Prolegomena To Inferential Discourse Processing:

Prolegomena to Inferential Discourse Processing Roger van de Velde, Roger G. van de Velde, 1984-01-01 This work consists of an examination and revision of some of the main theses of Speech Act Theory in relation to the problem of ideology and action guiding language Starting from the idea that linguistic philosophy must take into account how the social structure of the linguistic community may influence and direct the way its language is used a critical method of analysis is proposed developing Speech Act Theory in a way suitable for this purpose The main guideline of this proposal is the consideration that a theory of action rather than a theory of meaning should be taken as central in the analysis of language The notion of illocutionary force the problem of intentions and conventions in the constitution of speech acts the definition of context and the classification of speech acts are then discussed Based on the conclusions of this discussion a pragmatic method for the analysis of language is formulated

Text and Discourse Connectedness Maria-Elisabeth Conte, János Sándor Petöfi, Emil Sözer, 1989-01-01 The 35 papers in this volume provide a comprehensive picture of crucial aspects of connectedness The papers are divided into three main groups the papers in the first group deal with particular questions of the text constituting role of anaphora deixis coreference modality conjunctions and particles theme topic ellipsis etc the second group of papers discusses the connectedness in texts discourses of different types narrative texts stories horoscopes anecdotes poems comics etc and finally the papers in the third group discuss general theoretical methodological questions concerning connectedness

Discourse and Knowledge Teun A. van Dijk, 2014-07-17 Both discourse and knowledge are fundamental concepts but they are often treated separately The first book to adopt a multidisciplinary approach to studying the relationship between these concepts Discourse and Knowledge introduces the new field of epistemic discourse analysis and uses a wide range of examples to illustrate the theory

Relevance Relations in Discourse Regina Blass, 1990-11-22 This book uses Sperber and Wilson's relevance theory to show that connectivity in discourse is a pragmatic rather than a semantic matter it results from relevance relations between text and context rather than from relations linguistically encoded in the text In two introductory chapters Regina Blass argues that relevance theory offers a more explanatory account of discourse connectivity than do alternative approaches based on notions of cohesion coherence and topic In subsequent chapters she introduces data from the language Sissala and shows how relevance theory can play an important role in guiding and constraining semantic and pragmatic analyses of these data This approach reveals unexpected results for example the detection of an interpretive use marker in Sissala with implications for the analysis of so called hearsay phenomena in other languages and leads to an alternative basis for particle typology

and Thinking Text Knowledge and Object Knowledge Annely Rothkegel, 2015-12-17 Rothkegel argues that text production is the result of interaction between text knowledge and object knowledge the conventional ordering and presentation of knowledge for communicative purposes and the conceptual organisation of world knowledge Television Advertising and Televangelism Rosemarie Schmidt, Joseph F. Kess, 1986-01-01 The research reported in this volume attempts to refine our understanding of persuasive messages of television advertising by studying the role of language in persuasion in two ways First it comprises an attempt to refine our understanding of how language might function in persuasion by examining relevant work from a variety of related disciplines potentially germane either in terms of their theoretical approaches to the process or in terms of the actual linguistic techniques which they have suggested as enhancing the persuasive impact of a message Second a comparative study was undertaken in order to test the generalizability of the linguistic features found to characterize persuasive language in television advertising Translating the European House Stefan Baumgarten, Chantal Gagnon, 2016-08-17 This anthology of papers written by Christina Schffner brings together a selection of articles on the theme of translation and politics Written from the perspective of translation studies and critical discourse analysis it provides an overview of the textual and ideological factors that determine processes of translation within the arena of international politics The selected articles afford a fascinating insight into the dynamics of intercultural exchange against the backdrop of European politics from the fall of the Berlin Wall to debates on EU enlargement By taking a context sensitive approach to linguistic description this book will be of interest to scholars in various adjacent fields of research such as applied linguistics intercultural communication studies media studies political science and the sociology of globalisation as well as to relevant higher education programmes around the world The discipline of translation studies has made its mark by conceptualising translation as a form of cross cultural communication that transcends asymmetrical relations of power foregrounding issues such as colonial domination cultural hegemony and ideology To date however there has been no compelling evidence of the linguistic implications of transnational political communication and little research has been done to help us to understand how political discourse at the international level presupposes translation Featuring a wealth of examples from political text and talk each article here links contextual features to the linguistic choices of political actors By moving beyond national and cultural boundaries these analyses help the reader to get to grips with the discursive implications of power politics and to open up a new debate for a novel area of studies that might be termed cross cultural political discourse analysis Morphopragmatics Wolfgang U. Dressler, Lavinia M. Barbaresi, 2011-06-24 TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS is a series of books that open new perspectives in our understanding of language The series publishes state of the art work on core areas of linguistics across theoretical frameworks as well as studies that provide new insights by approaching language from an interdisciplinary perspective TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS considers itself a forum for cutting edge research based on solid empirical data on language in its various manifestations including sign languages It regards linguistic variation in its synchronic and diachronic dimensions as well as in its social contexts as important sources of insight for a better understanding of the design of linguistic systems and the ecology and evolution of language TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS publishes monographs and outstanding dissertations as well as edited volumes which provide the opportunity to address controversial topics from different empirical and theoretical viewpoints High quality standards are ensured through anonymous reviewing To discuss your book idea or submit a proposal please contact Birgit Sievert An Verschueren, 1991-01-01 This volume comprises the second part of selected papers of the International Pragmatics Conference in Antwerp August 1987 Current Advances in Semantic Theory Maxim I. Stamenov, 1991-01-01 This volume contains selected contributions to the interdisciplinary symposium on Models of Meaning held in Varna September 25 28 1988 under the auspices of the Institute of the Bulgarian Language of the Bulgarian Academy of Sciences The aim of the meeting was to broaden the horizons of meaning research and the modeling of linguistic semantics with contributions centering on the appropriate modeling of lexical syntactic and textual semantic representations The papers challenge some basic notions of semantics and reveal two main avenues of development in contemporary investigations One is toward broadening the scope of investigativeness the second is toward a greater domain specificity as expressed in a greater sensitivity to pragmatics and meta pragmatic concerns The Building Blocks of Meaning Michele Prandi, 2004-06-30

The shaping of complex meanings depends on punctual and relational coding and inferencing Coding is viewed as a vector which can run either from expression to content or from concepts to linguistic forms to mark independent conceptual relations While coding relies on systematic resources internal to language inferencing essentially depends on a layered system of autonomous shared conceptual structures which include both cognitive models and consistency criteria grounded in a natural ontology Inference guided by coding is not a residual pragmatic device but it is a direct way to long term conceptual structures that guide the connection of meanings The interaction of linguistic forms and concepts is particularly clear in conceptual conflict where conflictual complex meanings provide insights into the roots of significance and the linguistic structure of metaphors Complementing a formal analysis of linguistic structures with a substantive analysis of conceptual structures a philosophical grammar provides insights from both formal and functional approaches toward a more profound understanding of how language works in constructing and communicating complex meanings This monograph is ideally addressed to linguists philosophers and psychologists interested in language as symbolic form and as an instrument of human action rooted in a complex conceptual and cognitive landscape

A Comprehensive Bibliography of Pragmatics: Annotated bibliography, A-F, 1987 Southwest Journal of Linguistics, 1984 Descriptio Linguistica Hermann Bluhme, Göran Hammarström, 1987 Semantics Pilar Alonso, 2005 New Foundations for a Science of Text and Discourse Robert de Beaugrande, 1997-02 A magnum opus in the now vast domain of discourse studies whose history methods and subdomains nobody knows as well as Robert de Beugrande No other book in the humanities and social sciences today integrates such encyclopedic knowledge into a thoroughly transdisciplinary international intercultural and critical program For all advanced students of discourse this book should be their major mentor guide and compendium of research

Teun A van Dijk University of Amsterdam and Editor of the journals Text and Discourse and Society Professor de Beugrande has been one of the most influential scholars in text linguistics since he helped to found it as a discipline He commands a large panorama of knowledge and brings this learning to bear on a variety of topics giving fresh insights and new dimensions In his latest book he ranges over linguistic educational and cultural disciplines in order to synthesize an important framework within which text and discourse can be understood in new ways John Sinclair Birmingham University and Editor in Chief of Collins COBUILD English Language Dictionary

Adopting the Song of Phrase: An Emotional Symphony within Prolegomena To Inferential Discourse Processing

In a world eaten by displays and the ceaseless chatter of immediate interaction, the melodic elegance and emotional symphony developed by the written word usually diminish in to the background, eclipsed by the persistent noise and disruptions that permeate our lives. But, set within the pages of Prolegomena To Inferential Discourse Processing an enchanting literary value filled with fresh emotions, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a wonderful musician of language, that interesting masterpiece conducts readers on an emotional trip, well unraveling the hidden songs and profound impact resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths with this touching evaluation, we shall explore the book is main harmonies, analyze its enthralling writing fashion, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
