Projecting Paranoia Conspiratorial Visions In American Film Culture America:

Projecting Paranoia Ray Pratt,2001 A wide ranging and idiosyncratic look at sixty years of politics and film that uncovers how American movies have mirrored and even challenged anxieties and paranoid perceptions embedded in American society since the start of the Cold War The first book to take a sweeping look at 60 years of film and analyze them thematically Conspiracy Theories in American History Peter Knight,2003-12-11 The first comprehensive history of conspiracies and conspiracy theories in the United States Conspiracy Theories in American History An Encyclopedia is the first comprehensive research based scholarly study of the pervasiveness of our deeply ingrained culture of conspiracy From the Puritan witch trials to the Masons from the Red Scare to Watergate Whitewater and the War on Terror this encyclopedia covers conspiracy theories across the breadth of U S history examining the individuals organizations and ideas behind them Its over 300 alphabetical entries cover both the documented records of actual conspiracies and the cultural and political significance of specific conspiracy speculations Neither promoting nor dismissing any theory the entries move beyond the usual biased rhetoric to provide a clear sighted dispassionate look at each conspiracy real or imagined Readers will come to understand the political and social contexts in which these theories arose the mindsets and motivations of the people promoting them the real impact of society s reactions to conspiracy fears warranted or not and the verdict when verifiable that history has passed on each case Conspiracy Theories in the United States and the Middle East Michael Butter,Maurus Reinkowski,2014-02-27 Conspiracy Theories in the United States and the Middle East is the first book to approach conspiracy theorizing from a decidedly comparative and interdisciplinary perspective Whereas previous studies have engaged with conspiracy theories within national frameworks only this collection of essays draws attention to the fact that conspiracist visions are transnational narratives that travel between and connect different cultures It focuses on the United States and the Middle East because these two regions of the world are entangled in manifold ways and conspiracy theories are currently extremely prominent in both The contributors to the volume are scholars of Middle Eastern Studies Anthropology History Political Science Cultural Studies and American Studies who approach the subject from a variety of different theories and methodologies However all of them share the fundamental assumption that conspiracy theories must not be dismissed out of hand or ridiculed Usually wrong and frequently dangerous they are nevertheless articulations of and distorted responses to needs and anxieties that must be taken seriously Focusing on individual case studies and displaying a high sensitivity for local conditions and the cultural environment the essays offer a nuanced image of the workings of conspiracy theories in the United States and the Middle East Projecting Paranoia Ray Pratt,2001 A wide ranging and idiosyncratic look at sixty years of politics and film that uncovers how American movies have mirrored and even challenged anxieties and paranoid perceptions embedded in American society since the start of the Cold War The first book to take a sweeping look at 60 years of film and analyze them thematically America Is Elsewhere Erik Dussere,2014 This study conceives the literary and cinematic category of noir as a way of understanding the defining conflict between authenticity and consumer culture in post World War II America It analyses works of fiction and film in order to argue that both contribute to a noir tradition that is initiated around the end of World War II and continues to develop and evolve in the present Madness in Cold War America Alexander Dunst,2016-08-19 This book tells the story of how madness came to play a prominent part in America s political and cultural debates It argues that metaphors of madness rise to unprecedented popularity amidst the domestic struggles of the early Cold War and become a pre eminent way of understanding the relationship between politics and culture in the United States In linking the individual psyche to society psychopathology contributes to issues central to post World War II society a dramatic extension of state power the fate of the individual in bureaucratic society the political function of emotions and the limits to admissible dissent Such vocabulary may accuse opponents of being crazy Yet at stake is a fundamental error of judgment for which madness provides welcome metaphors across US diplomacy and psychiatry social movements and criticism literature and film In the process major parties and whole historical eras literary movements and social groups are declared insane Reacting against violence at home and war abroad countercultural authors oppose a sane madness to irrational reason romanticizing the wisdom of the schizophrenic and paranoia s superior insight As the Sixties give way to a plurality of lifestyles an alternative vision arrives of a madness now become so widespread and ordinary that it may finally escape pathology Affect Poetics of the New Hollywood Hauke Lehmann,2019-12-02 How is affective experience produced in the cinema And how can we write a history of this experience By asking these questions this study by Hauke Lehmann aims at rethinking our conception of a critical period in US film history the New Hollywood as a moment of crisis that can neither be reduced to economic processes of adaption nor to a collection of masterpieces Rather the fine grained analysis of core films reveals the power of cinematic images to affect their audiences to confront them with the new The films of the New Hollywood redefine the divisions of the classical genre system in a radical way and thereby transform the way spectators are addressed affectively in the cinema The study describes a complex interplay between three modes of affectivity suspense paranoia and melancholy All three each in their own way implicate spectators in the deep seated contradictions of their own feelings and their ways of being in the world their relations to history to society and to cultural fantasy On this basis Affect Poetics of the New Hollywood projects an original conception of film history as an affective history which can be re written up to the present day Routledge Handbook of Conspiracy Theories Michael Butter,Peter Knight,2020-02-17 Taking a global and interdisciplinary approach the Routledge Handbook of Conspiracy Theories provides a comprehensive overview of conspiracy theories as an important social cultural and political phenomenon in contemporary life This handbook provides the most complete analysis of the phenomenon to date It analyses conspiracy theories from a variety of perspectives using both qualitative and quantitative methods It maps out the key debates and includes chapters on the historical origins of conspiracy theories as well as their political significance in a broad range of countries and regions Other chapters consider the psychology and the sociology of conspiracy beliefs in addition to their changing cultural forms functions and modes of transmission This handbook examines where conspiracy theories come from who believes in them and what their consequences are This book presents an important resource for students and scholars from a range of disciplines interested in the societal and political impact of conspiracy theories including Area Studies Anthropology History Media and Cultural Studies Political Science Psychology and Sociology Visual Paranoia in Rear Window, Blow-Up and The Truman Show Eva Schwarz,2012-02-27 Against the backdrop of recent postmodern discourse on cultural theory Eva Schwarz provides a gripping analysis of the concept of what she describes as visual paranoia Her study is based on a detailed analysis of three films Alfred Hitchcock s Rear Window USA 1954 Michelangelo Antonioni s Blow up GB 1966 and Peter Weir s The Truman Show USA 1998 The starting point of all three analyses is the representation of the postmodern media and information age as an incisive culture of the visual which coincides with the general socio political trend of cultural paranoia the roots of which are to be found in American politics and society of the late 1940s and which has since permeated Anglo American culture The discourse on the truthfulness of images the reality of visual representations and the visual as such forms the context out of which the theory of the development of visual paranoia arises While other paranoia films usually thrillers or science fiction films concern themselves with the sociopolitical manifestation of cultural paranoia the three films chosen for Schwarz s study focus on the fundamental crisis of the visual as such from scopophilic paranoia in Rear Window to photographic paranoia in Blow Up culminating in the scopophobic manifestation of visual paranoia in The Truman Show The once valid saying seeing is believing can no longer be taken for granted In postmodern times the visual cannot be trusted any more Historical Dictionary of Film Noir Andrew Spicer,2010-03-19 Film noir literally black cinema is the label customarily given to a group of black and white American films mostly crime thrillers made between 1940 and 1959 Today there is considerable dispute about what are the shared features that classify a noir film and therefore which films should be included in this category These problems are partly caused because film noir is a retrospective label that was not used in the 1940s or 1950s by the film industry as a production category and therefore its existence and features cannot be established through reference to trade documents The Historical Dictionary of Film Noir is a comprehensive guide that ranges from 1940 to present day neo noir It consists of a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography a filmography and over 400 cross referenced dictionary entries on every aspect of film noir and neo noir including key films personnel actors cinematographers composers directors producers set designers and writers themes issues influences visual style cycles of films e g amnesiac noirs the representation of the city and gender other forms comics graphic novels television and videogames and noir s presence in world cinema It is an essential reference work for all those interested in this important cultural phenomenon American Science Fiction Film and Television Lincoln Geraghty,2009-10-01 American Science Fiction Film and Television presents a critical history of late 20th Century SF together with an analysis of the cultural and thematic concerns of this popular genre Science fiction film and television were initially inspired by the classic literature of HG Wells and Jules Verne The potential and fears born with the Atomic age fuelled the popularity of the genre upping the stakes for both technology and apocalypse From the Cold War through to America s current War on Terror science fiction has proved a subtle vehicle for the hopes fears and preoccupations of a nation at war The definitive introduction to American science fiction this is also the first study to analyse SF across both film and TV Throughout the discussion is illustrated with critical case studies of key films and television series including The Day the Earth Stood Still Planet of the Apes Star Trek The Next Generation The X Files and Battlestar Galactica East-West Montage Sheng-mei Ma,2007-11-06 East West Montage possesses a unique vision that promises to push discussions of globalization cultural production ethnic identity and bodily metaphors in powerful new directions Ma is to be praised for his sound scholarship and innovative interpretations Indeed where others specialize in either the collection of details or the unpacking of text Ma weaves a strong analytic exegesis rooted in thorough research Richard King Washington State University Approximately twelve hours difference lies between New York and Beijing The West and the East are literally night and day apart Yet East West Montage crosscuts the two in the manner of adjacent filmic shots to accentuate their montage like complementarity It examines the intersection between East and West the Asian diaspora or more specifically Asian bodies in diaspora and the cultural expressions by and about people of Asian descent on both sides of the Pacific Following the introduction Establishing Shots the book is divided into seven intercuts which in turn subdivide into dialectically paired chapters focusing on specific body parts or attributes The range of material examined is broad and rich the iconography of the opium den in film noir the writings of Asian American novelists the swordplay and kung fu film Japanese anime the Korean Wave including soap operas like Winter Sonata and the cult thriller Oldboy Rogers and Hammerstein s Orientalist musicals the comic Blackhawk the superstar status of the Dalai Lama and the demise of Hmong refugees and Chinese retirees in the U S Highly original and immensely readable East West Montage will appeal to many working in a range of disciplines including Asian studies Asian American studies cultural studies ethnic studies film studies popular culture and literary criticism The Rhetoric of the New Political Documentary Thomas W Benson,Brian J Snee,2008-05-23 The Rhetoric of the New Political Documentary explores the most visible and volatile element in the 2004 presidential campaign the partisan documentary film This collection of original critical essays by leading scholars and critics including Shawn J and Trevor Parry Giles Jennifer L Borda and Martin J Medhurst analyzes a selection of political documentaries that appeared during the 2004 election season The editors examine the new political documentary with the tools of rhetorical criticism combining close textual analysis with a consideration of the historical context and the production and reception of the films The essays address the distinctive rhetoric of the new political documentary with the films typically having been shot with relatively low budgets in video and using interviews and stock footage rather than observation of uncontrolled behavior The quality was often good enough and interest was sufficiently intense that the films were shown in theaters and on television which provided legitimacy and visibility before they were released soon afterwards on DVD and VHS and marketed on the Internet The volume reviews such films as Michael Moore s Fahrenheit 9 11 two refutations of Moore s film Fahrenhype 9 11 and Celsius 41 11 Unprecedented The 2000 Presidential Election and George W Bush Faith in the White House films that experimented with a variety of angles and rhetorics from a mix of comic disparagement and earnest confrontation to various emulations of traditional news and documentary voices The Rhetoric of the New Political Documentary represents the continued transformation of American political discourse in a partisan and contentious time and showcases the independent voices and the political power brokers that struggled to find new ways to debate the status quo and employ surrogate independents to create a counterrhetoric The Astronaut Dario Llinares,2011-05-25 The Astronaut Cultural Mythology and Idealised Masculinity interrogates the historical and cultural dynamics of one of the most revered icons of the 20th century Analysing a diverse range of cultural representations the book postulates the construction of an intertextual mythology through which the astronaut becomes an embodiment of American ideological values and heroic manhood The discursive processes at work in the range of media texts examined serve to embed the astronaut into the cultural imaginary as a largely coherent and uncontested exemplar of idealised masculinity Using a range of interdisciplinary analytical tools the book examines how the social construction of this masculine ideal iterates and naturalises gender hegemony The book situates the astronaut within the context of a modern postmodern theoretical framework linking shifts in gender perspectives to the contradictory narratives and characterisations that inform the mediation of the astronaut In so doing the book argues for a re evaluation of the often oversimplified use of the term hegemonic masculinity as an anchoring point for the critique of masculinity The strength of this work is its interdisciplinary diversity and its interconnection of a range of themes including gender representation history ideology the postmodern and the media Drawing upon contemporary theoretical debates while redeploying seminal theoretical texts the book offers new cultural interrogations of a highly familiar historical subject America, History and Life ,2004 Article abstracts and citations of reviews and dissertations covering the United States and Canada Paul Robeson and the Cold War Performance Complex Tony Perucci,2012-04-18 Actor and singer Paul Robeson s performances in Othello Show Boat and The Emperor Jones made him famous but his midcentury appearances in support of causes ranging from labor and civil rights to antilynching and American warmongering made him notorious When Robeson announced at the 1949 Paris Peace Conference that it was unthinkable for blacks to go to war against the Soviet Union the mainstream American press declared him insane Notions of Communism blackness and insanity were interchangeably deployed during the Cold War to discount activism such as Robeson s just a part of an array of social and cultural practices that author Tony Perucci calls the Cold War performance complex Focusing on two key Robeson performances the concerts in Peekskill New York in 1949 and his appearance before the House Committee on Un American Activities in 1956 Perucci demonstrates how these performances and the government s response to them are central to understanding the history of Cold War culture in the United States His book provides a transformative new perspective on how the struggle over the politics of performance in the 1950s was also a domestic struggle over freedom and equality The book closely examines both of these performance events as well as artifacts from Cold War culture including congressional documents FBI files foreign policy papers the popular literature on mental illness and government propaganda films to study the operation of power and activism in American Cold War culture
