Secret Manipulations Anne Storch, 2011-09-02 Secret Manipulations is the first comprehensive study of African register variation, polylectality and derived languages. Focusing on a specific form of language change, deliberate manipulations of a language by its speakers, it provides a new approach to local language ideologies and concepts of grammar and metalinguistic knowledge. Anne Storch concentrates on case studies from Nigeria, Uganda, Sudan, the African diaspora and 16th century Europe. In these cases, language manipulation varies with social and cultural contexts and is almost always done in secret. At the same time, this manipulation can be an act of subversion and an expression of power, and it is often central to the construction of social norms as it constructs oppositions and gives marginalized people a chance to articulate themselves. This volume illustrates how manipulated languages are constructed, how they are used, and how they wield power. OK2BG

Jack Dunsmoor, 2015 OK2BG is narrative nonfiction, a Memoir about a guy who wants to be a Mentor, preferably to a teenager, so they can have a decent, meaningful conversation about stuff, preferably with a kid at risk or just otherwise lost, in order to help both the teenager as well as the determined subject of this story realize their unique potential, find or reinforce their place in the world. Overall, a chronicle about the author's attempt over several years to understand the question of why do I want to be a Mentor, which eventually helps him become a more insightful person. Subsequently, in September 2010, after a plague of teen suicides, Jack turns his attention to researching gay biographies, into optimistically appropriate groups of books for gay kids at risk from bullying. After 5 years, Jack has categorized 2,000 books in the form of Memoirs, Biographies, Autobiographies, written by or about 1,000 allegedly gay men. The primary message in OK2BG is to read, reassess, before you run asunder.
