Promo Way Down Deep:

Promo/Way Down Deep Patricia B. Demuth,1995 Come along for a spooky survey way down deep under the sea where robot submersibles roam strange rock chimneys spew black water and viperfish vampire squids gulper eels and giant tube worms make their homes Following the success of Bats and Gorillas this book tackles a hot subject that fits in swimmingly with kids natural interests Full color Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved Great Times Down South Giuliano Santangeli Valenzani,2025 Great Times Down South examines advertising materials from 1976 to 1981 including brochures booklets advertisements and radio and TV spots used by state tourism bureaus in Alabama Georgia Mississippi and South Carolina The chosen period known as the Carter era marked southern fashion and economic prosperity in the Sunbelt Analyzing the strategies rhetoric images and themes employed by these tourism bureaus domestically and internationally offers a unique look into the prevailing conception of the South as marketed and perceived externally A noticeable shift in the tourist image of the South occurred in the late 1970s aligning with significant changes in southern culture and society While the 1970s are acknowledged for altering the perception and symbolic role of the South in American culture little research explores how these changes influenced the region s promotional image Prevailing views extend the classic Old South imagery into the 1970s but Giuliano Santangeli Valenzani contends that the roots of the current elusive image of the South can be precisely traced in advertising materials designed to attract visitors during the 1970s Rethinking Democracy Promotion in International Relations Jessica Schmidt,2015-08-20 This book traces and conceptualises the changing notion of democracy and demonstrates how democracy promotion finds itself at the heart of contemporary international discourses and policies Democracy promotion is widely considered to constitute a hypocritical and failed grand international narrative of the 1990s and has allegedly been replaced by other more pressing and academically more captivating concerns such as conflict management statebuilding and climate change This book challenges this position and argues that the core notions of democracy promotion such as empowerment inclusion and responsiveness are a key concern of contemporary international policymakers Drawing on the work of Michel Foucault Hannah Arendt as well as John Dewey it investigates the notion of democracy and modality of its promotions through the policy fields of conflict management statebuilding and climate change The central development the book observes is the reconceptualisation of democracy from the constituted sphere of the public to the lived relations of the social The book argues that the novel rationality of democracy and its promotion offers a particular solution to governing impasses in a world perceived to be globalised and complex which accounts for democracy s current but neglected centrality This book will be of much interest to students of democracy intervention statebuilding global governance and IR in general Proceedings of the ... Annual Meeting of the Society for the Promotion of Agricultural Science Society for the Promotion of Agricultural Science (U.S.),1883 Satellite Ministries Febe Armanios,2025 In 1981 a satellite television station called Star of Hope began broadcasting from Israeli occupied South Lebanon Backed by American missionaries Israeli politicians and Lebanese Catholic leaders the channel aired Western entertainment and Christian content using a repurposed ABC Monday Night Football truck situated on the Israel Lebanon border Later renamed Middle East Television METV its programming included American soap operas sports and evangelical content alongside innovative Arabic Christian televangelism It was a station of enormous consequence METV spurred the growth of competing Christian broadcasters and reshaped the Middle East's media and religious landscape over the next four decades Yet it was of course controversial its foreign imperialist and proselytizing approach to media was a source of curiosity and consternation in the region and occasionally around the world Through extensive fieldwork and archival research Febe Armanios explores how Western evangelicals and indigenous Christians harnessed terrestrial and satellite technologies to promote Christian television in the Middle East The fifteen channels analyzed in this study fall into three main categories Western backed conservative outlets with a charismatic and apocalyptic outlook middle ground channels that sought to balance their international sponsors expectations with local interests and grassroots initiatives rooted in ancient church traditions The histories and programming strategies of primarily Arabic but also Turkish and Persian Christian channels reveal how media producers forged unexpected political alliances pursued sectarian objectives and navigated various transnational influences Satellite Ministries explores how modern expressions of faith technology and political power intersected and clashed across the Global South and beyond In this groundbreaking work Armanios presents a crucial examination of this unique and little known media landscape

After The Event Chris Henson, 2023-08-01 I am waiting for Mark For the last several months he has been missing Garbo like from public life But in reality he has been writing a new book We have agreed to go back over the original manuscripts for this edition to do some editing add in some extras delete a few choice words and phrases We meet in his London home where he is dressed in a workday uniform of brown shirt jeans and trainers hair clipped up in practical busy busy fashion all smiles and loud laughter We first met over five years ago Then we tentatively shook hands and the laughter was nervous All that has changed But some things have not He still famously hates interviews Around us there is evidence of a very regular existence There are books scattered everywhere a Sony widescreen with a DVD of Shackleton sitting below it Atop the fireplace hangs a painting called Fishermen by James Southall a tableau of weather beaten sea dogs wrestling with a rowing boat a gift he bought himself on the anniversary of a publication Balanced against a wall in the office next door is a replica of the Rosebud sledge burned at the dramatic conclusion of Citizen Kane As I unpack my scripts I begin with a question You once said There is a figure that is adored but I d question very strongly that it s me There is silence A stare You did say it Well supposedly I said that But in what context did I say it Just talking about people building up this image of you It was one of the first things you ever said to me Yes but I m not am I There was also that interview that described you as someone fragile being who s hidden himself away That was fairly amusing A lot of the time it doesn t bother me I suppose I do think I go out of my way to be a very normal person and I just find it frustrating that people think that I m some kind of weirdo reclusive that never comes out into the world His voice notches up in volume Did you ever feel you would finish your first book Oh yeah he sighs I mean there were so many times I thought I ll have the book finished this year definitely I ll get it out this year Then there were a couple of years where I thought I m never gonna do this I don t know why Time evaporates He walks over and picks up the manuscripts He reads a bit He laughs Did I really agree to this he asks Mark knows the answer A couple of people who read the first book Tour De Europa he says they either really liked it or they found it very uncomfortable I liked the idea of it being uncomfortable I thought that was great I love the ambiguity But I also loved looking back on lost conversations and instantly remembering an emotion A clock somewhere strikes two and a friend arrives with tea pizza avocado with balsamic vinegar and cream cake for afters only to be playfully admonished by Mark who protests I can t eat all this shit It would appear some things never change

Women in Engineering Judith Samsom McIlwee, J. Gregg Robinson, 1992-01-01. Who are the women who became engineers in the 1970s and 1980s? How have they fared in the most male-dominated profession in America? This is the first book to answer these questions. It explores the backgrounds, family lives, work experiences, and attitudes of engineers in order to explain the unequal patterns of career development for women who generally hold lower positions and receive fewer promotions than their male counterparts. McIlwee and Robinson synthesize two theoretical approaches frequently used to explain the status of women in the workforce: gender role and structural theories, providing new insights into improving women's careers in traditionally male occupations.
