Promise Me:

Promise Me The Summer Kathryn Cantrell, 2025-05-20 I came home to disappear I didn't plan on being seen Going off the radar should be simple for a guy who makes a living pretending to be other people But hiding in my hometown of Kilt Valley disguised renamed and dodging my very recognizable face that's turning out to be the role of a lifetime No cameras No red carpets Just me a borrowed name and two weeks to prove I can go invisible before my next movie What I didn't count on was Maren a documentary filmmaker with too much heart and a camera she's not afraid to use She doesn't know who I really am At least I don't think she does And if she finds out this fragile unexpected connection between us might disappear faster than my disguise But every time we talk every moment she trusts me with something real I stop caring about the spotlight I just want to be the guy she thinks I am She's trying to tell a story that matters I just don't know if I can be in it without rewriting both of our endings
