masculinity as backward and violent in nature have dominated the cultural landscape An Imperialist Love Story contributes to the broader conversation about the legacy of orientalist representations of Arabs in Western popular culture Combining close readings of novels discursive analysis of blogs and forums and interviews with authors Jarmakani explores popular investments in the war on terror by examining the collisions between fantasy and reality in desert romances Focusing on issues of security freedom and liberal multiculturalism she foregrounds the role that desire plays in contemporary formations of U S imperialism Drawing on transnational feminist theory and cultural studies An Imperialist Love Story offers a radical reinterpretation of the war on terror demonstrating romance to be a powerful framework for understanding how it works and how it perseveres The Woman's Historical Novel D. Wallace,2004-11-19 The historical novel has been one of the most important forms of women's reading and writing in the twentieth century yet it has been consistently under rated and critically neglected In the first major study of British women writers use of the genre Diana Wallace tracks its development across the century She combines a comprehensive survey with detailed readings of key writers including Naomi Mitchison Georgette Heyer Sylvia Townsend Warner Margaret Irwin Jean Plaidy Mary Renault Philippa Gregory and Pat Barker

Outside Belongings Elspeth Probyn,2015-12-22 Outside Belongings argues against a psychological depth model of identity one in which individuals possess an intrinsic quality that guarantees authentic belonging Instead Probyn proposes a model of identity that takes into account the desires of individuals and groups of individuals to belong The main ideas she considers the outside the surface and belonging allow her to articulate in concrete terms her precise concerns about sexuality and nationality The Pilgrimage of Dorothy Richardson Joanne Winning,2000 Pilgrimage Dorothy Richardson s thirteen volume opus of autobiographical fiction follows the entire arc of an independent woman's life in early twentieth century Britain It is one of the major works of the modernist period indeed it is considered by many a classic of modernist literature In this book Joanne Winning argues in this book however that Richardson's novels continue to be misunderstood in several important ways Winning is the first critic to fully explore the issues of lesbian identity in the novels Examining primary materials manuscript drafts and Richardson's previously unstudied correspondence Winning demonstrates that Pilgrimage contains a carefully constructed though concealed subtext of lesbian desire and sexuality The Pilgrimage of Dorothy Richardson explores the ways in which Richardson used such cultural forms as sexology psychoanalysis and other lesbian and modernist literature of her time to create an intertextual dialogue about lesbian identity Winning suggests that a sustained reading of lesbian sexuality in Pilgrimage is crucial to a more complete understanding of Richardson's long and sometimes difficult work Winning also places Pilgrimage in the context of other works by female modernist writers that record lesbian identity This approach Winning suggests is the first step toward recognizing and defining a literary movement that can be termed lesbian modernism as well as toward a deeper understanding of how lesbian modernist writers helped shape modernist literature as a whole

Materializing Queer Desire Elisa Glick, 2010-03-30 How did the queer subject come to occupy such a central and in many respects contradictory place in the modern world of the early twentieth century What role has capitalism played in the development of modern gay and lesbian identities Materializing Queer Desire focuses on the figure of the dandy to explore how and why gay and lesbian subjects became heroes of modern life Elisa Glick argues that the gay subject emerged out of the specifically modern capitalist contradiction between the public world of production and industry and the private world of consumption and pleasure Boldly bringing modernism into dialogue with Marxist and queer theory Glick offers an innovative materialist account of modern queer consciousness that challenges tendencies to oppose private eroticism and the systems of value that govern public interests In the process she illuminates the connections between aesthetic sexual and social formations in modern life between modernity's disruptive queer desires and their unfolding in an increasingly rationalized society

English fiction Whereas all previous studies have been rigorously selective Trotter looks at over 140 novelists across the whole spectrum of fiction from the innovations of Joyce's Ulysses through to popular mass market genres such as detective stories and spy thrillers By examining the novels in both stylistic and historical terms David Trotter looks at the ways in which writers responded to contemporary preoccupations such as the spectacle of consumption and the growth of suburbia or to anxieties about the decline of Empire racial degeneration and sexual anarchy He also challenges the view that literature of the period can be interpreted as a neat procession from realism to Modernism

Marie Corelli: Modernism, Morality, and Metaphysics Carol Margaret Davison, Elaine M. Hartnell, 2020-09-10 This collection reappraises and retheorizes Marie Corelli's diverse fictional writings and locates them in their contemporary literary and social context Marie Corelli 1855-1924 was a fabulously popular novelist in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Yet in her day critics railed against her taste for sentimentality melodrama supernatural worlds and overt didacticism Many critics are still ambivalent about her writing However in their reappraisal the contributors to this volume largely circumvent the earlier critics and engage afresh with Corelli's writing strategies genre choices representations of social issues and ideas about science metaphysics and morality Moving beyond the now outdated project of recovery the volume also discusses Corelli's literary market place analysing both her publishing successes and her decline in popularity An important theme throughout is Corelli's troubled relationship with an emerging literary Modernism and an ever widening gulf between high and popular culture The contributors interrogate the critical templates assumptions and biases of a literary establishment past and present centred on Modernist tropes and structures As a result the Corelli they unearth is not a defective Modernist but an innovative and original writer who eschewed the dictates of a movement with which she had no empathy This book was originally published as a special issue of Women's Writing

Greeks to the Bildungsromans to the 19th century and today's courtship novels both scholarship and widely held attitudes towards romance has remained fixedly and prioritized only the universality unoriginality and continuity of romance fiction instead of its sociocultural effect of promoting positive ideals like female empowerment The portrayal of women in social roles has been in a state of constant change including their relationship with and relation to men This book explores only medieval historical romance fictions and their changes through the course of the time I examine three medieval romances content Walter Scott's Ivanhoe 1920 Kathleen Woodowiss The Wolf and the Dove 1974 and Amanda Quick's Mystique 1995 written in different time periods based on content analysis using Anthony Giddens's 1992 theories of intimacy In addition it will address romance novels views about sex gender and love roles
