Projekt Weltethos:

Constructing Ethical Patterns in Times of Globalization Aleksí Kuokkanen, 2012-01-20 Inspired by the Catholic theologian Hans Kng this book searches for a model for global ethics by analysing the contemporary philosophical discussion It demonstrates that the Western model is unable to reckon with exclusivism and difference and presents an alternative model

The Concept of Peace in Judaism, Christianity and Islam Georges Tamer, 2020-10-26 The eighth volume of the series Key Concepts of Interreligious Discourses investigates the roots of the concept of peace in Judaism Christianity and Islam and its relevance for the present time Facing present violent conflicts waged and justified by religious ideas or reasons peace building prevails in current debates about religion and peace Here the central question is How may traditional sources in religions help to put down the weapons and create a society in which everyone can live safely without hostilities and the threat of violence When we take the Sacred Scriptures of Judaism Christianity and Islam into consideration it becomes obvious that the term peace and its equivalents in Hebrew Greek and Arabic describe at first an ideal state based on the love mercy of God to his creation It is a divine gift that brings inward peace to the individuum and outer peace resting upon justice and equality One main task of Jews Christian and Muslims in the history is to find out how to bring down this transcendent ideal upon earth The volume presents the concept of peace in its different aspects as anchored in the traditions of Judaism Christianity and Islam It unfolds commonalities and differences between the three monotheistic religions as well as the manifold discourses about peace within these three traditions The book offers fundamental knowledge about the specific understanding of peace in each one of these traditions their interdependencies and their relationship to secular world views

The Catholic Church Walter Kasper, 2015-02-26 Walter Kasper is already well known and loved throughout the English speaking world He has held high office in the Vatican but until his recent retirement has felt constrained from publishing what he really thinks and his vision of the Church for the future Kasper brings to conclusion a project that has been pursued for years as it joins together his greatest monographs on the subject of God s teaching and Christology The book covers three main topics Nature Reality and the Mission of the Church The introductory section is autobiographical and the reader can see Kasper s personal and theological way in to and with the Church He develops the actual ecclesiological exegesis for Kasper the representation of the Being of the Church is not about empirical description but rather a testimony of being He emphasizes that nobody is able to apply the stereotypical and idealistic image of the heavens to the critical acknowledgement of the church s present The program of the Church is ultimately not self directed but rather remains oriented towards the finalization of the arrival of the kingdom of God and the spiritual healing of the human race

International justice and interpretation Giuseppe Zaccaria, 2002 The 2001 issue of the Yearbook deals with the problem of international justice What is the meaning of justice in the age of globalisation In which sense can the right provide for criteria that make it possible to afford conflicts in international relations Which new interpretative standards do turn out to be introduced within domestic law by international dimension This issue of Ars interpretandi tries to answer these questions as well as other ones according to an interdisciplinary view which examine their implications in law ethics politics economics and religion

Human Centered Management in Executive Education Maria-Teresa Lepeley, Ernst von Kimakowitz, Roland Bardy, 2017-03-23 Human Centered Management in Executive Education provides a comprehensive insight on innovation in Executive Education with a unique global scope The book integrates studies and experiences of 32 distinguished scholars from 15 countries who are working in the development of theories and practices to advance the human centered management paradigm sustainability based quality standards and continuous improvement in education The discussion presents a well balanced outlook that combines and contrasts research and programs from 16 developed and 16 developing countries and the visions of 10 female and 22 male authors from North America South America Europe Asia the Middle East and Africa

The Global Ethic and Law Bradley Shingleton, Eberhard Stolz, 2016-10-20 As a fundamental institution of human societies law is a deeply influential factor in individual and social activity Yet its normative status is controversial particularly in pluralistic secularized societies Is law essentially the result of legislative creation and juridical interpretation or can and should it reflect ethical values and imperatives If it can what are the sources of those imperatives and how do they achieve the necessary degree of social consensus in religiously diverse societies that are increasingly globalized and globalizing as a consequence of culture commerce communication and immigration The Global Ethic and Law Intersections and Interactions contributes to the consideration of these questions Its contributors include academics from the U S A and Europe as well Hans Kueng the author of the 1993 Declaration Towards a Global Ethic adopted by the Parliament of World Religions and Stephan Schlenker General Secretary of the Global Ethic Foundation of Tuebingen Germany

Inclusive Humanism Christoph Antweiler, 2012-09-11 The diversity of interconnected cultures on a bounded planet requires more shared orientations The humanities and politics have to face fundamental questions What does a humanism look like that does not move too rapidly to universalize the views and historical experiences of the European or American world How can we conceive of globality as a new entity without playing unity and diversity off against one another Does a world culture that is becoming ever closely related in fact need common values or only rules of human exchange How can we succeed at civilizing an ever present ethnocentrism How do we keep the terms culture and humanity from being misused as weapons in identity wars Any realistic cosmopolitanism must proceed from an understanding of humankind as one entity without requiring us to re design cultures to fit on with some sort of global template Answers can be gained by deploying shared characteristics of humans as well as pan cultural commonalities This book offers an anthropologically informed foundation for addressing pertinent questions of intercultural exchange , Tolerance Between Intolerance and the Intolerable Paul Ricoeur, 1996 It seems more urgent than ever before to fend off the rising wave of intolerance and at the same time determine the nature of tolerance and its limits As Ricoeur says in his Foreword Tolerance is a tricky subject too easy or too difficult It is indeed too easy to deplore intolerance without putting oneself into question oneself and the different allegiances with which each person identifies In order to explore these complexities he has gathered together a number of prominent thinkers from various parts of the world and areas of activity and invited them to reflect on the obstacles and limits to tolerance The Declaration of Principles on Tolerance issued by the United Nations in 1995 rounds up this remarkable collection of essays Contributors Norberto Bobbio Vaclav Havel Jeanne Hersch Bernard Williams Octavio Paz Ghislain Waterlot Antoine Garapon Mario Bettati Yehudi Menuhin Ramin Jahanbegloo Abdelwahab Bouhdiba Hans K ng Wole Soyinka Ionna Ku uradi Monique Canto Sperber Paul Ricoeur Desmond Tutu DIOGENES LIBRARY Peace Studies Matthew Evangelista,2005 The academic field of Peace Studies emerged during the Cold War to address the nature and sources of interstate and internal conflict and methods to prevent it and deal with its consequences Shi'a Minorities in the Contemporary World Oliver Scharbrodt,2020-06-18 Offers a set of new comparative perspectives on the experiences of Shi a Muslim minorities outside the Muslim heartland Middle East North Africa Central and South Asia and discusses the challenges these communities face as a minority within a minority Key Theological Thinkers Svein Rise,2016-04-22 The 20th and 21st Centuries have been characterized by theologians and philosophers rethinking theology and revitalizing the tradition This unique anthology presents contributions from leading contemporary theologians including Rowan Williams Fergus Kerr Aidan Nichols G R Evans and Tracey Rowland who offer portraits of over fifty key theological thinkers in the modern and postmodern era Distinguished by its broad ecumenical perspective this anthology spans arguably one of the most creative periods in the history of Christian theology and includes thinkers from all three Christian traditions Protestant Catholic and Orthodox Each individual portrait in this anthology includes a biographical introduction an overview of theological or philosophical writing presentation of key thoughts and contextual placing of the thinker within 20th Century religious discourse Overview articles explore postmodern theology radical orthodoxy ecumenical theology feminist theology and liberation theology A final section includes portraits of important thinkers who have influenced Christian thought from other fields not least from Continental philosophy and literature Paradigms of Social Order Sergio Dellavalle,2021-04-25 No social life is possible without order Order being the most constituent element of society it is not surprising that so many theories have been developed to explain what social order is and how it is possible as well as to explore the features that social order acquires in its different dimensions The book leads these many theories of social order back to a few main matrices for the use of theoretical and practical reason which are defined as paradigms of order The plurality of conceptual constructs regarding social order is therefore reduced to a manageable number of theoretical patterns and an intellectual map is produced in which the most significant differences between paradigms are clearly outlined Furthermore the paradigmatic revolutions are addressed that marked the most relevant turning points in the way in which a well ordered society should be understood Against this background the question is discussed on the theoretical and practical perspectives for a cosmopolitan society as the only suitable possibility to meet the global challenges with which we are all presently confronted

God, Human Nature and Education for Peace Karl Ernst Nipkow, 2018-01-18 This title was first published in 2003 What prevents the human species from finally learning the lessons of social justice and global peace in an unreconciled world Are Christians better off Presenting new challenges to moral and religious education this book clarifies the true image of the biblical God around the topics of justice and reconciliation Rejuvenating interpretations of the most outstanding traditions of the Old and New Testament Karl Ernst Nipkow's approach of elementarization well known in German speaking countries is introduced for the first time in the English language Theological perspectives are confronted with data from evolutionary ethics and social psychology through practice based examples of the roots of aggression violence xenophobia and ethno centrism The analysis ends with peace and spirituality in the light of different faiths This book presents a striking blend of theology education and the social sciences to explore central issues in moral and religious education

God for a Secular Society Jürgen Moltmann, Margaret Kohl, 1999-03-05 In this masterful analysis of the religious and political dilemmas at the end of the modern age world renowned theologian Jürgen Moltmann assays the vaulting dreams and colossal failures of our time He asks how we came to this point and he argues strenuously for Christian discipleship and public theology that take sides In both critical and creative ways he advances the specific relevance of Christian messianic hope to today's thorniest political economic and ecological questions including human rights environmental rights globalization market capitalism fundamentalisms and Jewish Christian relations and the deeper values contested therein In a world reeling between utopia and disaster Moltmann here passionately and provocatively shows how Christian discipleship through engagement and solidarity can blaze a redemptive path

Reformed Theology Wallace M. Alston, Michael Welker, 2003 Christian theology classically defined is faith's intellectual work of seeking understanding not in order to prove its truth but to persuade those who hear it proclaimed Theology done from within the Reformed tradition has long displayed this quality and it continues to develop in response to our changing world

Reformed Theology Identity and Ecumenicity is an excellent resource for readers interested in examining current trends and motifs in Reformed thought Written by systematic theologians from around the world this book explores the meaning of the Reformed tradition and its relevance for the contemporary church The contributors highlight ways that Reformed theology can enrich the church ecumenical even as they seek to realize a more catholic Reformed community of inquiry Contributors P Mark Achtemeier Wallace M Alston Jr H Russel Botman Eberhard Busch Dawn DeVries Margit Ernst Gabriel Fackre Douglas Farrow David Fergusson Botond Gaal Colin Gunton George Hunsinger William Stacy Johnson Yung Han Kim Ulrich H J Kortner Jan Mili Lochman Bruce L McCormack Peter McEnhill Daniel L Migliore Piet J Naude Milan Opocnsky Jan Rohls Dirk Smit George W Stroup A van de Beek Leanne Van Dyk Michael Weinrich Michael Welker Myung Yong Kim Carver T Yu

In Response to the Religious Other Marianne Moyaert, 2014-09-24 In the vast collection of his writings the French philosopher Paul Ricoeur only sporadically raised the issue of interreligious dialogue In this book comparative theologian Marianne Moyaert argues that Ricoeur's hermeneutical philosophy offers valuable signposts for a better understanding of the complexities related to interreligious dialogue By revisiting the key insights of Ricoeur's wider oeuvre from the perspective of interfaith dialogue Moyaert elaborates a Ricoeurian interreligious hermeneutic In Response to the Religious Other provides a coherent interreligious reading of Ricoeur's philosophy of religion his hermeneutical anthropology his ethical hermeneutics Moyaert shows that Ricoeur makes an exceptionally rewarding conversation partner for anyone wishing to explore the complex issues associated with interreligious dialogue This book is essential for studies of hermeneutics ethics religious philosophy global cooperation and hospitality comparative theology and religious identity

Common Values Sissela Bok, 2002 In Common Values now with a new preface Bok writes eloquently and clearly while combining moral theory with practical ethics demonstrating how moral values apply to all facets of life personal professional domestic and international Drawing on a great deal of historical material Bok also includes in her examination consideration of the 1993 United Nations World Conference on Human Rights the World Parliament of Religions the publication of Veritatis Splendor Pope John Paul II's proclamation on morality and the International Commission of Global Governance Bok's defense of shared morality addresses a crucial topic for our time

Post-Subjectivity Andrew German, Merav Mack, Christoph Schmidt, 2014-04-11 Modern thinkers have often declared the end or even the death of the subject and have been searching for new ways of being a self Indeed many contemporary scholars regard this search as one of the most significant effects of the general crisis of secularity Post Subjectivity is a contribution to that search conducted with a renewed attention to the centrality of religion in a pluralistic and global context This volume of essays guides the reader through but also beyond the crises of modernity and postmodernity toward an attempt to resurrect the subject in new forms The volume resonates with voices from across the humanistic disciplines the theological turn in recent phenomenology new directions in Christian and Jewish theology and reappraisals of figures in the history of philosophy psychoanalysis and the study of sexuality all are represented in an attempt to rethink from the beginning what it is to be a self
