Legislative scrutiny Great Britain: Parliament: Joint Committee on Human Rights, 2008-02-06 In this report the Committee recommends amendments to the Health and Social Care Bill to ensure that private or voluntary sector care homes which accommodate publicly funded residents are brought within the scope of the Human Rights Act It also calls on the Government to implement recommendations in its earlier report on the human rights of older people in health care HL 156 I HC 378 I session 2006 07 ISBN 9780104011447 The Committee's concerns arise from the meaning of public function and public authority in the Human Rights Act It believes it was clear that Parliament intended the Act's requirement of public authorities to act compatibly with the European Convention on Human Rights to cover private sector providers of publicly funded services and is disappointed that the Government has deferred a decision on a new statute to reinstate the original intention of the Act

Governance for Sustainable Development Georgina Ayre, Rosalie Callway, 2013-06-17 As the process of globalization continues and power imbalances between decision making institutions become increasingly apparent the need for a critical assessment of the way in which we manage our interaction with the natural environment becomes ever more urgent Good governance was identified at the World Summit on Sustainable Development as a critical factor for ensuring successful sustainable development This book builds on the briefing papers that were presented at the Summit taking further the discussions of the WEHAB agenda Water Energy Health Agriculture and food and Biodiversity the five international priority sectors highlighted by UN Secretary General Kofi Annan This is a unique offering on the role and reform of global institutions and processes raising issues that have previously been neglected in international discussions
