Psychoanalytic Memoirs Jeffrey Berman, 2022-11-17 The first book length study of the psychoanalytic memoir this book examines key examples of the genre including Sigmund Freud's mistitled An Autobiographical Study Helene Deutsch's Confrontations with Myself An Epilogue Wilfred Bion's War Memoirs 1917 1919 Masud Khan's The Long Wait Sophie Freud's Living in the Shadow of the Freud Family and Irvin D Yalom and Marilyn Yalom's A Matter of Death and Life Offering in each chapter a brief character sketch of the memoirist the book shows how personal writing fits into their other work often demonstrating the continuities and discontinuities in an author's life as well as discussing each author's contributions to psychoanalysis whether positive or negative

Psychoanalyses / Feminisms Peter L. Rudnytsky, Andrew Gordon, 2000-01-01 Bringing together twelve provocative and iconoclastic contributions by leading scholars and new voices this book probes the complementary yet contested relations between various forms of contemporary psychoanalysis and feminism The intention is not simply to juxtapose these two preeminent intellectual movements of the twentieth century but to highlight the manifold nature of each The contributors use and interrogate Freud Lacan Klein Irigaray Riviere and Jessica Benjamin as well as object relations theory self psychology and Horneyan theory as they discuss the work of such writers as D H Lawrence Emily Bronte Virginia Woolf and Kathy Acker If feminism has insisted that the personal is political psychoanalysis argues that no realm of human life is impervious to unconscious motives which may subvert a subject's avowed intentions Although Freud remains a point of reference he is now important as a symptom of the crises of Western patriarchal culture as well as for his epoch making theoretical ideas Because feminism and psychoanalysis unsettle each other's complacencies they rekindle their own radical potential and what may be perhaps termed their marriage has proven as this book amply shows to be both enduring and fecund

The River House Angela R. Newland, 2023-05-08 Engineer Victoria and her husband Kevin purchased the house of their dreams on the Caloosahatchee River in Southwest Florida in 2016 Although the house was over forty years old the couple happily endured various home repair and improvement projects knowing that the stunning beauty of the home's location was well worth any aggravation Their blissful state of mind was shattered less than a year after they purchased the property when Hurricane Irma paid an unwelcome visit The hurricane's horrific damage to their beloved home was only the beginning of their agonies The tense saga of dealing with a dysfunctional property insurance company was then superseded by the convoluted process for getting their house reconstructed to the current building code The cliffhanger ending is followed by lessons learned that are beneficial to anyone living in a hurricane prone area

Singing River Story Laura Hildick Burge, 2005-11 The legend of the Singing River has evolved into a world where the folds of time touch to transport Lauren Rayburn a pursued mother back to the 17th century Here she finds a Native American tribe untouched by the encroaching Europeans Her presence sparks an age old war that had almost extinguished the peaceful tribe many years before Crying at the Movies Madelon Sprengnether, 2011-05-10 For years I cried not over my own losses but at the movies When bad things happened to me in real life I didn't react I seemed cool or indifferent Yet in the dark and relative safety of the movie theater I would weep over fictional tragedies over someone else's tragedy At age nine Madelon Sprengnether watched her father drown in the Mississippi River Her mother swallowed the family's grief whole and no one spoke of the tragedy thereafter Only years later did Sprengnether react and in a most unlikely place in the theater watching the film Pather Panchali by Satyajit Ray In the fascinating memoir Crying at the Movies Sprengnether looks at the sublime connections between happenings in the present troubling events from the past and the imagined world of movies By examining the films she had intense emotional reactions to throughout her adult life House of Cards Solaris Fearless The Cement Garden Shadowlands and Blue Sprengnether finds a way to work through her own losses mistakes and pain River of Dreams Jan Nash, 2020-07-21 Draped in themes of first love and family secrets and malevolence and swirling through an exhilarating dream world full of danger violence and love Jan Nash's exciting debut is a high stakes adventure full of suspense romance and magic perfect for fans of Stranger Things and Supernatural Finn Driscoll is counting down the days until she can leave for college With her beloved brother Noah in a coma and her high school social life sinking every day she's ready for a fresh start Until the night she sees Noah in a dream He begs for her help At first she shakes it off as just a nightmare Then it happens again And again Frightened Finn confides in her grandmother only to learn the shocking truth about her family They're Dreamwalkers heroes who step into the River of Dreams and fight the monsters in other people's nightmares freeing them to face the problems in their real lives Awake or asleep Finn has never thought of herself as any kind of hero and walking through other people's dreams seems much worse than just hiding at school But as hard as facing this challenge might be Finn knows she has no choice she will do anything she can to save her brother The Angel of Duluth Madelon Sprengnether, 2006 A deeply satisfying book that walks dances and finally leaps across the line between genres Rosellen Brown A Dream to Follow (Return to Red River Book #1) Lauraine Snelling, 2001-10-01 It is 1893 and the first generation of immigrants who came to America for the promise of free land and a good life for their children have finally achieved their dreams They labored hard on the land and now have a bountiful heritage to pass on to the next generation However many of the young people aren't interested in becoming farmers they have aspirations of their own Thorliff Bjorklund has been writing stories and plays since he was a young boy and longs to attend college to study journalism But his father has other plans for him and refuses to agree Thorliff is torn between love for his father and the pull of his dream Must he choose between the two The (M)other Tongue Shirley N. Garner, Claire Kahane, Madelon S. Sprengnether, 2019-06-30 This timely and provocative collection of sixteen essays combines feminist and psychoanalytic approaches to literary theory and to the reading of literary texts It demonstrates not only the ways in which psychoanalytic theory can illuminate traditional literary texts but also the ways in which feminist theory can modify enlarge and in some instances transform the body of psychoanalytic literature Treating psychoanalysis as a form of narrative as well as a method of interpretation the editors have divided their collection into three sections 1 interpretations of the relation between contemporary feminism and Freud 2 rereadings of classic patriarchal texts in the light of psychoanalytic feminism and 3 readings of texts by women writers that have subverted patriarchal structures and given authoritative new voice to the maternal figure Many of the essays make original contributions to the current debate about the conjunction of Freud and feminism others offer innovative readings of specific texts that illustrate the significance of that relation The Introduction provides an up to date survey of feminist psychoanalytic theory and enumerates the central issues Because of the diversity of critical perspectives it offers and the range of texts it considers this rich and important book will attract a broad spectrum of readers Great riches, Nelly Rivers' story, by aunt Fanny Frances Elizabeth Barrow, 1867
