Ireland,2017-12-14 At the time of her death in 1780 British born Esther DeBerdt Reed a name few know today was one of the most politically important women in Revolutionary America Her treatise The Sentiments of an American Woman articulated the aspirations of female patriots and the Ladies Association of Philadelphia which she founded taught generations of women how to translate their political responsibilities into action DeBerdt Reed s social connections and political sophistication helped transform her husband Joseph Reed from a military leader into the president of the Supreme Executive Council of Pennsylvania a position analogous to the modern office of governor DeBerdt Reed's life yields remarkable insight into the scope of women's political influence in an age ruled by the strict social norms structured by religion and motherhood The story of her courtship marriage and political career sheds light both on the private and political lives of women during the Revolution and on how society religion and gender interacted as a new nation struggled to build its own identity Engaging comprehensive and built on primary source material that allows DeBerdt Reed's own voice to shine Owen Ireland's expertly researched biography rightly places her in a prominent position in the pantheon of our founders both female and male Colonial Families of Philadelphia John Woolf Jordan, 1911 Proceedings of the New Jersey Historical Society New Jersey Historical Society, 1929 Dover History Charles Davis Platt, 1914
