Prophets Or Profits:

Innovation and Competition in Zimbabwean Pentecostalism Ezra Chitando, 2021-01-28 Using the concept of a religious market this volume explores how African Traditional Religions and churches within Prophetic Pentecostalism in Zimbabwe seek to attract and retain members and clients Chapters provide extensive coverage of two of the leading churches namely Emmanuel Makandiwa's United Family International Church UFIC and Walter Magaya's Prophetic Healing and Deliverance Ministries PHD Contributors also explore the strategies adopted by Pentecostalism in general while others focus on African Traditional Religions They show that although Prophetic Pentecostalism has gained a significant share of the market in Zimbabwe and in Southern Africa in general it is not without controversy In particular it has been associated with the abuse of women and exploiting members and clients for financial gain Innovation and Competition in Zimbabwean Pentecostalism is an important contribution to understanding the marketization of religion Selling Magazine, 1907 Prophets Or

Profits? Elizabeth Baron, 1993-10-01 Handbook of Christian Prophetism in Africa, 2025-08-14 More than half a century has passed since the first monographs on African Christian prophetism were published The prophetic element was only the most dramatic and prominent part of developments that sought to bring the biblical material alive in ways that had not been experienced in the ecclesiology of Western mission Christianity The ministries of African charismatic figures of the early 20th century were oriented towards the biblical phenomenon of the prophetic and the related issue of divine or faith healing sometimes even to the neglect of the use of bio medical resources The developments have been interrogated in religious studies theology and the sociology and psychology of religion showing how important these churches have been in the African public sphere Prophecy and Politics in South African Pentecostalism Mookgo Solomon

Kgatle, 2023-12-28 This book is an interdisciplinary study of the relationship between prophecy and politics in South African Pentecostalism The role and the power of prophecy in enhancing the presence of politicians in the church square are unpacked through historical examples as well as case studies of contemporary prophets Solomon Kgatle argues that the influence of prophecy in politics has the potential to weaken the prophetic voice of the church in general and the Pentecostal movement in particular He proposes a Pentecostal political theology of prophecy This theology is developed by taking into cognizance the theoretical and theological frameworks of prophetic imagination and pneumatological imagination In addition this theology seeks a balance between prophecy and power and prophecy and sovereignty National Hardware Bulletin, 1923 Factory, the Magazine of Management, 1927 The Use and Abuse of the Spirit in Pentecostalism Mookgo

S. Kgatle, Allan H. Anderson, 2020-11-29 This book is a pneumatological reflection on the use and abuse of the Spirit in light of the abuse of religion within South African Pentecostalism Both emerging and well established scholars of South African Pentecostalism are brought together to reflect on pneumatology from various approaches which includes among others historical biblical migration commercialisation of religion discernment of spirits and human flourishing From a broader understanding of the function of the Holy Spirit in different streams of Pentecostalism the argument is that this function has changed with the emergence of the new Prophetic churches in South Africa This is a fascinating insight into one of the major emerging worldwide religious movements As such it will be of great interest to academics in Pentecostal Studies Christian Studies Theology and Religious Studies as well as African Studies and the Sociology of Religion The Magazine of Wall Street and Business Analyst ,1922 Factory ,1927 Vols 24 no 3 v 34 no 3 include International industrial digest The Magazine of Wall Street ,1922 A Poetics of Postcolonial Biblical Criticism Aliou Cisse Niang,2019-12-18 Telling in current biblical postcolonial discourse that draws insights from the works of Aim C saire Frantz Fanon and postcolonial theorists is the missing contribution of L opold S dar Senghor the architect of N gritude If mentioned at all Senghor is often read through conclusions drawn by his critics or dismissed altogether as irrelevant to postcolonialism Restored to its rightful place Senghorian Negritude is a postcolonial lens for reading Scripture and other faith traditions with a view to reposition conscientize liberate and rehabilitate the conquered and enable them to reclaim their faith traditions and practices that once directed a mutual relationship between God human and nature a delicate symbiosis before the French colonial advent in West Africa A keen eye for cross cultural analysis and contextualization enriched this volume with an intriguing reading of scripture Ancient Near Eastern and Greco Roman texts in conversation with other faith traditions particularly Senegalese Diola Religion As a Poetics of Postcolonial Biblical Criticism Negritude is an optic through which people of faith may look around themselves critically reread their sacred texts reassess their vocation and practice mutuality with God and nature on the heels of chilling climate change Enshrined in this innovative argument is a call for introspection and challenge for people of faith to assume their vocation human participatory agency Commercialisation of Religion in South Africa Mookgo Solomon Kgatle,Jonas Sello Thinane,Chammah J. Kaunda,2023-11-22 Aspects of the 2017 Final Report of the South African Commission on the Promotion and Protection of the Rights of Cultural Religious and Linguistic Communities CRL have drawn strong criticism particularly from South African scholars politicians and the public The criticism is largely regarding the constitutionality of its recommendation which calls for regulation of the Religion to combat its abuse and commercialization Scholars have criticized the CRL Rights Commission for hastening its investigation and releasing the final report without having a substantive understanding of what is meant by the commercialization of religion and consequently the unconstitutional implications of the recommendation to regulate religion A close reading of this critique has pointed to the urgent need to assemble a cumulative body of research that examines and advances understanding of what is meant by the commercialization of religion Accordingly this book gathers scholarly contributions which offer valuable insights into the basics of what is meant by the commercialization of religion Contributors examine this phenomenon from the historical roots to the manifestation in the contemporary world particularly in South Africa Automotive Industries, the Automobile ,1923 NAHB Journal of Homebuilding ,1962 The Financier ,1902 Africa Bears Witness Harvey

Kwiyani,2024-02-29 This remarkable collection of essays explores the role of African Christianity in God's mission around the world Featuring the contributions of African scholars and mission practitioners from throughout sub Saharan Africa and the diaspora including both men and women veteran scholars and fresh new voices this volume provides a diverse perspective on missiology as understood and practised by African Christians Engaging such wide ranging topics as gender violence globalization Westernization peacebuilding development Pentecostalism urban missiology theological education and African Christianity in Europe this volume ambitiously bridges the gap between academic and practitioner perspectives engaging both theological discourse and the hands on reality of how God's mission is taking shape in Africa and beyond This book offers an empowering look at the work God is accomplishing in and through the African church Christological Paradigm Shifts in Prophetic Pentecostalism in South Africa Mookgo Solomon Kgatle,Marius Nel,Collium Banda,2021-09-22 This book explores recent developments in South African Pentecostalism focusing on new prophetic churches The chapters engage with a number of paradigm shifts in Christology identified as complementing Christ competing with Christ removing Christ and replacing Christ What are the implications of these shifts Does it mean that believers no longer believe in Christ but in their leaders Does it shift believers faith towards materiality than the person of Christ This volume will be valuable for scholars of African Christianity and in particular those interested in the neo prophetic movement and Christology in a South African context Automotive Industries ,1923 Powered by Faith Tapiwa Praise Mapuranga,2018-11-30 This book investigates the impact of Pentecostalism on the participation of women in business in Harare Zimbabwe Chapters in this volume trace the history of women's participation in business and highlight how Pentecostalism serves as a major motivating factor The central argument is that there is a way in which selected women's businesses are powered by the Spirit Contributors to the volume utilize case studies of selected Pentecostal churches and ministries to highlight how the religious ideologies of these churches galvanize them to engage in business They also draw patterns of similarity and difference across the different Pentecostal churches The volume demonstrates how Pentecostalism both facilitates and militates against women's participation in business concerning a specific setting in Zimbabwe
