tragedy and the comedy Dr David Jarrett draws on family stories and case histories from his thirty years of treating the old demented and frail to try to find his own understanding of the end. Profound, provocative, strangely funny and astonishingly compelling, it is an impassioned plea that we start talking frankly and openly about death. He writes about all the conversations that we, our parents, our children, the medical community, our government and society as a whole should be having. And it is a call to arms for us to make radical changes to our perspective on the seventh age of man. More praise for 33 Meditations on Death. This book will stay with you. Derren Brown.
