Property Rights Political Development In Ethiopia Eritrea:

Property Rights & Political Development in Ethiopia & Eritrea, 1941-74 Sandra Fullerton Joireman, 2000 Development economists and policy makers often work on the assumption that property rights evolve from collective to more specified systems The author has set out to test this theory by using the evidence available in the special case of Ethiopia and Eritrea Ethiopia was never colonised while Eritrea was under Italian colonial rule Ethiopia's 'Developmental State' Tom Lavers, 2023-10-05 Ethiopia stands out as a leading example of state led development in Africa Tom Lavers offers in this book a comprehensive multi sector analysis of Ethiopia's development project examining how regimes maintain power during the extended periods required to bring about economic transformation Specifically Lavers explores how the Ethiopian Peoples Revolutionary Democratic Front EPRDF 1991 2019 sought to maintain political order through economic transformation and why the party collapsed leading to the outbreak of civil war in 2020 The book argues that the EPRDF sought to secure mass acquiescence through distribution of land and employment However rapid population growth and the limits of industrial policy in the contemporary global economy led to a distributive crisis that was a central factor in the regime's collapse This Ethiopian experience raises important questions about the prospects for economic transformation elsewhere on the continent This title is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core at doi.org/9781009428316 Negotiating Territoriality Allan Charles Dawson, Laura Zanotti, Ismael Vaccaro, 2014-07-11 This edited collection disrupts dominant narratives about space states and borders bringing comparative ethnographic and geographic scholarship in conversation with one another to illuminate the varied ways in which space becomes socialized via political economic and cognitive appropriation Societies must first and foremost do more than wrangle over ownership and land rights they must dwell in space Yet historically the interactions between the state's territorial imperative with previous forms of landscape management have unfolded in a variety of ways including top down imposition resistance and negotiation between local and external actors These interactions have resulted in hybrid forms of territoriality and are often fraught with fundamentally different perceptions of landscape This book foregrounds these experiences and draws attention to situations in which different social constructions of space and territory coincide collide or overlap Each ethnographic case in this volume presents forms of territoriality that are contingent upon contested histories politics landscape the presence or absence of local heterogeneity and the involvement of multiple external actors with differing motivations ultimately all resulting in the potential for conflict or collaboration and divergent implications for conceptions of community autochthony and identity Elgar Encyclopedia of Corruption and Society Luís de Sousa, Susana Corrado, 2024-05-02 Delving into the phenomenology of corruption and its impacts on the governance of societies this cutting edge Encyclopedia considers what makes corruption such a resilient complex and global priority for study This title contains one or more Open Access entries Understanding Ethiopia's Tigray War Martin Plaut, Sarah Vaughan, 2023-02-16 The war in Ethiopia's northern region of Tigray began in November

2020 It inflicted more casualties than any other contemporary conflict in the world It has also been among the least understood The fighting and accompanying blockade led to an estimated 600 000 deaths more than the number who died in the 1984 5 famine International journalists were banned as the region was sealed off from the outside world by Ethiopian and Eritrean governments prosecuting a strategy designed to crush Tigray at almost any cost Hatred of Tigrayans was stoked by senior advisers to Ethiopia s Prime Minister Abiy Ahmed they have called Tigrayans weeds who must be uprooted their place in history extinguished Their language was reminiscent of that which preceded the genocide in Rwanda The war was also orchestrated by Eritrea s President Isaias Afwerki who came to wield increasing influence over Ethiopian affairs It drew in Somali troops as well as Eritrean forces Peace agreements signed in November 2022 ended the worst of the violence but without resolving the war s underlying drivers which continue to feed a tense and uncertain situation This book provides the first clear explanation of the factors that led to the conflict unravelling their roots in Ethiopia s long and complex history It describes the battles that were fought at such terrible cost and the immense suffering particularly of women who were brutally abused

The New Enclosures: Critical Perspectives on Corporate Land Deals Ben White, Saturnino Borrás Jr., Ruth Hall, Ian Scoones, Wendy Welford, 2013-09-13 This collection explores the complex dynamics of corporate land deals from a broad agrarian political economy perspective with a special focus on the implications for property and labour regimes labour processes and structures of accumulation This involves looking at ways in which existing patterns of rural social differentiation in terms of class gender ethnicity and generation are being shaped by changes in land use and property relations as well as by the re organization of production and exchange as rural communities and resources are incorporated into global commodity chains It goes further than the descriptive what and who questions in order to understand the how and why of these patterns It is empirically solid and theoretically sophisticated making it a robust and boundary changing work Contributors come from various scholarly disciplines Covering nearly all regions of the world the collection will be of interest to researchers from various disciplines policymakers and activists This book was originally published as a Special Issue of the Journal of Peasant Studies

Institutions and Democracy in Africa Nic Cheeseman, 2018-02-22 Historically African political institutions such as constitutions legislatures and judiciaries have been seen as weak and vulnerable to manipulation leading some to claim that the continent is institutionless However recent developments including the consolidation of presidential term limits in a number of countries demonstrate that this depiction is no longer tenable By drawing attention to how institutions can shape the practice of politics this book demonstrates that electoral commissions economic regulations and systems of land tenure are vital to our understanding of contemporary Africa A series of cutting edge contributions from leading scholars explain how the rules of the game shape political developments across the continent from Kenya to Nigeria and from Benin to South Africa In chapters that cover bureaucracies constitutions elections political parties the police and more the authors argue that a new research agenda is required if we are to better understand the process of democratisation

Biofuels, Land Grabbing and Food Security in Africa Atakilte Beyene, Prosper B. Matondi, Kjell Havnevik, 2011-06-09

The issue of biofuels has already been much debated but the focus to date has largely been on Latin America and deforestation this highly original work breaks fresh ground in looking at the African perspective Most African governments see biofuels as having the potential to increase agricultural productivity and export incomes and thus strengthen their national economies improving energy balances and rural employment At the same time climate change may be addressed through reduction of green house gas emissions There are however a number of uncertainties mounting that challenge this scenario Using cutting edge empirical case studies this knowledge gap is addressed in a variety of chapters examining the effects of large scale biofuel production on African agriculture In particular land grabbing and food security issues are scrutinised both of which have become vital topics in regard to the environmental and developmental governance of African countries A revealing book for anyone wishing to understand the startling impact of biofuels and land grabbing on Africa

The Struggle for Land and Justice in Kenya Ambreena Manji, 2020 Explores the limits of law in changing unequal land relations in Kenya

Environment and Society in Ethiopia Girma Kebede, 2016-10-04 Ethiopia is facing environmental and poverty challenges and urgently needs effective management of its environmental resources Much of the Ethiopian landscape has been significantly altered and reshaped by centuries of human activities and three quarters of the rural population is living on degraded land Over the past two decades the country has seen rapid economic and population growth and unparalleled land use change This book explores the challenges of sustaining the resource base while fuelling the economy and providing for a growing population that is greatly dependent on natural resources for income and livelihoods Adopting a political ecology perspective this book comprehensively examines human impacts on the environment in Ethiopia defining the environment both in terms of the quantity and quality of renewable and non renewable natural resources With high levels of economic production and consumption also come unintended side effects waste discharges emissions of pollutants and industrial effluents These pollutants can degrade the quality of water air land and forests as well as harm the health of people animals and other living organisms if untreated or disposed of improperly This book demonstrates how the relationship between society and environment is inherently and delicately interwoven providing an account of Ethiopia s current environment and natural resource base and future considerations for environmentally sustainable development

Politics and the Urban Frontier Tom Goodfellow, 2022 This book offers the first full length comparative analysis of urban development trajectories in Eastern Africa and the political dynamics that underpin them It offers a multi scalar historically grounded and interdisciplinary analysis of the urban transformations unfolding in the world s most dynamic crucible of urban change

Land Tenure Challenges in Africa Horman Chitonge, Ross Harvey, 2022-01-01 This book provides a significant contribution to the literature on land reform in various African contexts While the economic evidence is clear that secure property rights are a necessary condition for catalysing broad based economic development the governance process by which those rights are secured is less clear This book details the historical complexity of land rights and the importance of understanding this history in the process of trying to improve tenure security Through a combination of single country case studies comparative case studies and regional comparisons the book is unequivocal that good governance is paramount for improving the performance of land reform programmes All attempts at moving towards more formal secure tenure require congruence with informal norms beliefs and values and a set of clear systems and processes to avoid corruption and unintended negative consequences

Food and Agriculture in Ethiopia Paul Dorosh, Shahidur Rashid, 2013-02-11 The perception of Ethiopia projected in the media is often one of chronic poverty and hunger but this bleak assessment does not accurately reflect most of the country today Ethiopia encompasses a wide variety of agroecologies and peoples Its agriculture sector economy and food security status are equally complex In fact since 2001 the per capita income in certain rural areas has risen by more than 50 percent and crop yields and availability have also increased Higher investments in roads and mobile phone technology have led to improved infrastructure and thereby greater access to markets commodities services and information In Food and Agriculture in Ethiopia Progress and Policy Challenges Paul Dorosh and Shahidur Rashid along with other experts tell the story of Ethiopia's political economic and agricultural transformation The book is designed to provide empirical evidence to shed light on the complexities of agricultural and food policy in today's Ethiopia highlight major policies and interventions of the past decade and provide insights into building resilience to natural disasters and food crises It examines the key issues constraints and opportunities that are likely to shape a food secure future in Ethiopia focusing on land quality crop production adoption of high quality seed and fertilizer and household income Students researchers policy analysts and decisionmakers will find this book a useful overview of Ethiopia's political economic and agricultural transformation as well as a resource for major food policy issues in Ethiopia Contributors Dawit Alemu Guush Berhane Jordan Chamberlin Sarah Coll Black Paul Dorosh Berhanu Gebremedhin Sinafikeh Asrat Gemessa Daniel O Gilligan John Graham Kibrom Tafere Hirrfot John Hoddinott Adam Kennedy Neha Kumar Mehrab Malek Linden McBride Dawit Kelemework Mekonnen Asfaw Negassa Shahidur Rashid Emily Schmidt David Spielman Alemayehu Seyoum Taffesse Seneshaw Tamiru James Thurlow William Wiseman

Historical Dictionary of Ethiopia David H. Shinn, Thomas P. Ofcansky, 2013-04-11 Ethiopia is clearly one of the most important countries in Africa First of all with about 75 million people it is the third most populous country in Africa Second it is very strategically located in the Horn of Africa and bordering Eritrea Sudan Kenya and Somalia with some of whom it has touchy and sometimes worse relations Yet its capital Addis Ababa is the headquarters of the African Union the prime meeting place for Africa's leaders So if things went poorly in Ethiopia this would not be good for Africa and for a long time this was the case with internal disruption rife until it was literally suppressed under the strong rule of the recently deceased Meles Zenawi The Historical Dictionary of Ethiopia Second Edition covers the history of Ethiopia through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has several hundred cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Ethiopia

Where There is No Government Sandra F. Joireman, 2011-07-15 It is safe to say that a sizeable majority of the world's population would agree with the proposition that that property rights are important for political and social stability as well as economic growth But what happens when the state fails to enforce such rights Throughout sub Saharan Africa this is in fact an endemic problem In Where There is No Government Sandra Joireman explains how weak state enforcement regimes have allowed private institutions in sub Saharan Africa to define and enforce property rights After delineating the types of actors who step in when the state is absent traditional tribal leaders entrepreneurial bureaucrats NGOs and violent groups she argues that the institutions they develop can be helpful or predatory depending on their incentives and context Because such institutions are neither inherently good nor inherently bad Joireman develops a set of measurement criteria to assess which types of property regimes and enforcement mechanisms are helpful and which are harmful to social welfare By focusing on the varieties of property rights enforcement in Ghana Kenya and Uganda Joireman moves beyond simply evaluating the effectiveness of official property rights laws Provocatively she also challenges the premise that changes in property law will lead to changes in property rights on the ground Indeed states that change their property laws face challenges in implementation when they do not control the authority structures in local communities Utilizing original research on the competitors to state power in Sub Saharan Africa and the challenges of providing secure and defensible property rights Where There is No Government is a sharp analysis of one of the most daunting challenges facing the African subcontinent today

The Crisis of Democratization in the Greater Horn of Africa Kidane Mengisteab, 2020 Analyses the structural and institutional obstacles to democratization in transitional societies fractured societies fragmented economies and institutions of governance weak or deformed state structures and how to overcome these

Kenya's and Zambia's Relations with China 1949-2019 Jodie Yuzhou Sun, 2023 Examines the history of post colonial Kenya s and Zambia s relations with the People s Republic of China from ideological political economic and social perspectives Africa has become a major platform from which to analyse and understand China s growing influence in the global South Yet the impact of their historical relationship has been largely overlooked Through the triangulation of the global Cold War African history and Chinese history this study provides a detailed analysis of China Africa relations in the second half of the 20th century Examining the encounters conflicts and dynamics of China Kenya Zambia relations from the 1950s until the present as well as the basis on which historical narratives have been constructed the book presents two contrasting state perspectives underlining the concept of African agency Driven by a class based analysis of world revolution Communist China s foreign policy did not distinguish significantly between Kenya and Zambia Both countries sought ideological and material support from China in the years after their independence The Kenya African National Union under both Jomo Kenyatta and Daniel Moi pursued a consistently pragmatic foreign agenda and despite political tensions and ideological rifts with China since the mid 1960s Sino Kenyan trade has continued to grow steadily In contrast China Zambia relations under Kenneth Kaunda were cordial despite their political differences Zambian leaders maintained a relatively high consensus that any alleged Chinese Communist threat would not be allowed to fuel power struggles within their United National Independence Party Challenging both the widely accepted role of China Africa s historical lineage as well as the tendency to assume uniformity in China s relationships across the continent the author explains the development of these relationships and sheds light on the historical underpinnings or lack thereof on contemporary China Africa relations
