Modern Tourism Eric Zuelow, 2015-10-26 Tourism is one of the largest industries in the world yet leisure travel is more than just economically important. It plays a vital role in defining who we are by helping to place us in space and time. In so doing it has aesthetic, medical, political, cultural, and social implications. However, it hasn't always been so. Tourism as we know it is a surprisingly modern thing, both a product of modernity and a force helping to shape it. A History of Modern Tourism is the first book to track the origins and evolution of this pursuit from earliest times to the present. From a new understanding of aesthetics to scientific change from the invention of steam power to the creation of aircraft from an elite form of education to family car trips to see national shrines, this book offers a sweeping and engaging overview of a fascinating story not yet widely known.

Mobilizing Regions, Mobilizing Europe Sebastian M. Buettner, 2013-10-23 Regional development strategies are becoming more similar all around Europe even though regional differences are more pronounced than ever, and many European regions have become more autonomous actors. This thesis of a peculiar standardized diversification of sub-national space in the modern European Union is the point of departure of this book. Based upon the analytical premises of Stanford School Sociological Institutionalism, Sebastian M. Buettner studies regional mobilization in contemporary Europe from a new and innovative perspective. He highlights the importance of scientific expertise and global scientific models in contemporary regional development practice and exemplifies their significance with the example of region building in Poland in the course of EU integration. This new wave of regional mobilization is not just conceived as an effect of local, national, or European politics but as an expression of a larger conceptual shift in governing society and space. This well-researched and clearly argued book not only provides fresh insights into region building and regionalization in contemporary European space but also contributes to the new sociology of Europeanization. It will be an illuminating read for scholars and students in Sociology, European and EU studies, International Relations, Cultural Studies, Geography, Regional Science, Polish Studies, and related subject areas.

Being Poland Tamara Trojanowska, Joanna Nityska, Przemysław Czapliński, 2018-01-01 Being Poland offers a unique analysis of the cultural developments that took place in Poland after World War One, a period marked by Poland's return to independence. Conceived to address the lack of critical scholarship on Poland's cultural restoration, Being Poland illuminates the continuities, paradoxes, and contradictions of Poland's modern and contemporary cultural practices and challenges the narrative typically prescribed to Polish literature and film. Reflecting the radical changes, rifts, and restorations that swept through Poland in this period, Polish literature and film reveal a multitude of perspectives. Addressing romantic perceptions of the Polish immigrant, the politics of post-war cinema, poetry, and mass media, Being Poland is a comprehensive reference work written with the intention of exposing an international audience to the explosion of Polish literature and film that emerged in the twentieth century.

Memory, Conflict and New Media Ellen Rutten, Julie Fedor, Vera Zvereva, 2013-04-12 This book examines the online memory wars in post-Soviet states where political conflicts take the shape of heated debates about the recent past and especially World War II and Soviet socialism. To this day, former socialist states face the challenge of constructing national identities producing national memories and relating to the Soviet legacy Their pasts are principally intertwined changing readings of history in one country generate fierce reactions in others In this transnational memory war digital media form a pivotal discursive space one that provides speakers with radically new commemorative tools Uniting contributions by leading scholars in the field Memory Conflict and New Media is the first book length publication to analyse how new media serve as a site of political and national identity building in post socialist states The book also examines how the construction of online identity is irreversibly affected by thinking about the past in this geopolitical domain By highlighting post socialist memory s digital mediations and digital memory s transcultural scope the volume succeeds in a twofold aim to deepen and refine both post socialist memory theory and digital memory studies This book will be of much interest to students of media studies post Soviet studies Eastern European Politics memory studies and International Relations in general

Navigating Disability Stigma in Poland's Changing Cultural Landscape Mirjam Holleman, 2024-10-29 Assessing the social integration of people with disabilities in an intra culturally valid yet cross culturally replicable and comparative manner is a crucial but challenging task for policy makers across the EU Stigma has been shown to interfere with the successful implementation of public policy and hinder the social integration of people with disabilities Navigating Disability Stigma in Poland's Changing Cultural Landscape An Ethnographic and Quantitative Exploration of Social Integration in the European Context employs a mixed method research approach to investigate the stigma toward people with disabilities in Poland Using a novel approach to existing methods in the field of cognitive anthropology the author develops a quantitative and potentially cross culturally replicable assessment of this stigma offering a vital tool for monitoring social integration This book navigates the evolving cultural landscape of post state socialist Poland where the discourse on disability intersect with shifting societal values and tensions surrounding independence versus state care

A Small Town Near Auschwitz Mary Fulbrook, 2013-09-26 The story of a small town near Auschwitz and of its local Nazi administrator An ordinary functionary and family man without whose help and those of thousands like him the murderous plans of the Nazi elite could never have been fully realized

Global Social Archaeologies Koji Mizoguchi, Claire E Smith, 2019-06-27 Global Social Archaeologies contributes to the active engagement of contemporary social archaeology through addressing issues such as postcolonialism community heritage and Indigenous rights It addresses the major challenge of breaking down global divides especially in relation to fundamental human rights inequality and inequities of wealth power and access to knowledge This authoritative volume authored by the current and past presidents of the World Archaeological Congress introduces readers to the various theoretical and methodological tools available for the investigation of the past Taking into account the implications for contemporary societies it offers a new framework for social archaeologies in a globalised world By combining new data from their research with an innovative synthesis and analysis of leading research by others the authors have developed fresh conceptualisations and understandings of archaeology as a social practice and of the ways in which it simultaneously straddles the past present and future Exploring a range of case studies and enhanced by a wealth of illustrations Global Social Archaeologies highlights a new approach to archaeology one that places human rights at the core of archaeological theory and practice
