the United States Arthur J. McDonald, 2019-10-29 In the summer of 1966 one year after the conclusion of the Second Vatican Council a group of nineteen Roman Catholic priests met clandestinely in a church hall in a suburb of Pittsburgh to discuss forming an independent group of ordained clergy Fearful that meeting publicly might be viewed as a threat to the authority of the local bishop thus potentially risking sanctioning from him they used numbers not names when circulating the minutes of the first two meetings Once the word spread among the local clergy that such a group was meeting and they realized there was widespread interest they went public and invited all of Pittsburgh s Catholic clergy including the bishop to their third meeting They chose a name the Association of Pittsburgh Priests APP and the group was launched Shortly after forming and with interest from among over two hundred clergy APP began advocating for major church renewal and involvement in any number of social justice issues Regarding church renewal they grounded themselves in the documents of

Vatican II most especially Gaudium et Spes Church in the Modern World and soon lobbied for optional celibacy and married priesthood women's ordination lay empowerment including the promotion of the early church notion of the priesthood and prophethood of all believers To this day APP remains a force for change in the church and in society ever true to its initial intuition to fully implement the renewal of church and society called for by the bishops at Vatican II

Woman as Prophet in the Home and the World R. Mary Hayden Lemmons,2016-09-15 This first ever interdisciplinary study of woman as prophet shows that in these troubling times ordinary women especially Christian women need to function as prophets by proclaiming in word and deed the indispensability of lovingly seeking the welfare of others More specifically social science shows that the person centered love prophesied by women prophets is able to meet interpersonal challenges within the home and world while philosophy and theology establish that women are able to excel as prophets due to the virtuous dispositions inculcated by femininity the choice to be caring a God centered spirituality and a pro life humanitarian personalist feminism that welcomes male collaborators Facilitating the ability of Christian women to prophesy love are Baptismal graces Thomistic virtues and a much needed prophetic Marian ecclesiology based on what John Paul II calls the prophetism of femininity These interdisciplinary findings provide an essential resource for educators and students of humanity the theology of women and evangelization These findings emerge first from an investigation into the cognitive and ontological underpinnings of what John Paul II called the feminine genius A second set of findings emerges from exploring the prophetic dimensions of the feminine genius secular feminism s need to adopt the insights of Christianity and the ability of femininity s prophetism to recast both femininity and feminism as Marian prophecies A third set of findings arises from analyzing the spirituality of women prophets within the Christian tradition by considering the conditions necessary for prophesying explicating requisite Thomistic virtues and delving into the spirituality of Hildegard Catherine of Siena Julian of Norwich and Teresa of Avila A fourth set of findings arises from innovative studies of polarization secularization lust romantic love the conditions whereby mothers with careers can flourish and the ability of nuns to combat racism in a small Midwestern town Overall these interdisciplinary investigations explicate the theology of women and show that women who prophesy love either in the order of grace or nature can help heal lives families and culture

Prophetic Activism Helene Slessarev-Jamir, 2011-06-13 While the links between conservative Christians and politics have been drawn strongly in recent years coming to embody what many think of as religious activism the profoundly religious nature of community organizing and other more left leaning justice work has been largely overlooked Prophetic Activism is the first broad comparative examination of progressive religious activism in the United States Set up as a counter narrative to religious conservatism the book offers readers a deeper understanding of the richness and diversity of contemporary religious activism Helene Slessarev Jamir offers five case studies of major progressive religious justice movements that have their roots in liberative interpretations of Scripture congregational community organizing worker justice immigrant rights work peace making and reconciliation and global anti poverty and debt relief Drawing on intensive interviews with activists at all levels of this work from pastors and congregational leaders to local organizers and the executive directors of the national networks she uncovers the ways in which they construct an ethical framework for their work In addition to looking at predominantly Christian organizations the book also highlights the growth of progressive activism among Jews Muslims and Buddhists who are engaged in reinterpreting their religious texts to support new forms of activism Religion and Social Transformation series
