Scholar and pastor Matthew Barrett retraces the historical and biblical roots of the doctrine that Scripture alone is the final and decisive authority for God's people. God's Word Alone is a decisive defense of the Bible as the inspired and inerrant Word of God. Revitalizing one of the five great declarations of the Reformation: sola Scriptura. Barrett analyzes what the idea of sola Scriptura is and what it entails, clarifying why the doctrine is truth and why it's so essential to Christianity. Surveys the development of this theme in the Reformation and traces the crisis that followed, resulting in a shift away from the authority of Scripture. Shows that we need to recover a robust doctrine of Scripture's authority in the face of today's challenges and why a solid doctrinal foundation built on God's Word is the best hope for the future of the church. This book is an exploration of the past in order to better understand our present and the importance of reviving this indispensable doctrine for the Christian faith and church today. THE FIVE SOLAS. Historians and theologians have long recognized that at the heart of the sixteenth-century Protestant Reformation were five declarations often referred to as the solas. These five statements summarize much of what the Reformation was about and they distinguish Protestantism from other expressions of the Christian faith that they place ultimate and final authority in the Scriptures. acknowledge the work of Christ alone as sufficient for redemption; recognize that salvation is by grace alone through faith alone and seek to do all things for God's glory. The Five Solas Series is more than a simple rehashing of these statements but instead expounds upon the biblical reasoning behind them, leading to a more profound theological vision of our lives and callings as Christians and churches. His Word is His Bond: Believe and Trust Only God's Promises,

Remythologizing Theology Kevin J. Vanhoozer, 2010-01-14. The rise of modern science and the proclaimed death of God in the nineteenth century led to a radical questioning of divine action and authorship. Bultmann's celebrated demythologizing. Remythologizing Theology moves in another direction that begins by taking seriously the biblical accounts of God's speaking. It establishes divine communicative action as the formal and material principle of theology and suggests that interpersonal dialogue rather than impersonal causality is the keystone of God's relationship with the world. This original contribution to the theology of divine action and authorship develops a fresh vision of Christian theism. It also revisits several long-standing controversies such as the relations of God's sovereignty to human freedom, time to eternity and suffering to love.

Groundbreaking and thought provoking it brings theology into fruitful dialogue with philosophy literary theory and biblical studies
