The Edge of Bali and Other Writings Inez Baranay, 2013-07-01 Three people travel to Bali for very different reasons Marla is well read in Bali's culture she distrusts false ideologies orientalism and tourism To her surprise she finds the echoes of a golden age and a passionate lover Nelson a young woman from Sydney returns in the hope of reuniting with her Balinese boyfriend but encounters the unexpected Tyler a New Yorker searching for a lost friend enters a world of mystery and intrigue All three are on the edge unsure of whether they should stay in Bali any longer but are increasingly drawn into the heart of this complex and alluring island Through subtle storytelling and compelling characters Inez Baranay unravels the exotic ways of knowing and the culture of tourism in one of the world's favourite destinations

News from Nowhere and Other Writings William Morris, 2004-12-02 Poet pattern designer environmentalist and maker of fine books William Morris 1834-96 was also a committed socialist and visionary writer obsessively concerned with the struggle to achieve a perfect society on earth News From Nowhere one of the most significant English works on the theme of utopia is the tale of William Guest a Victorian who wakes one morning to find himself in the year 2102 and discovers a society that has changed beyond recognition into a pastoral paradise in which all people live in blissful equality and contentment A socialist masterpiece News From Nowhere is a vision of a future free from capitalism isolation and industrialisation This volume also contains a wide selection of Morris's writings lectures journalism and letters which expand upon the key themes of News From Nowhere

Letters and Other Writings of the Late Edward Denison Edward Denison, 1872 Middle-earth and the Return of the Common Good Joshua Hren, 2018-10-05 Political philosophy is nothing other than looking at things political under the aspect of eternity This book invites us to look philosophically at political things in J R R Tolkien's legendarium demonstrating that Tolkien's potent mythology can be brought into rich fruitful dialogue with works of political philosophy and political theology as different as Plato's Timaeus Aquinas De Regno Hobbes's Leviathan and Erik Peterson's Monotheism as a Political Problem It concludes that a political reading of Tolkien's work is most luminous when conducted by the harmonious lights of fides et ratio as found in the thought of Thomas Aquinas A broad study of Tolkien and the political is especially pertinent in that the legendarium operates on two levels As a popular mythology it is in the author's own words a really long story that would hold the attention of readers amuse them delight them and at times maybe excite them or deeply move them But the stories of The Silmarillion and The Lord of the Rings contain deeper teachings that can only be drawn out when read philosophically Written from the vantage of a mind that is deeply Christian Tolkien s stories grant us a revelatory gaze into the major political problems of modernity from individualism to totalitarianism sovereignty to surveillance terror to technocracy As an outsider in modernity Tolkien invites us to question the modern in a manner that moves beyond reaction into a vivid and compelling vision of the common good

Afterlives of the Plantation Jarvis C. McInnis,2025-05-13 Built on the grounds of a former cotton plantation the Tuskegee Institute founded by Booker T Washington offered agricultural and industrial education as a strategy for Black self determination There and in many other communities in the U S South the Caribbean and Central America Black people repurposed and regenerated what had been a place of enslavement into a site for imagining alternative futures Jarvis C McInnis charts a new account of Black modernity by centering Tuskegee s vision of agrarian worldmaking He traces the diasporic ties and networks of exchange that linked Black communities in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Although Washington is often regarded as an accommodationist McInnis shows how artists intellectuals and political leaders including George Washington Carver Jean Price Mars Zora Neale Hurston Claude McKay and Marcus Garvey adapted Tuskegee s methods into dynamic strategies for liberation in places like Cuba Puerto Rico Haiti and Jamaica Even as the legacy of the plantation continued to circumscribe Black life these thinkers found resources in its ruins to forge new theories and practices of progress aesthetic innovation and freedom that contributed to the New Negro Movement of the 1920s and 1930s In contrast to traditional understandings of Black modernity as urban and premised on northward migration McInnis foregrounds rural settings and practices of place making rootedness and liberatory agriculture Shedding new light on the transnational influence of a historically Black institution in the U S South Afterlives of the Plantation remaps Black cultural intellectual and political histories down to the very soil

Multimodal Composing and Writing Transfer Kara Poe Alexander,Matthew Davis,Lilian W.

Mina, Ryan P. Shepherd, 2024-02-15 Multimodal Composing and Writing Transfer explores transfer across various contexts of multimodal composing extending the early conversations connecting multimodality to writing Contributors address how writing transfer theories intersect with multimodal composing and present methods for facilitating transfer across modes and media offering insight into how writers can learn to compose when they encounter familiar modes in new contexts Over the past two decades the concepts of multimodal composing and writing transfer have grown and reshaped the nature of writing studies but rarely have the ways in which these areas overlap been studied This collection shows how this shift in writing studies has been mutually informative covering a wider range of contexts for multimodality and writing transfer than just in first year composition courses It places composition teaching practices and multimodal research in conversation with learning transfer theory to provide an in depth examination of how they influence one another Multimodal Composing and Writing Transfer develops these intersections to connect multimodal composition and writing practices across a wide array of fields and contexts Scholars across disciplines postsecondary writing teachers writing program administrators writing center directors and graduate students will find this collection indispensable Good Roads, 1916 The Cambridge

Companion to American Travel Writing Alfred Bendixen, Judith Hamera, 2009-01-29 Travel writing has always been intimately linked with the construction of American identity Occupying the space between fact and fiction it exposes cultural fault lines and reveals the changing desires and anxieties of both the traveller and the reading public These specially commissioned essays trace the journeys taken by writers from the pre revolutionary period right up to the present They examine a wide range of responses to the problems posed by landscapes found both at home and abroad from the Mississippi and the Southwest to Europe and the Holy Land Throughout the contributors focus on the role played by travel writing in the definition and formulation of national identity and consider the experiences of minority writers as well as canonical authors This Companion forms an invaluable guide for students approaching this new important and exciting subject for the first time
