Carol E. Kasworm,Amy D. Rose,Jovita M. Ross-Gordon,2010-05-27 Drawing on the contributions of 75 leading authors in the field this 2010 Edition of the respected Handbook of Adult and Continuing Education provides adult education scholars programme administrators and teachers with a solid foundation for understanding the current guiding beliefs practices and tensions faced in the field as well as a basis for developing and refining their own approaches to their work and scholarship Offering expanded discussions in the areas of social justice technology and the global dimensions of adult and continuing education the Handbook continues the tradition of previous volumes with discussions of contemporary theories current forms and contexts of practice and core processes and functions Insightful chapters examine adult and continuing education as it relates to gender and sexuality race our aging society class and place and disability Accessible Tourism Dimitrios Buhalis,Simon Darcy,2011 Inclusion disability an ageing population and tourism are increasingly important areas of study due to their implications for both tourism demand and supply This book therefore sets out to explore and document the current theoretical approaches foundations and issues in the study of accessible tourism In drawing together the contributions to this volume the editors have applied broader social constructionist approaches to understanding the accessible tourism phenomena Accessible tourism as with any area of academic study is an evolving field of academic research and industry practice As with other areas of tourism the field is multidisciplinary and is influenced by various disciplines including geography disability studies economics public policy psychology and marketing As one would expect from two scholars at the height of their academic abilities Dimitrios Buhalis and Simon Darcy have delivered a timely and much needed contribution to the under served area of accessible tourism Harnessing the best conceptual developments on the topic Accessible Tourism is a scholarly yet hugely readable collection and readily communicates the various contributors passion for and command of their subject This collection is a must have text for anyone engaged in the theory practice and policy of accessible tourism and will be essential reading on undergraduate and postgraduate courses across a range of disciplines and fields I cannot speak highly enough of this endeavour and I m sure it will take accessible tourism and universal design debates into the mainstream of academic enquiry and industry practice Professor Nigel Morgan The Welsh Centre for Tourism Research University of Wales Institute Cardiff Wales Evaluating Student Learning Outcomes in

Counselor Education Casey A. Barrio Minton, Donna M. Gibson, Carrie A. Wachter Morris, 2016-04-14 This timely text describes the role of program evaluation in counselor education and provides step by step guidance for faculty seeking to develop comprehensive Student Learning Outcome SLO evaluation plans to meet accountability expectations It serves as a blueprint for demystifying the SLO process and making the switch from an input based measure of productivity that focuses on what counseling programs do to an outcome based approach that concentrates on the quality of learning through evidence based assessment of students knowledge and skills The first and second parts of the book lay the foundation for the SLO process and provide practical guidance for identifying and developing direct and indirect measures of student learning Part III offers strategies for creating measures collecting managing and reporting student data and using data to ensure competence In Part IV counselor educators across the country offer hands on application through a wide variety of SLO activities and rubrics linked to each of the curricular and specialty areas of the 2016 CACREP Standards Requests for digital versions from ACA can be found on www.wiley.com To purchase print copies please visit the ACA website Reproduction requests for material from books published by ACA should be directed to publications.counseling.org

The Economics of Peace J. Frederick Arment, 2014-12-04 From the Arab Spring to the Occupy and Tea Party movements the What now solution to economic disparity and power politics has been largely unarticulated This work details how the Golden Rule ethic and a technology driven global consciousness are causing epic shifts in our economic and governing systems The evolution from nation state capitalism to a collaborative economy with judicial governance is proving that prosperity is compatible with peace With ten case studies of successful Golden Rule organizations and an innovative study of the reciprocal ethic this book provides accessible thought provoking analysis of rapid worldwide change and forecasts a future of freedom purpose and hope

Participatory Practice in Space, Place, and Service Design Kelly L. Anderson, Graham Cairns, 2022-10-18 Participatory Practice in Space Place and Service Design is premised on a belief in the importance of participatory practices in finding creative solutions to the plethora of problems we face today It argues that engaging professions with the public in mutual exploration analysis and creative thinking is essential It not only ensures better quality products places services and a greater sense of civic agency but also facilitates fuller access to them and the life opportunities they can unleash This book offers a uniquely varied perspective of the myriad ways in which participatory practices operate across disciplines and how they impact the worlds and communities we create and inhabit This book suggests that participatory practices are multi disciplinary and relevant in fields as diverse as design architecture education health care sustainability and community activism to name a few of those discussed here How do designed objects and environments affect wellness creativity learning and a sense of belonging How do products and services affect everyday experience and attitudes towards issues such as sustainability How does giving people a creative voice in their own education services and built environments open up their potential and strengthen identity and civic agency Addressing these questions requires a rethinking of relations between people objects and environments it demands attention to space place and services Health Promotion Ruth Cross,Sally Foster,Ivy O'Neil,Simon Rowlands,Louise Warwick-Booth,James Woodall,2020-12-07 Health promotion is a key mechanism in tackling the foremost health challenges faced by developing and developed nations Covering key concepts theory and practical aspects this new edition continues to focus on the themes central to health promotion practice worldwide Social determinants equality and equity policy and health working in partnerships sustainability evaluation and evidence based practice are detailed and the critical application of health promotion to practice is outlined throughout the book Beginning with the foundations of this important area in this new edition the authors then place greater emphasis on the role of power within health and communities Drawing upon international settings and teaching experience in the global North and South it finishes with a summary of the future directions of professional health promotion practice Placing a strong emphasis on a global context this book provides an accessible and engaging resource for postgraduate students of health promotion public health nursing and related subjects health practitioners and NGOs Handbook of Human-Machine Systems Giancarlo Fortino,David Kaber,Andreas Nürnberger,David Mendonça,2023-07-25 Handbook of Human Machine Systems Insightful and cutting edge discussions of recent developments in human machine systems In Handbook of Human Machine Systems a team of distinguished researchers delivers a comprehensive exploration of human machine systems HMS research and development from a variety of illuminating perspectives The book offers a big picture look at state of the art research and technology in the area of HMS Contributing authors cover Brain Machine Interfaces and Systems including assistive technologies like devices used to improve locomotion They also discuss advances in the scientific and engineering foundations of Collaborative Intelligent Systems and Applications Companion technology which combines trans disciplinary research in fields like computer science AI and cognitive science is explored alongside the applications of human cognition in intelligent and artificially intelligent system designs human factors engineering and various aspects of interactive and wearable computers and systems The book also includes A thorough introduction to human machine systems via the use of emblematic use cases as well as discussions of potential future research challenges Comprehensive explorations of hybrid technologies which focus on transversal aspects of human machine systems Practical discussions of human machine cooperation principles and methods for the design and evaluation of a brain computer interface Perfect for academic and technical researchers with an interest in HMS Handbook of Human Machine Systems will also earn a place in the libraries of technical professionals practicing in areas including computer science artificial intelligence cognitive science engineering psychology and neurobiology Health in Antiquity Helen King,2004-08-02 This book looks at issues surrounding health in a variety of ancient Mediterranean societies Introduction to Counseling Michael Scott Nystul,2015-07-09 Introduction to Counseling provides an overview of counseling and the helping professions from the perspective of art and science the science of counseling that generates a knowledge base proven to promote competency and efficacy in the practitioner and the art of using this knowledge base to build skills that can be applied sensitively to clients in a multicultural society The Fifth Edition has been organized into three sections 1 an overview of counseling and the counseling process 2 multicultural counseling and counseling theories and 3 special approaches and settings It continues to address key topics and issues including gender culture and sexual orientation and offers ways to integrate multiculturalism into all aspects of counseling rather than view it as a separate entity Highlighting emerging trends and changes in ethical codes as well as reflecting the latest updates to the Diagnostic Statistical Manual DSM 5 the book successfully illustrates the importance of art and science to modern day counseling

Research With and About Young Families Alice Brown, 2019-01-31 This book explores the distinctive theoretical and methodological features associated with conducting ethical and respectful research with young families along with its unique considerations and challenges With parents and young children understood to be both major players and first educators in supporting childhood health development and learning this book examines how opportunities for research can be conceptualised within this privileged space This volume embraces an interdisciplinary approach to this research examining topics such as researcher identity and positioning issues of consent notions of power and relationships with families methods for collecting data and frameworks for making sense of that data Rather than providing concrete methods of practices and tools this book will help raise the consciousness of researchers who are engaged in research with these young families It is sure to appeal to students and scholars of education and early childhood development as well as those concerned with conducting research ethically and respectfully Health Promotion Evaluation Practices in the Americas Louise

Potvin, David V. McQueen, 2008-10-26 More and more health promotion is a crucial component of public health to the extent that public health interventions are called on to prove their effectiveness and appraised for scientific validity a practice many in the field consider self defeating Health Promotion Evaluation Practices in the Americas cogently demonstrates that scientific rigor and the goals of health promotion are less in conflict than commonly thought synthesizing multiple traditions from countries throughout North Central and South America and across the developed to developing world continuum for a volume that is both diverse in scope and unified in purpose The book s examples representing robust theoretical and practical literatures as well as initiatives from Rio de Janeiro to American Indian communities explain why health promotion evaluation projects require different guidelines from mainstream evaluative work The editors identify core humanitarian principles associated with health promotion participation empowerment equity sustainability intersectoral action multistrategy and contextualism while chapters highlight challenges that must be mastered to keep these principles and scientific objectives in sync including 1 Building health promotion values into evaluation research projects 2 Expanding the use of evaluation in health promotion 3 Developing meaningful evaluation questions 4 Distinguishing between community based participation research and evaluation based participation 5 Evaluating specifically for equity 6 Designing initiatives to foster lasting social change The applied knowledge in Health Promotion Evaluation Practices in the Americas Values and Research can bring the goals of intervention into sharper focus for practitioners evaluators and decision makers and facilitate communication on all sides necessary steps to progress from study findings to real world action
