Prophecy And Mysticism The Heart Of The Postmodern Church:

Prophecy and Mysticism Mary Grey, 1997-01-01 This study illustrates how the isolated prophet or mystic is no longer relevant and that it is only through the formation of prophetic communities of faith that our modern sense of fragmentation can be addressed

The Mystic Way in Postmodernity Sue Yore, 2009 This book challenges experiential esoteric and colloquial understandings of mysticism by bringing a fresh relevance to the term through an interdisciplinary dialogue between literature mysticism and theology in the context of postmodernity In order to achieve this the author takes selected writings of Iris Murdoch Denise Levertov and Annie Dillard and incorporates them into various stages of a redesigned mystic way The fourteenth century mystic Julian of Norwich is invoked throughout as a role model whom these three writers seek to emulate as popular writers contemplatives and theologians As theologians who are concerned with the pressing issues of our age Grace Jantzen Dorothee Soelle and Sallie McFague are drawn on as conversation partners to complete the three way discussion The author maintains that understanding the writing and reading of creative texts in the context of practical mysticism facilitates an integrated approach to the use of literature for theological expression

Mysticism in Postmodernist Long Poems Joe Moffett, 2014-10-28 Written from a literary critic's perspective Mysticism in Postmodernist Long Poems borrows insights from Religious Studies and critical theory to examine the role of spirituality in contemporary poetry specifically the genre of the long poem Descending from Whitman's Song of Myself the long poem is often considered the American twentieth century equivalent of the epic poem but unlike the epic it carries few generic expectations aside from the fact that it simply must be long This makes the form particularly pliable as a tool for spiritual inquiry The period following World War II is often described as a secular age but spirituality continued as a concern for poets as evidenced by this study These writers look beyond conventional faith systems and instead seek individual paths of understanding they engage in mysticism in other words With chapters on H D and Brenda Hillman Robert Duncan James Merrill Charles Wright and Galway Kinnell and Gary Snyder this study demonstrates how these poets engage the culture of consumption in the postwar years at the same time they search for opportunities for transcendence Not content to throw over the earthly in favor of the otherworldly these poets reject the familiar binary of the worldly and metaphysical to produce distinctive paths of spiritual understanding that fuel what Wright calls a contemplation of the divine

Public Theology for the 21st Century Duncan B. Forrester, William Storrar, Andrew Morton, 2004-01-01 The book is a unique stocktaking by a leading international group of theologians social scientists and other scholars on issues facing public theology at the beginning of the 21st century It combines retrospect and prospect in that it reflects on the issues and approaches that have characterized public theology in the 20th century especially its latter half and attempts to anticipate those which will or should come to the fore in the 21st century seeking to discern continuities and changes Three opening chapters deal with the overall theme of public or political theology with Jurgen Moltmann giving a critical historical account from the Second World War onwards Raymond Plant relating such theology to cultural pluralism and Andrew Morton illustrating it from the work of Duncan Forrester These are followed by pairs of contributions relating public theology to more specific topicsr History Technology and Creation Globalization Spirituality Punishment and Forgiveness Medical Ethics Tolerance and Human Rights Social Exclusion and Equality The Cambridge Companion to Postmodern Theology Kevin J. Vanhoozer,2003-07-31 Postmodernity allows for no absolutes and no essence Yet theology is concerned with the absolute the essential How then does theology sit within postmodernity Is postmodern theology possible or is such a concept a contradiction in terms Should theology bother about postmodernism or just get on with its own thing Can it Theologians have responded in many different ways to the challenges posed by theories of postmodernity In this introductory 2003 guide to a complex area editor Kevin J Vanhoozer addresses the issue head on in a lively survey of what talk about God might mean in a postmodern age and vice versa The book then offers examples of different types of contemporary theology in relation to postmodernity while the second part examines the key Christian doctrines in postmodern perspective Leading theologians contribute to this clear and informative Companion which no student of theology should be without Heart on Fire Annika Spalde,2010-03-10 An exploration of mysticism as a practical path in the world that we all can choose Journal of Theology for Southern Africa ,1999 Jane Leade Julie Hirst,2017-09-08 Jane Leade 1624 1704 is probably the most prolific woman writer and most important female religious leader in late seventeenth century England yet she still remains relatively unknown By exploring her life and works as a prophetess and mystic this books opens a fascinating window into the world of a remarkable woman living in a remarkable age Born in Norfolk into a gentry family Jane Leade enjoyed a comfortable childhood married a distant cousin who was a merchant and had four children However she found herself totally destitute in London when he died his fortune having been lost abroad As a widow she proclaimed herself to be a Bride of Christ and eventually became a prolific author and a respected blind elderly leader of a religious group of well educated men and women known as the Philadelphian Society The structure of this book is informed by the chronological events that happened during her life and is complemented by examining some of the material she published including her visions of the Virgin Wisdom or Sophia She started writing in 1670 but published prolifically in the 1680s and 1690s and this material offers a fascinating glimpse into the mind of an extraordinary woman Believing herself to be living in the End Times she expected Sophia would return with the second coming of Christ The Philadelphian Society grew under her charge until they were buffeted by mobs in London Jane Leade died in her eighty first year and is buried in the non conformist cemetery Bunhill Fields in London By contextualising her and drawing out the nature of her devotions this new book draws attention to her as a figure in her own right Previous studies have tended to reduce her to one example within a certain tradition but as this work clearly demonstrates she was in fact a much more complicated character who did not conform to any one particular tradition The Unknown God Thomas G. Grenham,2005 This book explores the idea of religious and theological interculturalisation from a Christian perspective as an approach to evangelisation It explores aspects of culture and pluralism as these have been interpreted in post Vatican II approaches to mission and evaluates interculturalisation from a number of perspectives including language symbol and metaphor It draws insight from two New Testament encounters of Jesus with women in Samaria John and in Tyre Matthew and Mark and goes on to explore some historical sources of interculturalisation in the missionary endeavours of the Jesuit Matteo Ricci A particular case study is made of the contemporary experience of an African people the Turkana of Kenya

Tillich and the Abyss Sigridur Gudmarsdottir, 2016-09-07 This book examines Paul Tillich's theological concept of the abyss by locating it within the context of current postmodern antifoundalist discussions and debates surrounding feminism gender and language Sigridur Gudmarsdottir develops these tropes into a constructive theology arguing that Tillich's idea of the abyss can serve as a necessary means of deconstructing the binaries between the theoretical and the practical in producing nihilistic relativism and the safe foundations of knowledge divine as well as human How does one search for a map and method through an abyss In his writings Tillich expressed the ambiguity and groundlessness of being the depth structure of the human condition and the reality of God as an abyss The more we gaze into this abyss the more we encounter the faults in our various foundations This book outlines how Tillich's concept of the abyss creates greater opportunities for complexity and liminality and opens up a space where life and death destruction and construction fecundity and horror womb and tomb can coincide

Introducing Feminist Ecclesiology Natalie K. Watson, 2008-12-01 Introducing Feminist Ecclesiology explores women's experiences of being church and reclaiming the church in order to rebuild it as a meaningful open sacramental space where everybody's presence is celebrated Natalie Watson proposes a creative and constructive dialog with existing theological approaches to the church from different Christian traditions as well as more recent feminist theologians and suggests the development of criteria that hear women's experiences of being church and reclaiming church into speech The church is the embodied reality of all women children and men whose stories tell the story of the Triune God

Melodies of a New Monasticism Craig Gardiner, 2018-03-09 The New Monastic Movement is a vibrant source of renewal for the church's life and mission Many involved in this movement have quoted Dietrich Bonhoeffer's conviction that the church must recover ancient spiritual disciplines if it is to effectively engage the powers that be Melodies of a New Monasticism adopts a musical metaphor of polyphony the combination of two or more lines of music to articulate the way that these early Christian virtues can be woven together in community Creatively using this imagery this book draws on the theological vision of Bonhoeffer and the contemporary witness of George MacLeod and the Iona Community to explore the interplay between discipleship doctrine and ethics A recurring theme is the idea of Christ as the cantus firmus the fixed song around which people perform the diverse harmonies of God in church and world including worship ecumenism healing peace justice and ecology

Embracing Sexuality Joseph Selling, 2020-07-24 This title was first published in 2001 This text examines sexuality and interpersonal relationships in relation to the Catholic Church Topics discussed include spirituality sexuality bodiliness and sacramentality the female experience of sexuality authority and the development of Catholic tradition and sexual morality

The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter Geiser, 2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story

Women, Feminism and Religion in Early Enlightenment England Sarah Louise Trethewey Apetrei, 2010-04-22 A pioneering study of the origins of feminist thought in late seventeenth century England

Spiritual Education in a Divided World Cathy Ota, Mark Chater, 2007-03-15 In the era of globalization debate has turned to the vital need for a thorough understanding of its impact on the spirituality and health of the youth of today Spiritual Education in a Divided World recognises the urgent need for effective research in this area This exceptional volume takes an interdisciplinary approach to tackle the key question

The Goodness of Home Natalia Marandiuc, 2018 In this wide ranging contribution to Christian theological anthropology Natalia Marandiuc offers a constructive theological argument for the function of love attachments as sources of subjectivity and enablers of human freedom Human loves and the love of God are portrayed here as co creating the self and situating human subjectivity in a relational home

Preaching Parables to Postmoderns Brian Stiller, 2005-01-01 Preachers in their call to preach the Scriptures are not only charged with the responsibility of speaking its truth but of speaking in such a way that people of this age and culture understand To do this the preacher builds a bridge between today's people and the gospel of both testaments For some this task is more difficult than for others Preaching to those living in an inner city housing project is far removed from an outpost mission in the two thirds world Each community has its own way of thinking and attaches different values to symbols of its own making For those called preach to a generation raised on MTV and late night comedians or those rooted in various economic cultures from government sponsored jobs overseen by union bosses to entrepreneurial dot com companies or generations stretching from high school students to freedom fifty fivers the task is enormous When one adds to that the complexity of a radical shift in underlying intellectual and cultural assumptions the task of preaching becomes even more complicated

Becoming Apostolic Catherine Sexton, 2024-07-01 This book explores the experience and understanding of Roman Catholic sisters of their vocation to the apostolic form of religious life as they age Based on interviews with twelve religious women it draws on the practice of Lectio Divina to explore how these women describe their call to service and activity at a time in life when these might be curtailed by physical diminishment and increasingly reduced social interaction and influence As the very institutions of religious life are themselves under threat the book identifies new emerging forms of ministry through presence to each other and to their carers

Reading Is Believing David S. Cunningham, 2002-11-01 In this fascinating and fresh look at the Apostles Creed David Cunningham argues that reading fiction and film can lead Christians to a deeper more precise and more experiential knowledge of their faith Drawing on novels plays and films by the likes of Dickens Shakespeare P D James and Graham Greene Cunningham discusses the Apostles Creed in detail using one primary text to illuminate each article Cunningham begins with a brief history of the Christian creeds and their significance In addition to plot summaries each chapter includes discussion questions addressing the relationship between literature and faith and concludes with a works cited list and a list for further reading This book will delight Christians who want to better understand the creeds and basic doctrinal confessions of the Christian faith While academics theologians and literature and film aficionados will celebrate Cunningham's keen literary and theological insights the book is equally readable for those with little background in these fields of study Reading Is Believing is an ideal text for Christian education classes adult Sunday school and church based book clubs It will serve well as a text in theology courses as well as various courses in the humanities ethics and cultural and religious studies
