Juel,2011-09-01 This volume is written for anyone who for whatever reason is drawn to the New Testament It is also for those who are not so drawn for it is written out of the conviction that good readers need to be formed Anyone can read the Bible no particular level of education is required but readers need to learn what to look for in stories that may seem distant and strange The long tradition of reading the Scriptures in the church is not the enemy in such an enterprise but audiences change and the Bible must be heard and wrestled with in each new situation This volume focuses on the Gospel according to Mark probably the first of the four Gospels to be written It has received the least attention of the four in the history of the church The explosion of Markan scholarship in the last decades tells a fascinating story that is not the focus of this study but informs it The result of intense engagement with Mark within and outside the academic community has not achieved a meeting of the minds Mark s Gospel does not easily yield its secrets It is the case however that conversing about Mark has been enormously interesting and productive for the church as well as the academy This volume is written to open readers to its remarkable story Where engagement will finally lead remains as unpredictable and as promising as the Gospel itself     Case Studies in Pharmacy Ethics Robert Veatch,Amy Haddad,2010-04-10 Pharmacists face ethical choices constantly sometimes dramatic life and death decisions but more often subtle less conspicuous choices that are nonetheless important Among the topics confronted are assisted suicide conscientious refusal pain management equitable distribution of drug resources within institutions and managed care plans confidentiality and alternative and non traditional therapies Veatch and Haddad s book first published in 1999 was the first collection of case studies based on the real experiences of practicing pharmacists for use as a teaching tool for pharmacy students The second edition accounts for the many changes in pharmacy since 1999 including assisted suicide in Oregon the purchasing of less expensive drugs from Canada and the influence of managed care on prescriptions The presentation of some cases is shortened most are revised and updated and two new chapters have been added The first new chapter presents a new model for analyzing cases while the second focuses on the ethics of new drug distribution systems for example hospitals where pharmacists are forced to choose drugs based on cost effectiveness and internet based pharmacies

Akers,2014-03-18 There are many devotional books available containing brief daily inspirations that benefit all who read them This book is different in two respects The first is obvious it contains two readings per day 732 in all The second more important difference is that the author wanted to do more than offer inspiration this would make this book no different than so many others The messages in the book are study sketches in that the content is not only inspirational but also educational challenging and encouraging Most of these writings were based on author Michael J Akers s teaching of adult Bible studies for more than thirty years and learning what really brought adults to want to deepen their knowledge and application of the Word of God      Daily Reflections and Meditations Michael J.
