Rebellion Sekou M. Franklin, 2014-07-11 An essential examination of black youth activism since the passage of the 1964 Civil Rights Act What happened to black youth in the post civil rights generation What kind of causes did they rally around and were they even rallying in the first place After the Rebellion takes a close look at a variety of key civil rights groups across the country over the last 40 years to provide a broad view of black youth and social movement activism Based on both research from a diverse collection of archives and interviews with youth activists advocates and grassroots organizers this book examines popular mobilization among the generation of activists principally black students youth and young adults who came of age after the passage of the 1964 Civil Rights Act and the Voting Rights Act of 1965 Franklin argues that the political environment in the post Civil Rights era along with constraints on social activism made it particularly difficult for young black activists to start and sustain popular mobilization campaigns Building on case studies from around the country including New York the Carolinas California Louisiana and Baltimore After the Rebellion explores the inner workings and end results of activist groups such as the Southern Negro Youth Congress Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee the Student Organization for Black Unity the Free South Africa Campaign the New Haven Youth Movement the Black Student Leadership Network the Juvenile Justice Reform Movement and the AFL CIO s Union Summer campaign Franklin demonstrates how youth based movements and intergenerational campaigns have attempted to circumvent modern constraints providing insight into how the very inner workings of these organizations have and have not been effective in creating change and involving youth A powerful work of both historical and political analysis After the Rebellion provides a vivid explanation of what happened to the militant impulse of young people since the demobilization of the civil rights and black power movements a discussion with great implications for the study of generational politics racial and black politics and social movements      Souls Looking Back Andrew Garrod, Janie Victoria Ward, Tracy L. Robinson, Robert

Kilkenny, 2002-09-11 Most of what is written these days about young black men and women emphasizes incarceration and mortality rates teen pregnancy drug use and domestic strife This collection of sixteen autobiographical essays by African Americans Africans in America Afro Caribbean and biracial college students who have tackled significant obstacles to achieve success and degrees of self understanding offers a broader more hopeful portrait of the adolescent experiences of minority youth Here are emotionally honest and reflective stories of economic hardship racial bias loneliness and anger but also of positive role models spiritual awakening perseverance and racial pride In these essays students explore the process of self discovery and the realization of cultural identity The pieces are accompanied by commentary from prominent African American scholars such as Jewelle Taylor Gibbs and Peter C Murrell Jr Together they create a vivid portrait of what it is like to grow up as a black person in America and offer a springboard to current debates about self discovery cultural identity and assimilation Often raw and painful always honest and affecting this collection of personal stories written by young people stands as an eloquent tribute to the courage of today s youth and to the power of their own words Resources in Education

The Secrets for Motivating, Educating, and Lifting the Spirit of African American Males Ernest H. Johnson,2011-11-21 Unlike the media would have you believe most black males find great value in education They want to believe that they have a special gift and that they can make a difference in the world The problem is that they have ill feelings about how society has deprived them of the most qualified teachers and the best ways to be engaged in their own education As a consequence of repeatedly being marginalized criticized and put down by society and teachers they do not feel motivated to attend school or to produce outstanding academic work The Secrets for Motivating Educating and Lifting the Spirit of African American Males contains essays that center on how to help educators and parents to equip young black males with the drive necessary to craft fulfilling lives for themselves so they dont slip through the cracks in the educational system Historically we are still dealing with what happens to the image of Black people in the minds of white people A book like this helps to make certain that the information teachers provide to all students regardless of their race will help them understand that the history of this country has made generation after generation of black students see themselves as academically and socially inferior to white people Most importantly its the teachers not just black teachers but all teachers who have to understand the power they have to change the mindset of society Changing how society thinks about Black people particularly Black males is a task teachers can truly accomplish because they have the power to create lesson plans that challenge how students think about each other For such lessons are important for changing the attitudes and beliefs of the entire community in which we live REVEREND C T VIVIAN A Pioneer of the Civil Rights Movement Author Educator and a Close Friend of Reverend Dr Martin Luther King Jr This book provides a fresh perspective for understanding the problems associated with the education of Black males As a minister I have not encountered a project that gathers the collective wisdom of a group of over 20 Black male educators who are dedicated to helping the world save young Black males When all their ideas come together they are bound to create a storm of new thinking about how all of us can work together As a spiritual leader my role is to help young Black males understand that the same God that was in Dr King is the same God that is in them This is a difficult lesson for some Black males who have been brainwashed to see themselves as having no say about the outcome of their lives This book will help us including those in the ministry to reevaluate the thinking patterns of our boys so that we can better prepare them for the critical thinking that is required for life in the 21st century REVEREND ROBERT KILGORE Assistant Pastor at Hillside International Truth Center Atlanta GA     Dollars & Sense ,1992     A Guide to the Multiethnic Placement Act of 1994 Joan Heifetz Hollinger,1998     The Condition of Our Nation's Infrastructure and Proposals for Needed Improvements United States.
