Derwing, Sinem Sonsaat-Hegelheimer, 2022-03-29 Practical resources designed to help language educators apply the latest research and most effective pedagogical methods to classroom pronunciation instruction In Second Language Pronunciation Bridging the Gap Between Research and Teaching a team of distinguished researchers and educators delivers an incisive and practical approach to evidence based pronunciation instruction in second language classrooms Developed for language teachers who want to incorporate and implement the most effective pedagogical methods in their language instruction this edited volume offers 15 essays that connect the latest research with practical applications in the classroom In addition to exploring recent but less well known methods like High Variability Phonetic Training discourse based teaching communicative classrooms and technology based methods these chapters are unified in bringing theory to bear on practical questions faced by language teachers The chapters follow a standard format moving from critical research issues to pedagogical implications and practical resources to equip language teachers scholars administrators and teachers in training with the tools they require to develop their students pronunciation abilities Readers will also find A thorough introduction to using empirical evidence to guide pronunciation instruction in second language students Comprehensive explorations of the integration of pronunciation instruction into second language education Practical discussions of perception training in pronunciation instruction and the importance of L2 segmental and suprasegmental contrasts in pronunciation learning In depth examinations of classroom research for pronunciation and the use of technology to explore L2 pronunciation Perfect for upper level undergraduate and graduate students studying TESOL applied linguistics and second language acquisition Second Language Pronunciation Bridging the Gap Between Research and Teaching will also earn a place in the libraries of researchers scholars and teachers of language and education The Cambridge Guide to Pedagogy and Practice in Second Language Teaching Jack C. Richards, Anne Burns, 2012-01-31 This collection of original articles provides an overview of key issues and approaches in contemporary language teaching Technological Resources for Second Language Pronunciation Learning and Teaching Shannon McCrocklin, 2022-12-13 Second language L2 pronunciation has become increasingly visible as an important area of L2 teaching and research Despite the growing number of resources available focused on L2 pronunciation technology in L2 pronunciation has received much less attention While technology has been an enduring strand of L2 pronunciation research it has also been somewhat inconspicuous Indeed research has examined a wide variety of technologies such as language learning platforms speech visualization software and Automatic Speech Recognition Despite the abundance of research it can be difficult to gain a full sense of work in this area given the lack of a comprehensive and consolidated resource or reference This book endeavors to fill that gap and make L2 pronunciation technologies more visible by providing teachers and researchers an introduction to research in a wide variety of technologies that can support pronunciation learning While working to introduce practitioners to numerous technologies available it also dives into the research basis for their use providing new studies and data featuring a wide variety of languages and learning contexts

Pronunciation Myths Linda Grant, Donna Brinton, 2014-02-21 This volume was conceived as a best practices resource for pronunciation and speaking teachers in the way that Vocabulary Myths by Keith S Folse is one for reading and vocabulary teachers Like others in the Myths series this book combines research with good pedagogical practices The book opens with a Prologue by Linda Grant author of the Well Said textbook series which reviews the last four decades of pronunciation teaching the differences between accent and intelligibility the rudiments of the English sound system and other factors related to the ways that pronunciation is learned and taught The myths challenged in this book are Once you've been speaking a second language for years it's too late to change your pronunciation Derwing and Munro Pronunciation instruction is not appropriate for beginning level learners Zielinski and Yates Pronunciation teaching has to establish in the minds of language learners a set of distinct consonant and vowel sounds Field Intonation is hard to teach Gilbert Students would make better progress if they just practiced more Grant Accent reduction and pronunciation instruction are the same thing Thomson Teacher training programs provide adequate preparation in how to teach pronunciation Murphy The book concludes with an Epilogue by Donna M Brinton who synthesizes some of the best practices explored in the volume
