Secret Manipulations Anne Storch, 2011-09-02 Secret Manipulations is the first comprehensive study of African register variation, polylectality and derived languages. Focusing on a specific form of language change, deliberate manipulations of a language by its speakers, it provides a new approach to local language ideologies and concepts of grammar and metalinguistic knowledge. Anne Storch concentrates on case studies from Nigeria, Uganda, Sudan, the African diaspora and 16th century Europe. In these cases, language manipulation varies with social and cultural contexts and is almost always done in secret. At the same time, this manipulation can be an act of subversion and an expression of power, and it is often central to the construction of social norms as it constructs oppositions and gives marginalized people a chance to articulate themselves. This volume illustrates how manipulated languages are constructed, how they are used, and how they wield power. OK2BG Jack Dunsmoor, 2015 OK2BG is narrative nonfiction, a Memoir about a guy who wants to be a Mentor, preferably to a teenager, so they can have a decent, meaningful conversation about stuff, preferably with a kid at risk or just otherwise lost, in order to help both the teenager as well as the determined subject of this story realize their unique potential, find or reinforce their place in the world. Overall, a chronicle about the author's attempt over several years to understand the question of why do I want to be a Mentor, which eventually helps him become a more insightful person. Subsequently, in September 2010, after a plague of teen suicides, Jack turns his attention to researching gay biographies, into optimistically appropriate groups of books for gay kids at risk from bullying. After 5 years, Jack has categorized 2,000 books in the form of Memoirs, Biographies, Autobiographies, written by or about 1,000 allegedly gay men. The primary message in OK2BG is to read, reassess, before you run asunder. Who's Who in Gay and Lesbian History Robert Aldrich, Garry Wotherspoon, 2020-10-07 Who's Who in Gay and Lesbian History: From Antiquity to the Mid Twentieth Century is a comprehensive and fascinating survey of the key figures in gay and lesbian history from classical times to the mid twentieth century. Living in Arcadia Julian Jackson,2009-12-15 In Paris in 1954 a young man named Andr Baudry founded Arcadie an organization for homophiles that would become the largest of its kind that has ever existed in France lasting nearly thirty years In addition to acting as the only public voice for French gays prior to the explosion of radicalism of 1968 Arcadie with its club and review was a social and intellectual hub attracting support from individuals as diverse as Jean Cocteau and Michel Foucault and offering support and solidarity to thousands of isolated individuals Yet despite its huge importance Arcadie has largely disappeared from the historical record The main cause of this neglect Julian Jackson explains in Living in Arcadia is that during the post Stonewall era of queer activism Baudry's organization fell into disfavor dismissed as conservative conformist and closeted Through extensive archival research and numerous interviews with the reclusive Baudry Jackson challenges this reductive view uncovering Arcadie's pioneering efforts to educate the European public about homosexuality in an era of renewed repression In the course of relating this absorbing history Jackson offers a startlingly original account of the history of homosexuality in modern France
