Prophet And Teacher An Introduction To The Historical Jesus:

Prophet and Teacher William R. Herzog, 2005 Offering a unique introduction to the historical person Jesus of Nazareth respected New Testament scholar William Herzog traces the history of discussion and scholarship of the historical Jesus including that of the recent and very public Jesus Seminar He does so however with an eye toward the theological No other introduction is tied so closely to the biblical texts By exploring in depth Jesus words the parables and Jesus deeds miracles Herzog presents a holistic picture of Jesus that will explain how Jesus followers would have understood his miracles and his role as prophet With its accessibility and clear connections to what the gospels are saying Prophet and Teacher will appeal to general readers with little theological background and be a popular primary text in undergraduate and seminary classes

Publisher The Consciousness of the Historical Jesus Austin Stevenson, 2024-02-22 In this book Austin Stevenson argues that it is not the divinity of Jesus that causes problems for historians but his humanity To insist that Jesus was fully human as both theologians and historians do still leaves us with the question of what it means to be human It turns out that theologians and historians often have different answers to this question on both a philosophical and a theological register Furthermore historians frequently misunderstand the historiographical implications of classical Christology and thus the compatibility between traditional beliefs about Jesus and critical historical inquiry Through close engagement with the thought of Thomas Aquinas c 1225-74 this book offers a new path toward the reconciliation of these disciplines by focusing on human knowledge and subjectivity which are central issues in both historical method and Christology By interrogating and challenging the normative metaphysical assumptions operative in Jesus scholarship a range of possibility is opened up for approaches to Jesus that are genuinely historical but not naturalistic

Inventing Christic Jesuses, Volume 1 Charles A. Wilson, 2017-11-09 Inventing Christic Jesuses is the first comprehensive proposal for how revisionist theology can deploy historical Jesus research in a methodologically sophisticated way Rejecting positions that insulate theology from Jesus research the proposal sets out warrants and rules for a quested Christology in dialogue with an analysis of the conduct of historians of Jesus from the period of the Third Quest c 1980-2010 The volume Method analyzes for theology the methods and values of historical research on Jesus It argues that the methodic construction of historical images of Jesus in conversation with sources is simultaneously a retrojective activity of value production First in defining the terms of the inquiry Wilson locates a middle ground between hostility to questing and a too ready application of historical results to Christology He then identifies rules and warrants for the deployment of Jesus research in theology and reconstructs the notion of the retrojection of value in the production of a historical Jesus The volume ends with a case study of retrojective Jesus production an analysis and assessment of the new notion that Jesus is a sage in the tradition of wisdom

Jesus the Storyteller Stephen I. Wright, 2015-11-17 While it is widely acknowledged that Jesus told stories there has not been much focus on why he did so and how these stories contributed to his ministry Stephen Wright approaches this topic afresh to analyze how considering the parables as stories can help our understanding of Jesus and his mission Wright begins by looking for insights in scholarship from recent decades on the parables and the historical Jesus He goes on to imagine how these stories would have resonated with hearers in each of the Synoptic Gospels and considers the dynamics between Jesus and his hearers in different locations like Galilee and Jerusalem Finally Wright considers the purpose of these parables as an element of Jesus ministry and looks at Jesus himself as a storyteller This book will provide a solid basis for understanding why Jesus spoke in parables and how this distinctive style of speech functioned in his ministry The Empathic God Frank Woggon, 2024-05-07

What if Jesus did not come to die for our sins What if instead Jesus's life and death was intended to provide a way out of our shame While traditional Christian teachings about the atonement emphasize sin as guilt and transgression against God's will and commandments Frank Woggon points out that clinical spiritual care reveals that the human condition is predominantly marked by shame rather than guilt In The Empathic God Woggon examines myopic readings of the Jesus event that in turn have embedded distortions into traditional paradigms of the atonement In contrast Woggon mines narratives of the human condition to engage in a critical examination of the Jesus story As a clinician and ordained Baptist minister Woggon presents the Jesus event as God's empathic initiative toward humanity and convincingly argues that salvation comes through empathy rather than forgiveness Woggon's work constructs a clinical theology of atonement from the perspective of clinical spiritual care The Empathic God calls for a practical response of caring participation in God's ongoing work of salvation through an empathic praxis of spiritual care Most importantly The Empathic God takes seriously that lived human experience is the starting point for theological exploration rather than doctrine This book will help practitioners and students of spiritual care in the Christian tradition to reflect more critically on the intersection of spiritual care practice and theology The book also will challenge pastors ministers of pastoral care chaplains pastoral counselors spiritually oriented therapists to interrogate and re-interpret traumatic shame-filled Christian teachings about the atonement so that they too can join in God's ongoing and liberating work of salvation Fortress Commentary on the Bible Margaret Aymer, Cynthia Briggs Kittredge, David A. Sánchez, 2014-10-01

The Fortress Commentary on the New Testament presents a balanced synthesis of current scholarship The contributors bring a rich diversity of perspectives to the task of connecting solid historical critical analysis of Scripture with sensitivity to theological cultural and interpretive issues arising in our encounter with the text The volume includes introductory articles section introductions and individual book articles that explore key sense units through three lenses The Text in Its Ancient Context The Text in the Interpretive Tradition The Text in Contemporary Discussion Comprehensive and useful for preaching teaching and research Mark and Empire Laurel Cobb, 2014-04-10

The journey to Galilee where Mark's Jesus said he would meet us lies open on roads across the globe Laurel Cobb's career of social work and advocacy on behalf of the disadvantaged in emerging countries around the globe inform this powerful book on the Gospel of Mark Cobb combines academic insights into scripture with personal experiences of social inequities and a strongly articulated argument for resistance against Empire then and now as a crucial component of any life of Christian discipleship Using her personal experiences of faith economic struggle in the face of a globalized consumer culture dictated from the United States and gender inequality Cobb asks the reader to view one's own responsibilities to a world in need of resistance against imperial power in all its forms through the lens of Mark's Gospel such resistance is needed today as much as when Jesus stood against Empire twenty centuries ago

Israel's Last Prophet David L. Turner, 2015-08-01 Jesus' words of indictment and judgment in the Gospel according to Matthew have fueled centuries of Christian anti-Judaism But what did those words originally mean within Matthew's narrative David L. Turner examines how Matthew has taken up Deuteronomic themes of prophetic rejection and judgment and woven them throughout the Gospel culminating in Matthew 23:32 Matthew was engaged in a heated intramural dispute with other Jewish groups Turner argues The legacy of Christian anti-Jewish violence reflects a gross misunderstanding of Matthew by generations who have failed to recognize the author's worldview and allusions

Towards the Prophetic Church John M. Hull, 2014-09-30 Thirty years ago John Hull wrote What Prevents Christian Adults from Learning This new book asks What Prevents Christian Adults from Acting How has it come about that the Church appears to be so preoccupied with itself What happened to the quest for the social justice of the Kingdom of God John Hull s search for understanding took him back to the prophetic tradition of the Bible and he discovered that this has become neglected and even betrayed Christian discipleship must be more than church going and prayer Christians must resist the unjust structures of society in the prophetic tradition Theological reflection is not enough Hearing Beyond the Words Emma J. Justes,2010-09-01 Only when pastors hear beyond the words can they care fully minister Pastors listen all the time Or do they Listening is more than a developed skill it is an awesome gift of hospitality offered to others According to Dr Emma Justes hearing beyond the words signifies an intimate relationship characterized by humility thoughtful availability vulnerability and mutuality Listening requires focused attention and openness To help the reader learn this essential skill the author includes exercises at the end of each chapter to build needed competency for this healing ministry Jesus and the Gospels, Third Edition Craig L.
