Helene Cixous Susan Sellers,2013-06-10 This book is a clear and accessible introduction to the writings of Helene Cixous novelist dramatist and critic whose work has had a major impact on feminist theory and practice Susan Sellers a major scholar on Cixous provides a lucid account of Cixous's theoretical position and in particular her distinctive theory of an écriture féminine. She discusses the development of Cixous's literary oeuvre in the context of this theory and analyses a selection of the works in detail to illustrate the different stages in Cixous's writing career. Focusing on the key novels and plays, Sellers explores a range of issues and themes central to her work: the correlation between the death of Cixous's own father and her coming into being as a writer; the psychological process of separation and individuation and the creation of a female authorial self; the discovery of the other and the dramatization of love; the delineation/depiction of an alternative form of relationship between self and other which would have a significance in a wider sphere than that of the merely personal. This much needed book will be welcomed by students in literature and literary theory, feminism and women's studies, English and French studies and philosophy.

Placeless Topographies Bernhard Greiner, 2015-02-06. Die Beiträge des Bandes konzentrieren die Auseinandersetzung mit Exilliteratur auf die jüdische Erfahrung von Exil, was dem Thema eine 2500-jährige historische Tiefe und eine entsprechende Vielfalt an literarischen Strategien mit der Exilerfahrung umzugehen zuspielt. Zugleich öffnet diese Perspektive Exilliteratur auch für das Spannungsfeld Exil und Heimkehr. Die Aufsätze behandeln deutsche, französische und hebräische Exilliteratur insbesondere des 20. Jahrhunderts.

The Other Perspective in Gender and Culture Juliet Flower MacCannell, 1990. From the preeminent writer of Taiwanese nativist fiction and the leading translator of Chinese literature come these poignant accounts of everyday life in rural and small town Taiwan. Huang is frequently cited as one of the most original and gifted storytellers in the Chinese language and these selections reveal his genius. In The Two Sign Painters, TV reporters ambush two young workers from the country taking a break atop a twenty-four-story building. His Son's Big Doll introduces the tortured soul inside a walking advertisement and in Xiaoqi's Cap a dissatisfied pressure cooker salesman is fascinated by a young schoolgirl. Huang's characters generally the uneducated and disadvantaged who must cope with assaults on their traditionalism, hostility from their urban brethren and of course the debilitating effects of poverty come to life in all their human uniqueness free from idealization.

Hélène Cixous: Live Theory Ian Blyth, 2004-06-08. Hélène Cixous' live theory provides a clear and informative introduction to one of the most important and influential European writers working today. The book opens with an overview of the key features of Cixous' theory of écriture féminine, feminine writing. The various manifestations of écriture féminine are then explored in chapters on Cixous' fictional and theatrical writing, her philosophical essays and her intensely personal approach to literary criticism. The book concludes with a new, lively and wide-ranging interview with Hélène Cixous in which she discusses her influences and inspirations and her thoughts on the nature of writing and the need for an ethical relationship with the world. Also offering a survey of the many English translations of Cixous' work, this book is an indispensable introduction to Cixous' work for students of literature, philosophy, cultural and gender studies.

Textual Tensions Elizabeth Berglund Hall, 2003. This dissertation reconsiders Cixous's notion of écriture féminine as a practice of reading as well as writing. I claim that feminine readings and writings attempt to disrupt the conventional thought system by exposing tension between traditional and repressed aspects of the discourse While particular emphasis is placed on the tension between the masculine and the feminine Cixous claims that the disruption of any binary pair works toward the dissolution of phallogocentrism and its fundamental couple man woman In each of three sections I pair an analysis of Cixous's theories and fiction with an interpretation of a novel by another author this structure allows me to examine critique feminine and to put Cixous's theories into practice by performing what I call a lecture feminine In the first section I consider Cixous's notion of sexual difference in her work Délugé and in Beckett's trilogy Molloy Malone meurt and L'Innommable I explore Cixous's claim that sexual difference is not located between men and women but internally in each man and woman and I investigate the ways in which Beckett's trilogy echoes Cixous's theories through its interrogation of the binary system of thought its treatment of the interdependence of writing and the body and its dissolution of conventional gender categories In the second section I investigate the difficult balance between self and other which critique feminine encourages through analyses of Cixous's Manne and Marie Claire Blais's L'Insoumise In each work I find that the shifting of narrative voices allows for both an exchange with the other and an assertion of a sense of unified self Finally in my third section delving into the more abstract binary couple text and non text I examine Cixous's Jours de l'an and Anne Hébert's Le premier jardin In my analyses I find that these texts play with the boundaries of fiction and narrative through a contradictory structure which permits multiple interpretations of each of the novels Ultimately this dissertation hopes to provide for the reader a new way of understanding critique feminine as a state of productive tension and a new way of using Cixous's theories to read and analyze literature
