MAXIMUM DESTINY

As I was growing up, there was the actress I wanted to be. I auditioned at the highest levels of commerce, knowing there was a chance I would become famous. I was young and naive and the odds were against me. I was not in the right place at the right time. I was not in the right place at the right time. I was not in the right place at the right time.

My parents were not in the right place at the right time. I was not in the right place at the right time. I was not in the right place at the right time. I was not in the right place at the right time. I was not in the right place at the right time.
