Poems for Our Grandchildren Edith G. Bauman, Dr. Robert P. Bauman, 2011-10-26 hared memories bind families and friends together Not least important among these are memories of stories songs and poems repeated often and incorporated into everyday thought and expression The child who grows up unaware of literature of the past is surely impoverished To fill this vacuum with the deluge of current song lyrics and drama from television and movies is scarcely a satisfactory solution We heard many of the poems assembled here from our mothers and have often read or recited most of these to our children The volumes from which they came are falling apart and long since out of print or too bulky for convenient handling Thus we saw the need for a compact selection Although from a variety of scattered sources we leaned heavily on a collection that appeared early in the 20th century in the magazine Normal Instructor Primary Plans subsequently published as Poems Teachers Ask For by F A Owen Publishing Company of Danville N Y Many of the poems such as the Mother Goose rhymes are no longer attributable to individuals and are heard in different versions Where authors are known we have given the name and have adhered to original words spelling and punctuation In the very few instances in which wording has been changed an asterisk has been placed by the authors name and the changes noted at the end of the book Since the collection was first assembled our own grandchildren have become the readers rather than the read to Yet to our knowledge no substantial body of new poetry has come along to take the place of these traditional works that range from light fancy to the joys and perils of growing up and the heroism of those who came before us Thus these out of date poems may be even more important to the children of the 21st century than to those for whom they were originally compiled This small collection ranges from familiar nursery rhymes to somber works on the struggles and valor of our forebearers It is our hope that these poems may bring mirth joy and an appreciation of our heritage to new generations of children and to their parents and grandparents

Office of Education,1960 Quarterly Journal of the Berks Archaeological and Architectural Society Berkshire Archaeological Society,1891 The Sentimental in Chinese Cinema Hui Miao,2022-03-30 This book explores manifestations and perpetuations of the sentimental in Mainland Chinese cinema from the 1990s to the 2000s A sentimental Chinese cinema one that articulates notions of homecoming and belonging emerged in the 1990s with its distinctive styles The representations and configurations of this evolving style of Chinese cinematic expression are not only thought provoking in their own right but also in the way they contrast with past forms of Chinese sentimental cinema and with sentimental aesthetics elsewhere in the world These new representations have transformed established family centred expressions of the sentimental in Chinese cinema The new sentimental emphasises togetherness and a yearning for belonging which often appear in the themes of homecoming and home longing This also forms a cultural resistance towards the increasingly alienating and isolating forces of globalisation and urbanisation This book analyses the sociocultural conditions that have allowed for a renewed understanding of the sentimental and the cultural identity markers that are perpetually under contestation The Guru Drinks Bourbon? Dzongsar Jamyang Khyentse,2016-11-22 An enlightening accessible and highly entertaining guide to the guru disciple relationship the heart of Tibetan Buddhism The humility and compassionate activity of the Dalai Lama is something many people can connect with but how can one understand the stories about some other Buddhist teachers unorthodox behavior The centrality of and reliance on a guru is one of most misunderstood elements of Tibetan Buddhism and one that is most often veiled in mystery Because the guru can and will use whatever means it takes to wake us up this relationship may require us to drop our most deeply held beliefs and expectations Dzongsar Jamyang Khyentse addresses some of the most misunderstood aspects of this powerful relationship and gives practical advice on making the most of this precious opportunity for transformation Through stories and classical examples he shows how to walk the path with eyes wide open with critical thinking skills sharpened and equipped to analyze the guru before taking the leap Emerging Patterns of Collection Development in Expanding Resource Sharing, Electronic Information and Network Environment Sul H.
