Prophecy And The Seventies:

The End of the World Mark Meek, 2001-06-24 There has been a vast amount of literature and books written over the past few decades about how the prophecies in the Bible about the last days of the world are taking shape in our times Today the majority of Fundamentalist Christians accept that we are living in what the Bible calls the Last Days However most of the recent literature and discussion about the subject has been rehashing the same facts as have been known for many years The purpose of this book is not only to leave no doubt that we are indeed in the Last Days but to bring the entire scenario into the new millennium

Symposium on Evangelism (JCR Vol. 07 No. 02) R. J. Rushdoony, Kenneth Gentry Jr., Herbert Bowsher, Lewis Bulkeley, Donovan Courville, Jefferson Duckett, P. Richard Flinn, James Jordan, Francis Mahaffy, Tommy W. Rogers, What s wrong with Reformed evangelism Something certainly appears to be wrong When we look at the growth of Arminian Baptist churches and compare this growth with the various Reformed Baptist and Presbyterian denominations the numbers are very discouraging When J Gresham Machen left the old Presbyterian Church of the USA he believed that his newly formed Presbyterian Church of America would grow rapidly as a result of its commitment to biblical inerrancy and the fundamentals of the faith Instead it suffered a split the next year June 1937 and the two new denominations the Bible Presbyterians and Orthodox Presbyterians have not grown much in membership since 1937 Much the same has been true of the various Dutch based Reformed denominations They grow only if the birth rate increases and the death rate decreases within the respective groups As I noted at age 21 the Dutch churches seem to have substituted procreation for a Board of Home Missions I wasn t tactful in my youth the way I am today So what s the problem As you might expect there is more than one problem There is a whole pile of problems such as 1 not systematic evangelism programs 2 imitation Arminian evangelism programs 3 ineffective evangelism programs 4 a message geared to confrontation not conquest 5 the humanism of our era 6 lack of capital 7 lack of confidence 8 lack of past successes to serve as precedents 9 seminaries that don t emphasize evangelism 10 too much concern for the rigors of theological speculation and not enough for the demands of applied theology 11 an inability to recognize and emphasize the strong points of the Reformed heritage relevance concrete answers for social problems scholarship organization 12 fatalism regarding stagnation and defeat 13 ignorance of the warfare between Christianity and humanism 14 compromised apologetic methodology rationalism 15 a

constricted view of the Kingdom of God 16 incompetence in the area of communication 17 a failure to tithe One of the criticisms that has been aimed at the Christian reconstructionist movement is that it has not been concerned with evangelism An odd charge coming from pastors who have never demonstrated that they have had any grasp of evangelism techniques given their tiny churches and invisibility in their communities The Christian reconstruction movement is less than a decade old It has little capital Yet despite its youth and its lack of capital it has been influential enough to become a force in American thought and culture When Newsweek identified the source of the religious right's ideas it listed Chalcedon and only Chalcedon Feb 2 1981 p 60 But this is not evangelism in the eyes of the critics This doesn't count So what does count Not sheer numbers certainly the critics cannot point to their own success using this criterion What is the nature of legitimate evangelism The latest issue of The Journal of Christian Reconstruction addresses itself to this important question But more than this it offers specific affordable suggestions to struggling congregations about how they can grow become more influential and count for something within their communities We need both a theory of evangelism and a practical program for evangelism The Symposium on Evangelism offers both There has been an enormous waste in virtually all popular programs of evangelism They have not been cost effective They have not targeted their audiences properly They have not been geared to repeated contacts They have not been structured in terms of long range objectives objectives stretching out two or more generations The evangelism programs popular if that word can even be used in Reformed circles have generally been warmed over versions of Arminian evangelism These techniques have not worked for Reformed churches yet the pastors have not been willing to scrap them and rethink the whole question Is there a distinctively Reformed evangelism Are its techniques fundamentally different from those employed by Arminian churches Is there a distinctively Christian reconstructionist evangelism a type of evangelism unavailable to the majority of Arminian denominations and congregations The answer to all three questions is the same Yes The Journal provides the evidence Far from being unconcerned with evangelism the Chalcedon movement is vitally concerned with evangelism It is a small movement at present and it needs capital How can it expect to become a world wide force for social change if it neglects evangelism How can its perspective spread to the decision makers of this age except by evangelism Everyone needs evangelism the Arminians the introspective Reformed groups the traditional conservatives the Roman Catholics the universities the heathen seats of power the media the Iron Curtain nations and all points in between But the average pastor faces more immediate problems He has to build up his struggling congregation He needs to take the first steps That's why we have devoted an issue of the Journal to evangelism What distinguishes the Chalcedon movement's view of evangelism from the rival varieties that are common today is the scope of evangelism We are convinced that no evangelism program can hope to succeed unless it is driven by a vision of universal conquest The three strongest political forces in the world today are Marxism militant Islam and modern science All three are predestinarian All three are officially optimistic All three believe that they possess the key which will unlock the door of history All three believe that they have access to the true law structure which will give them power over the world All three see themselves as agents of historical and social change All three see the whole world as their proper and required domain Until Christians can match them doctrine for doctrine vision for vision we will sit on the sidelines of history cheering for no one in particular Waiting for the game to end so that we can go home That s what most Christians are doing now This produces an ineffective evangelism It produces a socially irrelevant witness It produces the kind of witness the Roman emperors would have preferred to see the early church proclaim The emperors of our day can live with this sort of witness too It is time to change both our strategy and our tactics Gary North The Seventies Bruce J. Schulman,2001-08-07 Most of us think of the 1970s as an in between decade the uninspiring years that happened to fall between the excitement of the 1960s and the Reagan Revolution A kitschy period summed up as the Me Decade it was the time of Watergate and the end of Vietnam of malaise and gas lines but of nothing revolutionary nothing with long lasting significance In the first full history of the period Bruce Schulman a rising young cultural and political historian sweeps away misconception after misconception about the 1970s In a fast paced wide ranging and brilliant reexamination of the decade s politics culture and social and religious upheaval he argues that the Seventies were one of the most important of the postwar twentieth century decades The Seventies witnessed a profound shift in the balance of power in American politics economics and culture all driven by the vast growth of the Sunbelt Country music a southern silent majority a boom in enthusiastic religion and southern California New Age movements were just a few of the products of the new demographics Others were even more profound among them public life as we knew it died a swift death The Seventies offers a masterly reconstruction of high and low culture of public events and private lives of Jonathan Livingston Seagull Evel Knievel est Nixon Carter and Reagan From The Godfather and Network to the Ramones and Jimmy Buffett from Billie Jean King and Bobby Riggs to Phyllis Schlafly and NOW from Proposition 13 to the Energy Crisis here are all the names faces and movements that once filled our airwaves and now live again The Seventies is powerfully argued compulsively readable and deeply provocative *Catalog of Copyright Entries. Walvoord,Mark Hitchcock,2007-09-28 Updating the work of renowned biblical scholar John F Walvoord who famously predicted current world events Armageddon Oil and Terror offers shocking predictions on the future of terrorism oil based economics and nuclear war in the Middle East In all Armageddon Oil and Terror sheds light on 12 events related to end time prophecies that seem eerily close to coming true Includes materials from lectures and discussions after 9 11 and incorporates vital updated material from other Walvoord classics It is as current as today s news and every prediction rings true Great Britain and the East ... ,1917 Fearful Hope Christopher Kleinhenz,Fannie LeMoine,1999 From disaster movies to cult movements apocalyptic images surround us as we mark the end of the current millennium Fearful Hope Approaching the New Millennium provides a wide range of essays probing the meaning and significance of millennial expectations and apocalyptic
