dignity reconciliation and peace The women are models for living in ways that transform the world The Power of a Prophetic Woman Prophetess Pumela T. Mpumlwana, 2014-06-16 This book is timely and very powerful Prophetess Pumela has been in the corridor of anointed powers of church and ministerial practice of the gospel and in power for many years There is nothing more dynamic excellent and supernaturally deep as when a daughter of God sent from above pours out her heart and soul in the activity of writing this book This book is not just a learning experience but an invitation to a journey experience with a practical prophetess Entering into the prophetic office and arena is an equal opportunity enterprise for male and female by the work of the Holy Spirit The author laid down a strong understanding of where a woman just like a man belongs in this age of controversy and doctrines that restrict women in this area of power Damned Women Elizabeth Reis, 1997 When exploring the course of events at Salem historians have often ignored assumptions about gender embedded within Puritan cosmology The author of this work examines how gender systems cut across religious belief showing the proscription of women's sinful natures and men's natural sins Prophecy and the Battle for Spiritual Authority, 1360-1400 Frances Courtney Kneupper, 2025-07-02 The end of the fourteenth century was a time of upheaval and contested authority among the traditional institutions of medieval Europe In response to these conditions a number of people began to claim their own authority as prophets speaking the word of God They came from outside of the clerical elite and were mostly women and reformers This book examines the battle over authority which ensued Prophetic women and other non elites successfully used prophecy to exert influence and to enter the corridors of power while educated male clerics insinuated that prophecy was the product of demonic influence and therefore a hazard to the public Surprisingly a third faction also emerged an international network of clerical men who wrote in support of female prophecy This volume traces the arguments made by these three groups the clashes that erupted and the long term impacts of this battle on ideas of spiritual authority Women Praying and Prophesying in Corinth Jill E. Marshall, 2017-09-15 In First Corinthians Paul makes two conflicting statements about women's speech He crafts a difficult argument about whether men and women should cover their heads while praying or prophesying 11:2-16 and instructs women to be silent in the assembly 14:34-35 These two statements bracket an extended discussion about inspired modes of speech prophecy and prayer in tongues From these exegetical observations Jill E Marshall argues that gender is a central issue throughout 1 Corinthians 11:14 and the religious speaking practices that prompted Paul's response She situates Paul's arguments about prayer and prophecy within their ancient Mediterranean cultural context using literary and archaeological evidence and examines the differences in how ancient writers described prophetic speech when voiced by a man or a woman Woman in Sacred History Harriet Beecher Stowe, 2020-08-14 Reproduction of the original Woman in Sacred History by Harriet Beecher Stowe Birgitta of Sweden and the Voice of Prophecy Claire Lynn Sahlin, 2001 Birgitta's religious authority considered with regard to her prophetic mission and her authenticity as a medium of divine revelation in 14c Europe This book examines the religious authority of St Birgitta of Sweden the charismatic moral reformer and controversial female visionary of the fourteenth century emphasising both representations of her prophetic mission and debates about her authenticity as a medium of divine revelation It illuminates Birgitta s view of herself as a prophet of moral reform by explaining how her Revelations depict her religious mission and place in salvation history going on to reconstruct interactions between Birgitta and her contemporaries including the significance of her prophetic authority vis a vis the priestly authority of her male clerical associates Finally it analyses arguments about women s suitability for mediating the divine word in posthumous attacks and defences of her claims to prophesy Through a close examination of Birgitta s lengthy Revelations canonization documents and texts by her posthumous defenders and detractors this study demonstrates that members of her audience perceived her to be both a vibrant source of supernatural power and a dangerous transgressor of conventional boundaries Informed by sociological studies of prophetic authority it contributes to our knowledge of Birgitta herself as well as to our understanding of the dynamics of women s spiritual authority Professor CLAIRE SAHLIN teaches at Texas Woman s University

Hannevi'ah and Hannah Nancy C Lee,2016-07-28 Is it possible to hear women prophets' utterances embedded within lyrics of prophetic books If so women prophets should be represented as implied composers along with men A few scholars have raised this question yet a clear method for discerning women's voices apart from feminine grammatical forms genres used and women's perspectives has not been offered This study offers a reliable method based on the sound patterns of lyrical Hebrew It discerns a consistent clear signature of women's composing more broadly and a different signature of men's composing across all lyrical genres and historical periods This methodological key when turned unlocks and throws open a window on a significant women's Hebraic composing tradition resounding in texts where women's voices are attributed and where they are unattributed There are also surprising ramifications here for the biblical narratives composed by women and rooted in oral tradition Integrating indigenous cultural postcolonial feminist and oral poetic approaches this inquiry moves past closed doors of previous suppositions including that ancient Israel was simply patriarchal It also brings a new appreciation of the practice of female and male prophets lyricising in partnership in an indigenous culture in which women individually or as a group were not always given credit for their contributions
