Florsheim,2005-06 This child s eye view of life in Israel builds students emotional ties to our Jewish homeland Building Trust Robert C. Solomon,Fernando Flores,2003-05-01 In business politics marriage indeed in any significant relationship trust is the essential precondition upon which all real success depends But what precisely is trust How can it be achieved and sustained And most importantly how can it be regained once it has been broken In Building Trust Robert C Solomon and Fernando Flores offer compelling answers to these questions They argue that trust is not something that simply exists from the beginning something we can assume or take for granted that it is not a static quality or social glue. Instead they assert that trust is an emotional skill an active and dynamic part of our lives that we build and sustain with our promises and commitments our emotions and integrity. In looking closely at the effects of mistrust such as insidious office politics that can sabotage a company's efficiency Solomon and Flores demonstrate how to move from naïve trust that is easily shattered to an authentic trust that is sophisticated reflective and possible to renew. As the global economy makes us more and more reliant on strangers and as our political and personal interactions become more complex Building Trust offers invaluable insight into a vital aspect of human relationships.

Wheat Or Chaff? John Charles Ryle, 1857 Religious Affections Jonathan Edwards, 2009-01-01 This volume contains Edwards' most mature and persistent attempt to judge the validity of the religious development in eighteenth century America known as the Great Awakening. In developing criteria for such judgment he attacked at the same time one of the fundamental questions facing all religion how to distinguish genuine from spurious piety. The Awakening created much bitter controversy on the one side stood the emotionalists and enthusiasts and on the other the rationalists for whom religion was essentially a matter of morality or good conduct and the acceptance of properly formulated doctrine. Edwards with great analytical skill and enormous biblical learning showed that both sides were in the wrong. He attacked both a lifeless morality as too pale as to be the essence of religion and he rejected the excesses of a purely emotional religion more concerned for sensational effects than for the inner transformation of the self which was for him the center of genuine Christianity.
