I Hated, Hated, Hated This Movie Roger Ebert, 2000-04 I Hated Hated Hated This Movie is a collection of more than 200 of Ebert's most biting and entertaining reviews of films receiving a mere star or less from the only film critic to win the Pulitzer Prize Ebert has no patience for these atrocious movies and minces no words in skewering the offenders Witness Armageddon 1998 The movie is an assault on the eyes the ears the brain common sense and the human desire to be entertained No matter what they're charging to get in it's worth more to get out The Beverly Hillbillies 1993 Imagine the dumbest half hour sitcom you've ever seen spin it out to ninety three minutes by making it even more thin and shallow and you have this movie It's appalling North no stars 1994 I hated this movie Hated hated hated hated this movie Hated it Hated every simpering stupid vacant audience insulting moment of it Hated the sensibility that thought anyone would like it Hated the implied insult to the audience by its belief that anyone would be entertained by it Police Academy no stars 1984 It's so bad maybe you should pool your money and draw straws and send one of the guys off to rent it so that in the future whenever you think you're sitting through a bad comedy he could shake his head chuckle tolerantly and explain that you don't know what bad is Dear God 1996 Dear God is the kind of movie where you walk out repeating the title but not with a smile The movies reviewed within I Hated Hated Hated This Movie are motion pictures you'll want to distance yourself from but Roger Ebert's creative and comical musings on those films make for a book no movie fan should miss

Adapting Stephen King Joseph Maddrey, 2021-07-26 Stephen King's fiction has formed the basis of more motion picture adaptations than any other living author Over half a century since his earliest publications Hollywood filmmakers continue to reinvent reimagine remake and reboot King's stories with mixed results This book volume 1 in a series examines the various screen adaptations of King's first three novels Carrie Salem's Lot and The Shining Reaching further than questions of fidelity to the author and adherence to directorial visions it charts the development of each individual adaptation from first option to final cut Through old and new interviews with the writers producers and directors of these films as well as in depth analyses of produced and unproduced screenplays it illuminates the adaptation process as an intricately collaborative endeavor Rather than merely synopsise the resulting stories its goal is to compare contrast and contextualize each of these adaptations as the products of their creators

La Dolce Morte Mikel J. Koven, 2006-10-02 With the exception of die hard aficionados of European or Italian horror cinema most people may not have heard of giallo cinema or have seen many films in this subgenre of horror Most academic film studies tend to ignore horror cinema in general and the giallo specifically Critics often deride these films which reveal more about the reviewers own prejudices than any problem with the works themselves As a counter to such biases Mikel J Koven argues for an alternative approach to studying these films by approaching them as vernacular cinema distinct from popular cinema According to

Koven to look at a film from a vernacular perspective removes the assumptions about what constitutes a good film and how a particular film is in some way artistic In La Dolce Morte Vernacular Cinema and the Italian Giallo Film Koven explores the history and evolution of this aspect of cinema and places these films within the context of Italian popular filmmaking He addresses various themes motifs and tropes in these films their use of space the murders the role of the detective the identity of the killer issues of belief excess and the set piece In addition to being the first academic study of the giallo film in English this book surveys more than fifty films of this subgenre In addition to filmmakers like Mario Bava and Dario Argento Koven also looks at the films of Lucio Fulci Sergio Martino Pupi Avati Umberto Lenzi and others In all the works of twenty five different filmmakers are considered in this book Also explored are the inter relationships between these films how one influences others how certain filmmakers take ideas and build off of them and how those ideas are further transformed by other filmmakers Koven also explores the impact of the giallo on the later North American slasher genre Prom Night
