Kallis, 2005-12-16 This book analyzes the factors that determined the organization conduct and output of Nazi propaganda during World War II in an attempt to reassess previously inflated perceptions about the influence of Nazi propaganda and the role of the regime's propagandists in the outcome of the 1939-45 military conflict Handbook on Public Diplomacy Sean Aday, 2025-02-12 This Handbook provides a contemporary perspective on public diplomacy scholarship and practice showcasing the growing diversity of the field Expert contributing authors identify the challenges involved in implementing successful public

Staerck, 2002-12-13 Britain and the Cold War 1945-1964 offers new perspectives on ways in which Britain fought the Cold War and illuminates key areas of the policy formulation process. It argues that in many ways Britain and the United States perceived and handled the threat posed by the Communist bloc in similar terms; nevertheless, Britain's continuing global commitments, post-war economic problems and domestic considerations obliged her on occasion to tackle the threat rather differently. British Writers and MI5 Surveillance, 1930-1960 James Smith, 2013 The book explores records that MI5, Britain's domestic intelligence agency, maintained on influential left-wing writers from 1930 to 1960.

The Politics of Retirement in Britain, 1878-1948 John Macnicol, 2002-04-18 A very important and thorough analysis of the debate on retirement and state pensions in Britain. British Tank Production and the War Economy, 1934-1945 Benjamin Coombs, 2013-09-26 British Tank Production and the War Economy 1934-1945 explores the under-researched experiences of the British tank industry in the context of the pressures of war. Benjamin Coombs explores the various demands placed on British industry during the Second World War, looking at the political, military and strategy pressures involved. By comparing the British tank programme with the Canadian, American, Russian and Australian equivalents, this study offers an international perspective on this aspect of the war economy. Topics covered include the premature contraction of the tank programme and dependence on American armour, the supply of the Valentine tank to the Russian authorities and the ongoing employment of the tank in the post-war peacetime markets. Film and Community in Britain and France Margaret Butler, 2004-08-27 Relations between France and Britain have always been uneasy and ambivalent. But in cinema, WWII changed all that for a time. Although the two countries' wartime fortunes differed, post-war both were busy reintegrating returning servicemen and prisoners of war and accommodating the changed aspirations of women. Margaret Butler examines these subjects and more in her comparative study of the cinemas of Britain and France during and after the war. Using the concept of continuity, she shows how cinema dealt directly with ideas of belonging and alienation, inclusion and exclusion, unity and division. She also draws on contemporary debates and offers a perceptive reading of key films to reveal the meaning and appeal of French classics like Les Enfants du Paradis and notable British productions like Waterloo Road.

Elizabeth Wiskemann Geoffrey Field, 2023 The first biography of Elizabeth Wiskemann, historian, journalist, intelligence agent, delving into her lives in the 1920s, Cambridge, Nazi-era Germany and Eastern Europe, and post-war European reconstruction in Italy and West Germany, as a female pioneer in the male-dominated spheres of journalism, government service and academia. Searching for Lord Haw-Haw Colin Holmes, 2016-07-28 Searching for Lord Haw-Haw is an authoritative account of the political lives of William Joyce. He became notorious as a fascist, an anti-Semite, and then as a Second World War traitor when assuming the persona of Lord Haw-Haw; he acted as a radio propagandist for the Nazis. It is an endlessly compelling story of simmering hope, intense frustration, renewed anticipation, and ultimately catastrophic failure.

This fully referenced work is the first attempt to place Joyce at the centre of the turbulent traumatic and influential events through which he lived. It challenges existing biographies which have reflected not only Joyce's frequent calculated deceptions but also the suspect claims advanced by his family, friends and apologists. By exploring his rampant, increasingly influential narcissism, it also offers a pioneering analysis of Joyce's personality and exposes its dangerous, destructive consequences. What a saga my life would make, Joyce wrote from prison just before his execution. Few would disagree with him.

Withstanding Hitler Michael Balfour, 2013-06-20. This is the first book in English to give a comprehensive account of how soldiers, officials, Christians and workers in Germany fought together to frustrate Hitler's aims.

German Resistance Against Hitler Klemens von Klemperer, 1994. Klemens von Klemperer's scholarly and detailed study uncovers the beliefs and activities of numerous individuals who fought against Nazism within Germany and traces their many efforts to forge alliances with Hitler's opponents outside the Third Reich. Klemens von Klemperer's scholarly and detailed study uncovers the beliefs and activities of numerous individuals who fought against Nazism within Germany and traces their many efforts to forge alliances with Hitler's opponents outside the Third Reich. Measured by conventional standards of diplomacy, the foreign ventures of the German Resistance ended in failure. The Allied agencies, notably the British Foreign Office and the US State Department, were ill prepared to deal with the unorthodox approaches of the Widerstand. Ultimately, the Allies' policy of absolute silence, the Grand Alliance with the Soviet Union and the demand for unconditional surrender pushed the war to its final denouement, disregarding the German Resistance.

a massive work by a distinguished historian. New Statesman and Society a detailed, sympathetic and meticulously documented chronicle of German resistance diplomacy. Journal of Military History a superbly researched study. Financial Times

Radio Hitler Nathan Morley, 2021-06-15. The first in-depth look at German home service radio stations during WW2, this is a fascinating insight into how the Nazi war machine sought to shape public opinion at home and abroad. Based on original research and unlimited access of German archives, Radio Hitler is an important new addition to the literature surrounding Nazi Germany.

Humphrey Jennings Keith Beattie, 2013-07-19. Humphrey Jennings has been described as the only real poet that British cinema has produced. His documentary films are remarkable records of Britain at peace and war, and his range of representational approaches transcended accepted notions of wartime propaganda and revised the strict codes of British documentary film of the 1930s and 1940s. Poet, propagandist, surrealist and documentary filmmaker, Jennings' work embodies an outstanding mix of startling apprehension, personal expression and representational innovation. This book carefully examines and expertly explains the central components of Jennings' most significant films and considers the relevance of his filmmaking to British cinema and contemporary experience. Films analysed include Spare Time, Words for Battle, Listen to Britain, Fires Were Started, The Silent Village, A Diary for Timothy and Family Portrait.

Theatre in Europe Under German Occupation Anselm Heinrich, 2017-08-07. The Second World War went beyond previous military conflicts. It was not only about specific geographical gains or economic goals but also about the brutal and lasting reshaping of Europe as a whole Theatre in Europe Under German Occupation explores the part that theatre played in the Nazi war effort Using a case study approach it illustrates the crucial and heavily subsidised role of theatre as a cultural extension of the military machine key to Nazi Germany's total war doctrine Covering theatres in Oslo Riga Lille Lodz Krakau Warsaw Prague The Hague and Kiev Anselm Heinrich looks at the history and context of their operation the wider political cultural and propagandistic implications in view of their function in wartime and their legacies Theatre in Europe Under German Occupation focuses for the first time on Nazi Germany's attempts to control and shape the cultural sector in occupied territories shedding new light on the importance of theatre for the regime's military and political goals

The Creation of History in Ancient Israel Marc Zvi Brettler, 2002-11 Argues that the biblical historians were influenced by typology interpretation of earlier texts satire and ideology shows how with this model we can put together a history of ancient Israel using the Hebrew Bible as a key source

Ministry of Illusion Eric Rentschler, 1996-10-01 Eric Rentschler argues that cinema in the Third Reich emanated from a Ministry of Illusion and not from a Ministry of Fear His analysis of the sophisticated media culture of this period demonstrates in an unprecedented way the potent and destructive powers of fascination and fantasy
