Moving Europeans:

Moving Europeans, Second Edition Leslie Page Moch, 2009-09-18 Praise for the first edition By far the best general book on its subject Moving Europeans will remain a standard reference for some time to come Charles Tilly Moch has reconceived the social history of Europe David Levine Moving Europeans tells the story of the vast movements of people throughout Europe and examines the links between human mobility and the fundamental changes that transformed European life This update of a classic text describes the Western European migration from the pre industrial era to the year 2000 For this new edition Leslie Page Moch reconsiders the 20th century in light of fundamental changes in labor years of conflict and the new migrations following the end of colonial empires the fall of communism and globalization This new edition also features a greatly expanded and up to date bibliography

Moving Europeans Leslie Page Moch, 2003 Moving Europeans tells the story of the vast movements of people throughout Europe and examines the links between human mobility and the fundamental changes that transformed European life This update of a classic text describes the Western European migration from the pre industrial era to the year 2000 For this new edition Leslie Page Moch reconsiders the 20th century in light of fundamental changes in labor years of conflict and the new migrations following the end of colonial empires the fall of communism and globalization This new edition also features a greatly expanded and up to date bibliography A new updated edition of the best general book on the impact of migration in Western Europe

Gated Communities? Bert De Munck, Anne Winter (Ph. D.), 2012 Contrary to earlier views of pre industrial Europe as an essentially sedentary society research over the past decades has amply demonstrated that migration was a pervasive characteristic of early modern Europe In this volume the theme of urban migration is explored through a series of historical contexts

The Cambridge Survey of World Migration Robin Cohen, 1995-11-02 This extensive survey of migration in the modern world begins in the sixteenth century with the establishment of European colonies overseas and covers the history of migration to the late twentieth century when global communications and transport systems stimulated immense and complex flows of labour migrants and skilled professionals In ninety five contributions leading scholars from twenty seven different countries consider a wide variety of issues including migration patterns the flights of refugees and illegal migration Each entry is a substantive essay supported by up to date bibliographies tables plates maps and figures As the most wide ranging coverage of migration in a single volume The Cambridge Survey of World Migration will be an indispensable reference tool for scholars and students in the field

Innovation and Creativity in Late Medieval and Early Modern European Cities Karel Davids, Bert De Munck, 2016-05-23 Late medieval and early modern cities are often depicted as cradles of artistic creativity and hotbeds of new material culture Cities in renaissance Italy and in seventeenth and eighteenth century northwestern Europe are the most obvious cases in point But how did this come about Why did cities rather than rural environments produce new artistic genres new products and new techniques How did pre industrial cities evolve into centres of innovation and creativity As the most urbanized regions of continental Europe in this period Italy and the Low Countries provide a rich source of case studies as the contributors to this volume demonstrate They set out to examine the relationship between institutional arrangements and regulatory mechanisms such as citizenship and guild rules and innovation and creativity in late medieval and early modern cities They analyze whether in what context and why regulation or deregulation influenced innovation and creativity and what the impact was of long term changes in the political and economic sphere

The Whole Economy Catriona Macleod, Alexandra Shepard, Maria Ågren, 2023-06-15 Advocating a gender inclusive approach to the history of work this book both counts and accounts for women s as well as men s economic activity Showcasing novel conceptual methodological and empirical perspectives it highlights the transformative potential of including women s work in wider assessments of continuity and change in economic performance Focusing on the period of European history 1500 1800 that generated unprecedented growth in the northwest which in turn was linked to the global redistribution of resources and upon which industrialisation depended the book spans key arenas in which women produced change households care agriculture rural manufacture urban markets migration and war The analysis refutes the stubborn contention of mainstream economic history that we can generalise about economic performance by focusing solely on the work of adult men and demonstrates that women were active agents in the early modern economy rather than passively affected by changes wrought upon them

The Unsettling of Europe Peter Gatrell, 2019-08-27 An acclaimed historian examines postwar migration s fundamental role in shaping modern Europe Migration is perhaps the most pressing issue of our time and it has completely decentered European politics in recent years But as we consider the current refugee crisis acclaimed historian Peter Gatrell reminds us that the history of Europe has always been one of people on the move The end of World War II left Europe in a state of confusion with many Europeans virtually stateless Later as former colonial states gained national independence colonists and their supporters migrated to often unwelcoming metropolises The collapse of communism in 1989 marked another fundamental turning point Gatrell places migration at the center of post war European history and the aspirations of migrants themselves at the center of the story of migration This is an urgent history that will reshape our understanding of modern Europe

Individuals, Families, and Communities in Europe, 1200-1800 Katherine A. Lynch, 2003-08-21 A study of the family s function in western society from 1200 1800 first published in 2003

Mobility in Transition Izabela Grabowska-Lusinska, Aimee Kuvik, 2025-10-01 This volume presents new research on post accession migration from Central and Eastern Europe in the short period since the EU enlargements of 2004 and 2007 Explanations of post accession migration patterns trends and mechanisms delve into the complexities of these phenomena New groups of migrants and types of migrations are identified such as young migrants often students or graduates without family obligations and without clear plans concerning their future life Case studies on Poland Romania Hungary and Latvia as well as the United Kingdom and Germany being major destination countries divulge the multifaceted nature of transition whether in the form of labour migration short term mobility including among international students or return migration The volume insightfully points towards future migration trends and sets guidelines for further research Comparative and Transnational History

Heinz-Gerhard Haupt, Jürgen Kocka, 2010-03-15 Since the 1970s West German historiography has been one of the main arenas of international comparative history It has produced important empirical studies particularly in social history as well as methodological and theoretical reflections on comparative history During the last twenty years however this approach has felt pressure from two sources cultural historical approaches which stress microhistory and the construction of cultural transfer on the one hand global history and transnational approaches with emphasis on connected history on the other This volume introduces the reader to some of the major methodological debates and to recent empirical research of German historians who do comparative and transnational work "Foreign Artists and Communities in Modern Paris, 1870-1914" Susan Waller, 2017-07-05 Foreign Artists and Communities in Modern Paris 1870 1914 examines Paris as a center of international culture that attracted artists from Western and Eastern Europe Asia and the Americas during a period of burgeoning global immigration Sixteen essays by a group of emerging and established international scholars including several whose work has not been previously published in English address the experiences of foreign exiles immigrants students and expatriates They explore the formal and informal structures that permitted foreign artists to forge connections within and across national communities and in some cases fashion new transnational identities in the City of Light Considering Paris from an innovative global perspective the book situates both important modern artists such as Edvard Munch Sonia Delaunay Terk Marc Chagall and Gino Severini and lesser known American Czech Italian Polish Welsh Russian Japanese Catalan and Hungarian painters sculptors writers dancers and illustrators within the larger trends of international mobility and cultural exchange Broadly appealing to historians of modern art and history the essays in this volume characterize Paris as a thriving transnational arts community in which the interactions between diverse cultures peoples and traditions contributed to the development of a hybrid and multivalent modern art Global Migrants, Local Culture Laura Tabili, 2011-04-05 Employing the first analysis of the entire population of any British town this book examines how overseas migrants affected society and culture in South Shields near Newcastle upon Tyne Resituating Britain within global processes of migration and cultural change it recasts British society pre 1940 as culturally and racially dynamic and diverse Chains of Gold Marcelo Borges, 2009-06-02 Why did migrants from southern Portugal choose Argentina instead of following the traditional path to Brazil Starting with this question this book explores how at the turn of the twentieth century rural Europeans developed distinctive circuits of transatlantic labor migration linked to diverse immigrant communities in the Americas It looks at transoceanic moves in the larger context of migration systems examining their connections and the crucial role of social networks in migrants geographic mobility and adaptation Combining regional and local perspectives on both sides of the Atlantic Chains of Gold provides a vivid account of the trajectories of migrant men and women as they moved from rural Portugal to contrasting places of settlement in the Argentine pampas and Patagonia
