms and perhaps achieve reconciliation with a Cold War past Contributors are Ann Curthoys Philip Deery Katherine Hite Michael Humphrey Su kyong Hwang Perry Johansson Judith Keene Betty O Neill Peter Read Elizabeth Rezniewski Estela Valverde Adrian Vickers and Marivic Wyndham The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation Cosima Bruno,Lucas Klein,Chris Song,2023-10-19

Offering the first systematic overview of modern and contemporary Chinese literature from a translation studies perspective this handbook provides students researchers and teachers with a context in which to read and appreciate the effects of linguistic and cultural transfer in Chinese literary works Translation matters It always has of course but more so when we want to reap the benefits of intercultural communication In many universities Chinese literature in English translation is taught as if it had been written in English As a result students submit what they read to their own cultural expectations they do not read in translation and do not attend to the protocols of knowing engagements and contestations that bind literature and society to each other The Bloomsbury Handbook of Modern Chinese Literature in Translation squarely addresses this pedagogical lack Organised in a tripartite structure around considerations of textual social and large scale spatial and historical circumstances its thirty plus essays each deal with a theme of translation studies as emerged from the translation of one or more Chinese literary works In doing so it offers new tools for reading and appreciating modern and contemporary Chinese literature in the global context of its translation offering in depth studies about eminent Chinese authors and their literary masterpieces in translation The first of its kind this book is essential reading for anyone studying or researching Chinese literature in translation Artful Histories David McCooey,1996 An important contribution to our understanding of autobiography its history and the Australian experience 'A world-proof life' Marivic Wyndham,2007-01-01 Eleanor Dark 1901 1985 is one of Australia s most celebrated writers of the inter war years Born with the twentieth century a Federation baby she published ten novels amongst them one of the best loved Australian stories of all time The Timeless Land Her life spanned successive global crises two world wars the economic depression of the 1930s the Cold War each issuing its own challenges to the artist and the people s writer she thought herself to be By far the most privileged writer of her generation her ultimate challenge was a personal one to unlock the gates of her world proof life to a society and a world in crisis The first cross cultural biography of this famous Australian writer Marivic Wyndham s rich and controversial portrait of Eleanor Dark is based on extensive research of the author s public and private lives Time, Tide and History Brigid Rooney,Fiona Morrison,2024-06-01 Time Tide and History Eleanor Dark s Fiction is the first book length edited collection of scholarly essays to treat the full span of Eleanor Dark s fiction advancing a recent revival of critical and scholarly interest in Dark s writing This volume not only establishes a new view of Dark s fiction as a whole but also reflects on the ways in which her fiction speaks to our present moment in the context of a globally fraught post pandemic Anthropocene era Above all the revisiting of Dark s fiction is mandated by a desire to recognise the ways in which it anticipates vital debates in Australian literary and national culture today about settler colonialism and its legacies and with regard to the histories condition and status of Australia s First Nations people This volume interweaves varied topical themes from formal debates about modernism historical realism and melodrama to questions about modernity s time and space about gender and cultural difference and about the specifics of built and natural environments Time Tide and History intentionally loosens the conventions of literary scholarship by including other kinds of work alongside critical and scholarly readings a written dialogue between two contemporary historians about Dark s legacy and a biographical piece on the life and role of Eleanor Dark s husband Eric Payten Dark Bringing together the interwar fiction s feminist and modernist dimensions with the historical turn of The Timeless Land trilogy the essays in Time Tide and History collectively pursue ethical and political questions while teasing out the distinctive thematic formal and aesthetic features of Dark s fiction
