Experiences in a Promised Land G. Thomas Edwards, Carlos A. Schwantes, 1986 Practically since the turn of the century the Northwest has been a region of paradoxes Women who in Washington had acquired suffrage and lost it in the 1880s regained it and later elected a woman mayor of Seattle Exploitation of workers despite or perhaps because of abundance has been extreme and has engendered some of America's most radical labor movements Both racial backlash and enlightened reforms characterize the region

Southern Writers Bear Witness Jan Nordby Gretlund, 2018-07-15 Fourteen Southern storytellers reveal their influences methods and daily routines and struggles with the writing process Jan Nordby Gretlund has been studying the literature of the American South for some fifty years and his outsider's perspective as a European scholar has made him an intellectually acute witness of both the literature and its creators Whether it is their language and reflexive storytelling or the craft and techniques by which writers transform life and experience into art that fascinates Gretlund elements of their fiction led to his interviews with the fourteen storytellers featured in Southern Writers Bear Witness Gretlund believes a good interview will always reveal something about a writer's life and character details that can inform a reading of that writer's fiction The interviewer's task according to Gretlund is to supply the reader with some of the sources and experiences that inspired and shaped the fiction Through his conversations Gretlund also occasionally elicits the subjects' reflections on other writers and their work to discover affiliations lines of influence and divergences and he also emphasizes the enduring power of their work His interviews with Eudora Welty and Pam Durban uncover strong family and community experiences found at the core of their fiction Gretlund also turns conversations to the craft of writing writers' daily routines and specific problems encountered in their work such as Clyde Edgerton's struggle with point of view In other exchanges he investigates distinctive elements of a writer's work such as violence in Barry Hannah's fiction and religious faith in Walker Percy's Still other conversations such as his with Josephine Humphreys touch on the pressures and opportunities of publishing and its influence on the writer's work Taken together these authors' insights on life in the South provide a fascinating window into the creative process of

Jacobs, 2017-08-10 This book examines how property rights are linked to socio economic progress and development It also provides a theoretical analysis an economic social analysis of planning case studies of the implementation of planning and regulation instruments practices related to law and planning analysis of case laws in a particular segment The interconnection between property law and planning is a running theme throughout the book The land question has been central to South Asian development on two counts First although the majority of the population relies on agriculture and allied activities their livelihood landholding is highly skewed second urban planning is facing unprecedented challenges due to burgeoning property values as well as gush of migrants to cities seeking livelihood The response to these challenges in the form of laws and policies has been very large compared to the academic attention that is received However the measures emerging from planning and policies have had limited impact on the extent of the problems This paradox calls for serious introspection and academic engagement that this book undertakes The book further deals with the emerging discipline of planning law which determines property value and use and argues that regulatory issues of public policy determine the property valuation and property pricing Casing a Promised Land, Expanded Edition H.
