Promise Of Peace Call For Justice:

Promise of Peace, Call for Justice Thomas Eugene Ridenhour, 1986-09 Forever's Promise Missouri Vaun, 2023-07-11

Wesley Holden migrated west with her brother Clyde to build a life neither of them could hope for back East To share the homestead claim Wesley had to disguise herself as a man As brothers Wesley and Clyde began to carve a new home out of the Kansas frontier When Clyde is unexpectedly killed Wes is left alone with the farm determined to carry on but more isolated as the days pass Romanced and abandoned Charlotte Rose embarks on a journey west in search of a better life But the trip is cut short by disaster Even worse Charlotte can't return home because she discovers after arriving in Kansas that she's pregnant Her only hope is to find a frontier husband Desperate and out of options Charlotte is resolved to win Wes's heart Allowing Charlotte to get too close is dangerous If Wes marries she'll have to reveal her secret and risk everything for a woman who might never really love her but resisting Charlotte is easier said than done Gift and Promise Peter Schmiechen, 2016-12-09 What would happen if the liturgy for the Lord's Supper started with the images in the New Testament rather than the divisions of our past It would be like going through an open door into a new world There we would find a new Passover celebration a new covenant and remembrance and proclamation of Jesus' death and resurrection all in the context of the kingdom of God It would be an evangelical Lord's Supper This is a high risk operation given the reliance by many on transactional sacrifice and the tendency to reduce the Supper to a sacrament of penance for individuals Ideas rejected by Luther and Calvin now reappear even among Protestants The goal cannot be reached by subtracting a few things and adding references to eschatology and joy The good news is that many churches have already taken steps to reform their liturgies To support that process here is a clear and consistent evangelical perspective based on the theology and biblical considerations that have formed our faith and practice Preaching Promise withing the Paradoxes of Life Len Hansen, 2019-01-01 Paradoxes have become characteristic of the world we live in poverty and privilege empire and oppression migration and enclaves seeking war and peace justice and injustice reconciliation and revenge During the 2016 Societas Homiletica annual conference held in South Africa these paradoxes served as a rediscovery of the calling of preachers to deliver the promise that lies within life's contradictions A divine promise brought forth by the grace of God and the gospel of Christ embodied in and through us by the Spirit of Christ This promise may take many forms and calls for discernment and often interrupts the status quos in surprising shocking ways It is a promise that interrupts in order to comfort A Promise of Hope: Micah Foretells Bethlehem Ahmed Musa, 2024-12-09 In A Promise of Hope journey back to a time when darkness clouded the future and a small humble town was named as the birthplace of salvation This book beautifully retells the prophecy of Micah the prophet who foretold that Bethlehem seemingly insignificant among the clans of Judah would become the cradle of the greatest hope the world has ever known Through vivid storytelling discover the faith and courage of Micah as he delivers his message the hope it inspired in the hearts of the faithful and the profound fulfillment of this promise centuries later with the birth of Christ This inspiring tale weaves themes of faith hope and divine providence reminding readers of God s power to use the humble and overlooked to accomplish extraordinary things Perfect for those seeking a deeper connection to the Christmas story and the enduring hope it brings to all Called to Transformation World Council of Churches,2022-12-31 A joint publication of the World Council of Churches WCC and ACT Alliance this study document aims to clarify the understanding of ecumenical diakonia and to provide a common platform for acting and reflecting together for the churches and ecumenical partners worldwide The major publication outlines the theological components of diakonia and offers practical content for those engaged in the service of diakonia The study document is intended to be used for formation and training in ecumenical diakonia to strengthen the institutional capacity of those involved in diakonia and to foster dialogue and cooperation between churches ecumenical partners ACT Alliance and the WCC

The Arctic Promise Natalia Loukacheva,2007-01-01 In Canada s Eastern Arctic and Greenland the Inuit have been the majority for centuries In recent years they have been given a promise from Canadian and Danish governments that offers them more responsibility for their lands and thus control over their lives without fear of being outnumbered by outsiders The Arctic Promise looks at how much the Inuit vision of self governance relates to the existing public governance systems of Greenland and Nunavut and how much autonomy there can be for territories that remain subordinate units of larger states By means of a bottom up approach involving cultural immersion contextual jurisprudential and historical legal comparisons of Greenland and Nunavut The Arctic Promise examines the forms evolution and scope of the right to autonomy in these Arctic jurisdictions Loukacheva argues that the right to autonomy should encompass or protect Inuit jurisdiction in legal systems and the administration of justice and should allow the Inuit direct participation in international affairs where issues that affect their homelands are concerned The Arctic Promise deals with areas of comparative constitutional law international law Aboriginal law legal anthropology political science and international relations using each to contribute to the understanding of the right to indigenous autonomy The Promise of Reconciliation? Chaiwat Satha-Anand, 2017-07-05 The Promise of Reconciliation explores the relationship between violence nonviolence and reconciliation in societal conflicts with questions such as In what ways does violence impact the reconciliation process that necessarily follows a cessation of deadly conflict Would an understanding of how conflict has been engaged with violence or nonviolence be conducive to how it could be prevented from sliding further into violence The contributors examine international influences on the peace reconciliation process in Indonesia s Aceh conflict as well as the role of Muslim religious scholars in promoting peace They also examine the effect of violence in southern Thailand where insurgent violence has provided leverage during the fighting but negatively affects post conflict objectives The chapter on Sri Lanka shows that successful violence does not necessarily end conflict Sri Lankan society today is more polarized than it was before its civil war The Vietnam chapter argues that the rise of nonviolent protest in Vietnam reflects a profound loss of state legitimacy which cannot be resolved with force while another chapter on Thailand examines Red Sunday a Thai political movement engaged in nonviolent protest in the face of violent government suppression The book ends with a look at Indonesian cities sites of ethnic conflicts as potential abodes of peace if violence can be curtailed Thinking the Poetic Measure of Justice Charles Bambach, 2013-05-19 A new reading of justice engaging the work of two philosophical poets who stand in conversation with the work of Martin Heidegger What is the measure of ethics What is the measure of justice And how do we come to measure the immeasurability of these questions Thinking the Poetic Measure of Justice situates the problem of justice in the interdisciplinary space between philosophy and poetry in an effort to explore the sources of ethical life in a new way Charles Bambach engages the works of two philosophical poets who stand as the bookends of modernity Friedrich Hlderlin 1770 1843 and Paul Celan 1920 1970 offering close textual readings of poems from each that define and express some of the crucial problems of German philosophical thought in the twentieth century tensions between the native and the foreign the proper and the strange the self and the other At the center of this philosophical conversation between H

Idlerlin and Celan Bambach places the work of Martin Heidegger to rethink the question of justice in a nonlegal nonmoral register by understanding it in terms of poetic measure Focusing on H Idlerlin s and Heidegger s readings of pre Socratic philosophy and Greek tragedy as well as on Celan s reading of Kabbalah he frames the problem of poetic justice against the trauma of German destruction in the twentieth century The Promise of Beauty Mimi Thi Nguyen,2024-09-20 In The Promise of Beauty Mimi Thi Nguyen explores the relationship between the concept of beauty and narratives of crisis and catastrophe Nguyen conceptualizes beauty which she observes we turn to in emergencies and times of destruction as a tool to identify and bridge the discrepancy between the world as it is and what it ought to be Drawing widely from aesthetic and critical theories Nguyen outlines how beauty or its lack points to the conditions that must exist for it to flourish She notes that an absence of beauty becomes both a political observation and a call to action to transform the conditions of the situation so as to replicate preserve or repair beauty The promise of beauty can then engender a critique of social arrangements and political structures that would set the foundations for its possibility and presence In this way Nguyen highlights the role of beauty in inspiring action toward a more just world Beauty Will Save the World Brian Zahnd,2012 Zahnd issues a challenge to Christians to discover new vitality through re envisioning reimagining and reforming the church according to the pattern of the cruciform Using stories from the lives of St Francis of Assisi and from his own life he teaches believers to stay on the journey to discover the kingdom of God in a fuller richer way Promise Renewed Martin R. Tripole,1999 Speaking candidly twenty seven noteworthy Jesuits from major areas of Jesuit higher education have contributed essays that discuss how the recent 34th General Congregation has had an impact on their scholarship and role as teachers and administrators From Panthers to Promise Keepers Judith Newton,2004-12-10 Written for a general audience From Panthers to Promise Keepers draws on years of readings about interviews with and intimate observations of the men and networks who were involved in what some have called the men s movement Focusing on the decades between 1950 and 2000 in the U S From Panthers to Promise Keepers places networks of gay men and of black men and women at the center of its investigations exploring some of the unexpected ways in which these seemingly marginal networks were precursors to rather than mere followers of the white and heterosexual men s groups that followed and that became the objects of media attention This study also demonstrates that networks with radically different positions on important social issues nonetheless shared two related activities criticizing individualist self making values and attempting through surprisingly similar ritual practices to construct ideals of masculinity that were more expressive of vulnerability tenderness and care Men s politically varied efforts to refashion masculine ideals during the last 50 years have contributed to a different global climate with respect to masculinities Near the end of the 1990s agencies such as UNESCO helped the reform of masculine ideals become more widely seen as a necessary component of movements for social justice and a culture of peace Current efforts to revive a more aggressive and force based masculine ideal a masculinity for a culture of war are one of many testaments to the cultural resonance of what has been called the men's movement Advocate of Peace Through Justice, 1920 Hope: Promise, Possibility, and Fulfillment Edited by Richard Lennan and Nancy Pineda-Madrid, 2013

Crafting a theology of hope this book addresses both the possibility that hope offers and the capacity of hope to respond to the challenges that life presents to us all Preaching Justice James M. Childs, Jr., 2000-03-01 The principal concern of this book is not complex theoretical discussions of justice so common to the discipline of ethics but how working for justice fits into the church's mission and especially into its preaching An opening chapter sets forth a biblical and theological basis for the conviction that justice is at the heart of the church's mission and witness Then follows a chapter on preaching that distinguishes between merely moralizing about justice and genuinely preaching it The remaining chapters in the book speak of preaching justice in dialogue with current contextual realities such as 1 the racism of our American context 2 the church's pentecostal heritage of communicating in and through all cultures 3 the fact that much of the injustice in our society is a byproduct of greed in its individual and enculturated manifestations and 4 the need to deal appropriately and faithfully with the multicultural context of today A concluding chapter brings the preacher back into the context of the church and its gospel foundations that is the source of preaching justice and walking together with the people of God in quest of it James M Childs is the Joseph A Sittler Professor of Theology and Ethics and Academic Dean at Trinity Lutheran Seminary Columbus Ohio He is the author of Faith Formation and Decision Ethics in the Community of Promise 1991 and Ethics in Business Faith at Work 1995 For Clergy seminarians homiletics ethicists peace and justice readership students of mission and modern culture

Let Justice Roll Down Bruce C. Birch, 1991-01-01 Connecting the Old Testament with the modern church this book relates the testimonies and stories of Israel's faith in the Hebrew canon to the character and conduct of Christians and the Christian community today By opening up the moral resources available in the Old Testament this book will spur discussion of both the character of those moral resources and their pertinence to ethical issues in a complex and challenging time Equipped for the Work of Ministry Catholic Church, 1996 Inspired by and based on Pope John Paul II's apostolic exhortation I Will Give You Shepherds Pastores Dabo Vobis
