Subjects Kelly Oliver,1998 In this volume philosopher and feminist theorist Kelly Oliver takes a look at aspects of popular culture film science and law to examine contemporary notions of paternity and maternity She studies the role of paternal responsibility virility and race in such events as the Million Man March and the growth of the Promise Keeper s movement and suggests alternative ways to conceive of self other relations and the subjective identity at stake in them In addition she offers a detailed analysis of particular works by film makers such as Polanski Bergman and Varda in developing a theory of identity that opens the subject to otherness or difference

Beckett's Words David Kleinberg-Levin,2015-07-30 At stake in this book is a struggle with language in a time when our old faith in the redeeming of the word and the word s power to redeem has almost been destroyed Drawing on Benjamin s political theology his interpretation of the German Baroque mourning play and Adorno s critical aesthetic theory but also on the thought of poets and many other philosophers especially Hegel s phenomenology of spirit Nietzsche s analysis of nihilism and Derrida s writings on language Kleinberg Levin shows how because of its communicative and revelatory powers language bears the utopian promise of happiness the idea of a secular redemption of humanity at the very heart of which must be the achievement of universal justice In an original reading of Beckett s plays novels and short stories Kleinberg Levin shows how despite inheriting a language damaged corrupted and commodified Beckett redeems dead or dying words and wrests from this language new possibilities for the expression of meaning Without denying Beckett s nihilism his picture of a radically disenchanted world Kleinberg Levin calls attention to moments when his words suddenly ignite and break free of their despair and pain taking shape in the beauty of an austere yet joyous lyricism suggesting that after all meaning is still possible
