Proposals For Monuments Buildings:

Proposals for Monuments and Buildings, 1965-69 Claes Oldenburg, 1969 Listed Buildings, Conservation Areas and Monuments Charles Mynors, 2006 Published monthly this journal monitors developments in planning law environmental law compulsory purchase and related issues The journal is a forum for debate in planning and associated areas It includes current topics articles Parliamentary and Departmental news and case law reports Monuments for Posterity Antony Kalashnikov, 2023-04-15 Monuments for Posterity challenges the common assumption that Stalinist monuments were constructed with an immediate propagandistic function arguing instead that they were designed to memorialize the present for an imagined posterity In this respect even while pursuing its monument building program with a singular ruthlessness and on an unprecedented scale the Stalinist regime was broadly in step with transnational monument building trends of the era and their undergirding cultural dynamics By integrating approaches from cultural history art criticism and memory studies along with previously unexplored archival material Antony Kalashnikov examines the origin and implementation of the Stalinist monument building program from the perspective of its goal to immortalize the memory of the era He analyzes how this objective affected the design and composition of Stalinist monuments what cultural factors prompted the sudden and powerful yearning to be remembered and most importantly what the culture of self commemoration revealed about changing outlooks on the future both in the Soviet Union and beyond its borders Monuments for Posterity shifts the perspective from monuments political ideological content to the desire to be remembered and prompts a much needed reconsideration of the supposed uniqueness of both Stalinist aesthetics and the temporal culture that they expressed Many Stalinist monuments still stand prominently in postsocialist cityscapes and remain the subject of continual heated political controversy Kalashnikov makes manifest monuments intentional attempts to seduce us the posterity for whom they were built Cape Krusenstern National Monument (N.M.), Proposed , 1975 Proposed Cape Krusenstern National Monument, Alaska United States. and how such protection usually develops in a modern city In particular it considers the problems and disputes that provided the focus for development of law and policy in Hong Kong especially the legacy of 150 years as a British colony and the consequent identification as a borrowed and temporary place The Brief considers how effective law and policy has been in protecting built heritage under the colonial and post colonial administrations their successes and failures These include the Kowloon Canton Railway Station the Antiquities and Monuments Ordinance reclamation of Victoria Harbour violent protests at Queen s Pier and the introduction of mandatory heritage impact assessments for government projects The text concludes noting recent successes which may indicate a brighter future for the protection of Hong Kong s built heritage Claes
