Realism's Others Eva Aldea, Geoffrey Baker, 2010-07-12 For at least a century scholarship on realist narrative and occasional polemics against realist narrative have assumed that realism promotes the values of sameness against those of otherness and that it does so by use of a narrative mode that excludes certain epistemologies ideologies and ways of thinking However the truth is more complex than that as the essays in this volume all demonstrate Realism's Others examines the various strategies by which realist narratives create the idea of difference whether that difference is registered in terms of class ethnicity epistemology nationality or gender The authors in this collection examine in detail not just the fact of otherness in some canonical realist and canonical magical realist and postmodern novels but the actual means by which that otherness is established by the text These essays suggest that neither realist narrative nor narratives positioned as anti realist take otherness for granted rather the texts discussed here actively create difference and this creation of difference often occasions severe difficulties for the novels representational schema How does one represent different types of knowledge other aesthetic modes or other spaces for example in texts whose epistemology has long been seen as secular and empirical whose aesthetic mode has always been approached as pure descriptive mimesis and whose settings are largely domestic These essays all begin with a certain collision of nationalities of classes of representational matrices of religions and go on to chart the challenges that this collision presents to our ideas or stereotypes of realism or to the possibilities of writing against and beyond realism This question motivates examination of key realist or social realist texts in some of these essays by Honoré de Balzac George Eliot Franz Grillparzer Theodor Storm Gottfried Keller Theodor Fontane Wilhelm Raabe Marcel Aymon Ruiz de Burton Henry James William Dean Howells Charles Chesnutt Theodore Dreiser H T Tsiang Alan Sillitoe and Richard Yates However it is no less central a question in certain non realist texts which engage realist aims to a surprising degree often to debate them openly some of these essays discuss in this light fantastic magical realist and postmodern works by Abram Tertz Paul Auster Alejo Carpentier Toni Morrison Gabriel García Márquez Salman Rushdie and A S Byatt Realism becomes more than an aesthetic aim or narrative mode It becomes rather a value evoked and discussed by all of the works analyzed here in order to reveal its impact on fiction's treatment of ethnicity nationality ideology space gender and social class

welcomed an unexpected visitor to his home Lev Tolstoy The renowned realists talked for hours and Tolstoy turned his critical eye to the sketches in Repin s studio Tolstoy s criticisms would later prompt Repin to reflect on the question of creative expression and conclude that the path to artistic truth is relative dependent on the mode and medium of representation In this original study Molly Brunson traces many such paths that converged to form the tradition of nineteenth century Russian realism a tradition that spanned almost half a century from the youthful projects of the Natural School and the critical realism of the age of reform to the mature masterpieces of Tolstoy Fyodor Dostoevsky and the paintings of the Wanderers Repin chief among them By examining the classics of the tradition Brunson explores the emergence of multiple realisms from the gaps disruptions and doubts that accompany the self conscious project of representing reality These manifestations of realism are united not by how they look or what they describe but by their shared awareness of the fraught yet critical task of representation By tracing the engagement of literature and painting with aesthetic debates on the sister arts Brunson argues for a conceptualization of realism that transcends artistic media Russian Realisms integrates the lesser known tradition of Russian painting with the familiar masterpieces of Russia s great novelists highlighting both the common ground in their struggles for artistic realism and their cultural autonomy and legitimacy This erudite study will appeal to scholars interested in Russian literature and art comparative literature art history and nineteenth century realist movements Public Roads ,2009 Military Realism Peter Campbell,2019-05-08 After the Vietnam War the U S Army considered counterinsurgency COIN a mistake to be avoided Many found it surprising then when setbacks in recent conflicts led the same army to adopt a COIN doctrine Scholarly debates have primarily employed existing theories of military bureaucracy or culture to explain the army s re embrace of COIN but Peter Campbell advances a unique argument centering on military realism to explain the complex evolution of army doctrinal thinking from 1960 to 2008 In five case studies of U S Army doctrine Campbell pits military realism against bureaucratic and cultural perspectives in three key areas nuclear versus conventional warfare preferences for offense versus defense and COIN missions and finds that the army has been more doctrinally flexible than those perspectives would predict He demonstrates that decision makers while vowing in the wake of Vietnam to avoid COIN missions nonetheless found themselves adapting to the geopolitical realities of fighting low intensity conflicts In essence he demonstrates that pragmatism has won out over dogmatism At a time when American policymakers remain similarly conflicted about future defense strategies Campbell s work will undoubtedly shape and guide the debate Image and Vision Computing Wei Qi Yan,Minh Nguyen,Martin Stommel,2023-02-03 This book constitutes the proceedings of the 37th International Conference IVCNZ 2022 which took place in Auckland New Zealand in November 2022 The 37 papers 14 accepted for long oral presentation 23 for short oral presentation included in this volume were carefully reviewed and selected from 79 submissions The conference presents papers on all aspects of computer vision image processing computer graphics virtual and augmented reality visualization and HCI applications related to these fields

Sahakyan, Kevin Lo, 2025-09-15 This handbook critically analyses and examines the impact of China's Belt and Road Initiative (BRI) geostrategy in Eurasia. Covering the impact of the BRI and the positions of other great, middle and small powers, the ten parts explain the geopolitical and geoeconomic dynamics along the Silk Road Economic Belt's six major economic corridors, implementing case studies on Europe, South Caucasus, Central Asia, Russian Far East, Middle East, South Asia, Southeast Asia and East Asia. Expert scholars from East, West, North and South engage with BRI concepts to create a book that will be of interest to policymakers, businesspeople, scholars and students of area studies, cybersecurity and digitalisation, economics, security studies, the politics of international trade, foreign policy, global governance and international organisations. Image and Identity

R. Bruce Elder, 2006-01-01 What do images of the body, which recent poets and filmmakers have given us, tell us about ourselves, about the way we think and about the culture in which we live? In his new book A Body of Vision, R. Bruce Elder situates contemporary poetic and cinematic body images in their cultural context. Elder examines how recent artists have tried to recognize and to convey primordial forms of experiences. He proposes the daring thesis that in their efforts to do so, artists have resorted to gnostic models of consciousness. He argues that the attempt to convey these primordial modes of awareness demands a different conception of artistic meaning from any of those that currently dominate contemporary critical discussion. By reworking theories and speech in highly original ways, Elder formulates this new conception. The works of Brakhage, Artaud, Schneeman, Cohen and others lie naked under Elder's razor sharp dissecting knife, and he exposes the essence of their work, cutting deeply into the themes and theses from which the works are derived. His remarks on the gaps in contemporary critical practices will likely become the focus of much debate. The Explanationist Defense of Scientific Realism
