Promesas Geography Of The Impossible:

Promesas: Geography of the Impossible Gloria Vando, 1993-01-01 This highly praised collection explores the disparity between promises and reality especially as seen from the vantage point of the Hispanic Americans from the time of Columbus to the present Promesas Geography of the Impossible is Gloria Vando's long awaited first book of poems a reunion of some of the complex and fully realized works that have appeared in numerous literary magazines and anthologies She received the 1991 Billee Murray Denny Poetry Prize and was a finalist in the 1992 Walt Whitman Poetry Contest and the 1989 Poetry Society of America's Alice Fay DiCastagnola Award In Other Words: Literature by Latinas of the United States

Roberta Fernández, 1994-01-01 Roberta Fernández has gathered the best and most representative examples of fiction poetry drama and essay currently being written by Latina writers of the United States The work is arranged by genre and topics are as varied as the voices and styles of the writers the challenge of living in two cultures experiencing marginality as a result of class ethnicity and or gender Latina feminism the celebration of one's culture and its people Most of the pieces are in English and some are presented bilingually in English and Spanish A preface and an introduction by the editor and a foreword by the noted critic of Latin American literature Jean Franco serve to contextualize the writers and their work a primary and secondary bibliography serves as an appendix Shadows & Supposes Gloria Vando, 2002-04-01 In Gloria Vando's tender ode to making bread she writes I remember you always in the act of kneading To give bread is an offering of love Like the subject of her poem Vando artfully creates love and life kneading the happy the painful victory and tragedy with her pen shaping her own offering of love Her second collection of poetry Shadows Supposes explores themes of love loss personal history global history and family Her poems craft a world of shadows the remnants of Europe in the wake of World War II the Vietnam soldier haunted by the photograph of a child and the blood tax exacted from Puerto Rican Americans during the Vietnam War And through it all the shadows are enhanced by the supposes her daughter's encounter with death at the Museum of Natural History and Vando's own musings on life and death Shadows Supposes is a tour de force by one of the most mature and sane voices in poetry today who despite pondering the ultimate questions finds purpose even in tragic false starts and detours Defending Their Own in the Cold Marc Zimmerman, 2011-09-15 Defending Their Own in the Cold

The Cultural Turns of U S Puerto Ricans explores U S Puerto Rican culture in past and recent contexts The book presents East Coast Midwest and Chicago cultural production while exploring Puerto Rican musical film artistic and literary performance Working within the theoretical frame of cultural postcolonial and diasporic studies Marc Zimmerman relates the experience of Puerto Ricans to that of Chicanos and Cuban Americans showing how even supposedly mainstream U S Puerto Ricans participate in a performative culture that embodies elements of possible cultural Ricanstruction Defending Their Own in the Cold examines various dimensions of U S Puerto Rican artistic life including relations with other ethnic groups and resistance to colonialism and cultural assimilation To illustrate how Puerto Ricans have survived and created new identities and relations out of their colonized and diasporic circumstances Zimmerman looks at the cultural examples of Latino entertainment stars such as Jennifer Lopez and Benicio del Toro visual artists Juan Sánchez Ramírez Flores and Elizam Escobar as well as Nuyorican dancer turned Midwest poet Carmen Pursifull The book includes a comprehensive chapter on the development of U S Puerto Rican literature and a pioneering essay on Chicago Puerto Rican writing A final essay considers Cuban cultural attitudes towards Puerto Ricans in a testimonial narrative by Miguel Barnet and reaches conclusions about the past and future of U S Puerto Rican culture Zimmerman offers his own semi outsider point of reference as a Jewish American Latin Americanist who grew up near New York City matured in California went on to work with and teach Latinos in the Midwest and eventually married a woman from a Puerto Rican family with island and U S roots

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Latino Literature Nicolás Kanellos, 2008-08-30 From East L A to the barrios of New York City and the Cuban neighborhoods of Miami Latino literature or literature written by Hispanic peoples of the United States is the written word of North America's vibrant Latino communities Emerging from the fusion of Spanish North American and African cultures it has always been part of the American mosaic Written for students and general readers this encyclopedia surveys the vast landscape of Latino literature from the colonial era to the present Aiming to be as broad and inclusive as possible the encyclopedia covers all of native North American Latino literature as well as that created by authors originating in virtually every country of Spanish America and Spain Included are more than 700 alphabetically arranged entries written by roughly 60 expert contributors While most of the entries are on writers such as Julia Alvarez Sandra Cisneros Lorna Dee Cervantes Oscar Hijuelos and Piri Thomas others cover genres ethnic and national literatures movements historical topics and events themes concepts associations and organizations and publishers and magazines Special attention is given to the cultural political social and historical contexts in which Latino literature has developed Entries cite works for further reading and the encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography Entries cite works for further reading and the encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography The encyclopedia gives special attention to the social cultural historical and political contexts of Latino literature thus making it an ideal tool to help students use literature to learn about history and cultural diversity

Survival Supervivencia Miguel Algarín, 2009-03-31 Don't believe the deadly game Miguel Algarín warns the elderly black Puerto Rican sitting in a park in Old San Juan of Northern cities paved with gold and plenty don't believe the fetching dream of life improvement in New York the only thing you'll find in Boston is a soft leather shoe up your ass In this affecting collection of poetry and prose Nuyorican poet Miguel Algarín crafts beautifully angry sad pieces about injustice and loss While warning his compatriots about the unreality of the American Dream he acknowledges that we are the pistons that move the roughage through Uncle Sam's intestines we keep the flow of New York happening we are its muscles Algarín's poems covering his long career give voice to the disenfranchised the junkie the HIV inflicted the poverty stricken and survival is a recurring theme In the essay Nuyorican Language which was originally published in 1975 he argues that for the

New York Puerto Rican there are three survival possibilities to work hard for little money all your life and remain in eternal debt to live life by taking risks of all types including killing cheating and stealing and to create alternative behavioral habits The Nuyorican poet he says must create a new language A new day needs a new language or else the day becomes a repetition of yesterday While many of the poems focus on the Puerto Rican experience in New York others touch on universal experiences such as the death of friends and the ephemeral nature of life So what if you re dead I m here you re gone and I m left alone to watch how time betrays and we die slow so very slow And he turns his sharp gaze on events around the world including the fights between England and Argentina for the Falkland Islands Israel and Palestine for the Holy Land With an introduction by Ernesto Qui onez author of the acclaimed novel Bodega Dreams this collection takes the reader through an intimate autobiographical journey of one of the country s leading Nuyorican writers and intellectuals What Wildness Is This Susan Wittig Albert, 2007-03-01 A collection of short stories poems and essays written by women who share the experiences of living in the Southwest Writing Off the Hyphen Jose L. Torres-Padilla, Carmen Haydee Rivera, 2011-12-01 The sixteen essays in Writing Off the Hyphen approach the literature of the Puerto Rican diaspora from current theoretical positions with provocative and insightful results The authors analyze how the diasporic experience of Puerto Ricans is played out in the context of class race gender and sexuality and how other themes emerging from postcolonialism and postmodernism come into play Their critical work also demonstrates an understanding of how the process of migration and the relations between Puerto Rico and the United States complicate notions of cultural and national identity as writers confront their bilingual bicultural and transnational realities The collection has considerable breadth and depth It covers earlier undertheorized writers such as Luisa Capetillo Pedro Juan Labarthe Bernardo Vega Pura Belptr Arturo Schomburg and Graciany Miranda Archilla Prominent writers such as Rosario Ferr and Judith Ortiz Cofer are discussed alongside often neglected writers such as Honolulu based Rodney Morales and gay writer Manuel Ramos Otero The essays cover all the genres and demonstrate that current theoretical ideas and approaches create exciting opportunities and possibilities for the study of Puerto Rican diasporic literature The Routledge Companion to Latino/a Literature Suzanne Bost, Frances R. Aparicio, 2013 Latino a literature is one of the fastest developing fields in the discipline of literary studies It represents an identity that is characterized by fluidity and diversity often explored through divisions formed by language race gender sexuality and immigration The Routledge Companion to Latino a Literature represents over forty essays by leading and emerging international scholars of Latino a literature and analyses Regional cultural and sexual identities in Latino a literature Worldviews and traditions of Latino a cultural creation Latino a literature in different international contexts The impact of differing literary forms of Latino a literature The politics of canon formation in Latino a literature This collection provides a map of the critical issues central to the discipline as well as uncovering new perspectives and new directions for the development of the field It is essential reading for anyone interested in the past present and future of this
